

Local Residents Enjoy Holidays

By Mrs. G. W. Kurtz
CHERRY GROVE—Cherry Grove school presented their Christmas program to a capacity house Monday evening, December 20. Numbers on the program included songs, recitations, acrobatic, and plays. Charlene Johnson played the piano for all the singing. At the end of the program Santa Claus came on the scene with a treat for all the children.

Each room had an exchange of gifts Wednesday afternoon. School closed Wednesday to open again Monday January 3.

Children Present Program
Seth school had their program Tuesday evening. The 12 little children in the first five grades presented a program of humorous recitations, several songs, an original play, a skit, and the Christmas story told in Christmas carols sung before the three specially lighted scenes of the shepherds, the Wise Men and the manger in the stable. Before a painted backdrop showing Bethlehem, Mrs. Joe Stevens played a medley of Christmas songs on her accordion. Carl Hering sang, "Star of the East" and "White Christmas," accompanied by his sister Mrs. William C. By special request the school sang, "She'll Be Coming Round the Mountain." As the school sang, "Here Comes Santa Claus," Santa, himself arrived with a great clatter and ringing of real sleigh bells. He carried a pack full of candy for all the children and helped deliver the gifts the children had made for their fathers and mothers.

Almost 100 persons were present to enjoy the program and the potluck supper served by the mothers afterwards. Mrs. Vernon Strong and Mrs. Ed Durnford of Cherry Grove, assisted with the supper.

A special guest was George N. Angel, staff writer for the Oregon Farmer, from Oswego. Other relatives and friends were present from Seattle, Wash., Portland, McMinnville, Yamhill, Gaston, Forest Grove, and Seeth district.

The school is very grateful for the donation of dishes, and cash for needed dishes for school use and for use at community gatherings. School closed Wednesday for vacation until January 3.

May the sun rise on a bright New Year with peace and understanding towards all mankind.

Station Prowled On Canyon Road
WEST SLOPE—A Sunday night robbery of the Texaco service station on Canyon road near Sylvan, was discovered Monday morning by Mike Senko, owner and operator of the station, when he went to the station to open up for business, and discovered the heavy plate glass front window smashed and a fire and tire chain stolen by unknown persons who left no clues.

Intruders entered the station about four weeks ago, also on a Sunday night by picking the padlock on the door. An attempt to take the safe from the office was made, but the safe evidently proved too heavy to lift over intervening partition between the office and the main station, or the thieves may have been frightened off before they could finish their work.
