

Miss Jean Robison Becomes Bride of Mr. Barackman

Miss Jean Robison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robison of Hillsboro, became the bride of Mr. W. P. Barackman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Barackman of Hillsboro, at a lovely ceremony held Sunday afternoon, December 26, at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church in Hillsboro. Rev. C. J. Forsberg read the marriage rites. The church was decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums, with candles.

Miss Betty Grable played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Ronald Clark, as he sang "Because" and "Through the Years." Candelabra were lit by Miss Robison and Clayton Heine. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of blue-velvet satin with lace trim. Her three-tiered fingertip veil had a lace trim and her flowers were pink roses and white bouvardia centered with white orchids.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Ramona Peterson, sister of the bride, wearing a gown of pink satin brocade with matching shoulder-length veil and flowers of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums tied with white streamers. Bridesmaids were Misses Norma Jean Barackman of Hillsboro and Mary Broad of Astoria, in smoky green satin gowns with matching shoulder-length veils, and Jo Ann Robison and Barbara Magnus of Hillsboro, in pink satin gowns with matching shoulder-length veils, and all carrying yellow and bronze chrysanthemums tied with white streamers.

Best man was Jim Johnson and ushers were Walt Johnson, Art Berger, Gordon Mann, and Floyd Peterson. A reception was held in the church parlors, with table decorations of pink carnations and ferns. Miss Miller and Mrs. J. M. Johnson poured, and Mrs. W. P. Barackman of Hillsboro and Mrs. Art Barackman of Carlton cutting the cake. Mrs. R. A. Johnson and Miss Ruby Johnson were in charge of gifts and Jimmy Robison and Clayton Heine passed the guest book.

For her traveling costume, the bride wore a light gray dress with dark gray accessories. After a luncheon at the beach, the couple will make their home in Salinas, Cal. after January 1.

The bride graduated from Hillsboro High school in 1940 and has been employed as a secretary. The bridegroom graduated from Hillsboro High in 1946 and served in the U. S. Army.

Out-of-town guests included the following: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barackman of Carlton; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Heine of Sherwood; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garmen; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilkerson; and Mr. and Mrs. Vance Wood of Portland.

Leave for West Indies—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Price and son Eddie left Tuesday evening by plane for New York City. From where they will take another plane for Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic, on the island of Haiti. The Prices expect to be gone about eight months, while he is doing some work there for Alcoa Mining company.

Plan Installation—Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist church will meet at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening, January 12, at the church for installation of officers. Rev. C. J. Forsberg will be installing officers. Mrs. Branch of Forest Grove, Western W. S. C. S. secretary, will be the speaker. All working women are invited to attend.

Entertain Employees—Hill-Hansen Printing Service entertained their employees and friends at a buffet dinner party, Thursday evening, December 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Ball. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Forbis, A. S. Vaughn, James Willock, Ira Butterworth, R. M. Kamp, B. J. Smith, N. W. Ralston, Warren Haley, William Martin and Miss Joyce Holberg.

Leave on Vacation—Map and Peg Oelund plan to leave on a short vacation next week. They will fly one of their own planes to Eastern Oregon for a few days. If possible they will set down at Lakeview, Pendleton and The Dalles.
