

Friends Honor Sherwood Couple On Anniversary

By Mrs. Julia E. McGeath
SHERWOOD—Approximately 200 persons gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. James H. Sherwood on their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, November 28. The Old Fellows hall was beautifully decorated with autumn colors, candles, lace tablecloths, and lovely cakes.

The following program was presented in the early afternoon: short talk by Rev. P. M. Blenkinsop of Tigard; a piano solo, "Largo," by Marilyn Blenkinsop, all of the guests of honor; a duet by Rev. P. M. and Ken Blenkinsop, "Back of the Clouds," and two vocal solos, "Love and Success to You" and "Why Don't we do This More Often?" by Lucille Board, accompanied by Donna Meincke. Refreshments were served. A remembrance of time while old friends visited. Pouring were: Mrs. Manuel Adolph, niece of Mrs. H. H. Sherwood; Mrs. Ken Blenkinsop, all from Twin Falls, Idaho; and Mrs. Albert Zimmerman, sister of Mrs. H. H. Sherwood, who is the only other remaining member of the wedding party.

Receiving gifts was Mrs. Ed Dohse, great niece of Mrs. H. H. Sherwood. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Romeo Bott from Tacoma, Wash. Assisting around the room were: Mrs. Pete Mathiesen, niece of Mrs. H. H. Sherwood; Mrs. Walter Schmidt, Mrs. Frank Bell, Mrs. Earl Mansfield, Mrs. Sam Cereghino and Mrs. Ken Blenkinsop, all from Twin Falls, Idaho; and Mrs. Albert Zimmerman, sister of Mrs. H. H. Sherwood. Out-of-town guests included the Tom Kilpatrick family from Portland, Mrs. Clara Ryan and daughter and Archie Campbell, all from Portland, Robert Board and wife from Sheridan, L. Gubers from Lake Grove, and Rev. and Mrs. P. M. Blenkinsop of Tigard. Teacher Visits.

CATTLE RANCH, right in the heart of the cattle country. A beauty spot in the Blue Mts. 400 acres with outside range available. Good ranch house with usual cereals, barn, chicken house, smoke house, etc. Can farm about 100 acres. Three nice creeks on place, one real large one with lots of trout. Have private irrigation system with water rights. Most of cattle already sold but will let about a dozen head and one good cow pony go with place for herd starter. Some pine timber on place, also farm machinery. Ranch is south of Pendleton in the John Day country, 14 mi. from Monument and about 22 mi. from Long Creek. Best hunting spot in the state. Would make swell dude ranch. Ranch is in charge of competent cow-hand who will stay for new owner if desired. Sell for $18,000 or trade for local property. Berry or fruit farm preferred—Contact L.
