

New Church Officers Elected at Cornelius; Lions Meet This Eve

By Mrs. Juanita Dore
CORNELIUS Annual meeting of the Emanuel Lutheran church congregation in Cornelius was held Sunday afternoon.

With the new officers elected to the church council, this group now consists of the following members: David Otto, chairman; Mrs. Arno Wardius, secretary; Mrs. Fred Hering, treasurer; John Jannasch, Fred Hering and G. Lutz, trustees; and Henry Hoffman, Walter Hering, and Arno Wardius, deacons.

It was reported at this meeting that during the past year membership of the congregation increased from 96 to 114 and the confirmed membership increased from 28 to 32. The gains in the confirmed membership are the result of adult baptisms, confirmation of young people and adults and adults who transferred their membership from other Lutheran congregations.

Lions Meet Tonight

Buchanan Retires As Mail Carrier

By Mrs. Anna Taylor
HILLSBORO—A. W. Buchanan, who was mail carrier on route 2 Beaverton, prior to his serious illness, has retired after nearly 30 years in the postal service. Mr. Buchanan received the service on March 1, 1939, in the rotary department of the Portland office and served there until October 4, 1931, when he transferred to the rural route of the Beaverton office. Mr. Buchanan is a fishing and hunting enthusiast and plans to pursue his hobbies after his complete recovery, but will always have a keen interest in the postal service. He will be greatly missed by his many friends on the route where he was supervised by four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
