Miss Gnos Weds Donald Holmes at Methodist Church

The Methodist church in Hillsboro was the scene of a lovely wedding on Saturday evening, January 1, at 8 o'clock when Miss Irene Gnos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gnos of Boise, Idaho, was united in marriage to Donald Holmes, son of Mrs. Marvel Holmes of Elsie, Ore. Rev. C. J. Fensberg read the marriage ceremony.

The church was decorated with baby chrysanthemums and snapdragons, and candelabra. Aisle decorations were chrysanthemums and bows. Miss Ramona Gabelman played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Dale Sloan, as he sang "I Love You Truly and Because."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with lace around the neck going to a "V" in back. A cascade of lace trailed in back to form a small train. She had a fingertip veil belonging to Mrs. Carolyn Mann. Her flowers were white carnations with small pink rosebuds.

Maid of honor was Miss Mildred Zimmerman, wearing blue taffeta and carrying carnations and roses with blue lace. Miss Joyce Gnos in rose taffeta was bridesmaid carrying carnations and roses with rose lace.

Best man was William Martin of Cornelius and groomsmen were Vernon Gnos, Ushers were Sherwood Wilford, Allan Henderson, Norman Goetz and Chuck Jones.

The reception was held in the social rooms of the church, with Alice Farby as hostess. The wedding cake was pink and white with snapdragons around it. A bell hung over the table with blue and white streamers. Mrs. Edward Freuden-thal and Mrs. A. E. Deaville poured. Mrs. Frank Hoge cut the cake. Assistants were Mrs. Ross Farby, Mrs. Otto Voges, Mrs. William Putnam, Mrs. J. H. Thomas, Mrs. George Zimmerman, Miss Barbara Thomas, Miss Margaret Freuden-thal, Miss Crystal Belle Voges, Miss Elaine Farby, Miss Beverly Dober, Miss Janice Gnos, Miss Gleva Holmes, ice cream cutting assistants were Kenneth Voges and Karl Wajohn. In charge of gifts were Misses Margaret and Maurine Putnam and Ernestine Schuilenberg. Miss LaDelle Eschen passed the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gnos wore a royal blue dress with small black velvet hat. Mrs. Holmes wore a navy blue suit with winter white hat.

The bride's going-away ensemble consisted of a taupe gabardine suit with black accessories and a white shawl. After a honeymoon trip to Los Angeles, the couple will make their home on a farm near Elsie, Ore.

The bride, who is a graduate of Hillsboro high school, class of 1948, attended Oregon State college. The bridegroom graduated from Hillsboro high school in the class of 1948 and has a dairy major.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gnos from Poulsbo, Wash.

Miss Tsugawa and Mr. Fujishin Wed in Portland

In a candlelight ceremony, December 27, at the Highland Congregational church in Portland, Miss Helen Tsugawa, formerly of Hillsboro, became the bride of Michael Fujishin, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Fujishin of Caldwell, Idaho. Reverend Robert J. Allen performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her brother, Henry Tsugawa, the bride wore a traditional dress of slipper satin with lace inserts in the train. Her fingertip veil fell from a Mary Stuart cap and she carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations centered with an orchid.

Miss Pollie Minamoto, maid of honor, wore an aqua taffeta dress with a halo of white baby chrysanthemums and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Miss Helen Fujishin, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Aya Iwasaki, bridesmaids, wore an orchid and a pale yellow dress similar to the maid of honor, and both carried bouquets of pink roses. Misses Patsy and Linda Ogura, nieces of the bride, were flowergirls and they carried nosegays of chrysanthemums and rosebuds.

Atushi Shintani was best man and ushers were Ike Tsugawa and Tio Kikawa.

Pouring and assisting in the church parlors were Miss Julie Tateishi, Miss Dorothy Iwasaki, Mrs. Tom Ogura, Mrs. Ike Tsugawa, Mrs. Henry Tsugawa, and Mrs. Tio Kikawa.

After a honeymoon trip to California, Mr. and Mrs. Fujishin will make their home in Caldwell, Ida.

The Goodwill Industries truck will be in Hillsboro on Monday, January 10. Telephone 2902 for pick-up.
