

Mrs. Wallace Heads All Saints Guild

The Women's Guild of All Saints Episcopal church held its first meeting of the new year at the parish hall, Wednesday evening, January 5.

The meeting was opened with prayer, led by Mrs. Heacock, the retiring president, who then installed the following newly-elected officers for the coming year: Mrs. Couch Wallace, president; Mrs. John Burridge, vice-president; Mrs. Paul Neumann, secretary; Mrs. George Selfridge, treasurer.

Mrs. Wallace announced her appointments of chairmen of committees as follows: devotions, Rev. Steen Whiteside; program, Mrs. Wilbur Burkhardt; bazaars, Mrs. Edgar Kamra; box supply, Mrs. Robert Dunken; United Thank Offering, Mrs. Aiena Makinen; flowers and cards, Mrs. Earl Haworth; social service, Mrs. Harold Hathorn; church periodical club, Mrs. Ethel Powers; courtesy Mrs. V. W. Gardner; publicity, Mrs. George T. McGrath.

Mrs. Heacock the retiring president, and Miss Lois Ferguson, returning secretary, were presented with gifts by Mrs. Wallace on behalf of the Guild members, as a token of their appreciation for faithful service rendered during their term of office.

Following transaction of the regular business, Rev. Steen Whiteside gave a most interesting talk on the art of stained glass, of which he is an enthusiastic student, and whose artistic ability is attested by the three beautiful art glass windows he has built and installed in All Saints church.

A special treat was the exhibition of the original cartoon in water colors by Charles J. Connick of the stained glass windows in the Hine's Memorial building in Philadelphia, created by art critics as the most beautiful examples of stained glass art in modern time.

This rare cartoon was loaned to Rev. Whiteside by the Connick family in Boston.

Hostesses for the evening were the newly-installed officers, who served tea and cakes.

Rebekah Lodge Winds Up Year; Installation Set

Mrs. Ardis Yunker, Noble Grand of Hillsboro Rebekah Lodge No. 54, and her staff of officers and "Good of the Order" chairman, Mrs. Mildred McDonnagh, wound up a successful year at her last meeting Tuesday night.

In December, a Christmas party was enjoyed by all the members with good food and exchange of gifts. The second meeting, the officers-elect qualified. Entertainment by the Red children was greatly enjoyed. Good refreshments were served with Mrs. Elizabeth Heacock, chairman.

Pot-luck dinner was served at 6:30, January 11, by the Red side for the Green side. The Red side lost the attendance contest. A large number attended the dinner and stayed for the meeting during which one candidate was initiated.

Installation of officers will be January 15, with Mrs. Mildred Fisher, D. D. president, as installing officer. This will be a joint installation with Montezuma Lodge No. 53 and following the installation a dance will be enjoyed by Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their friends.

District No. 14 will hold its convention at Gaston on January 19, convening at 10 a. m. Luncheon will be served for $1.00 per plate.

Gospel Chapel Plans Building

The building committee of the Baptist Gospel Chapel was authorized at the quarterly congregational meeting to proceed with plans for the erection of a new building. The meeting, held at the church on January 6, was presided by a pot-luck dinner. The business session was opened with a Scripture reading by the pastor and a word of prayer by Leo Adkinson, one of the deacons of the church.

Minutes of the congregational meeting held since the last quarterly business meeting were read by the church clerk, Miss Leona Fessler, and were approved. The financial report was given by Mrs. Howard Fox. The missionary report, prepared by Mrs. William Davis, was read by Mrs. Cora Thompson, due to the absence of the missionary secretary, Rev. Herbert Halstead reported on the services he had conducted and the pastoral calls made since his coming to the church last month. Reports were also given regarding the work of the White Cross Circle and the flower committee.

Other business transacted included the unanimous election of Mrs. O'Neal as Sunday School Superintendent. This position was left vacant due to the resignation of Mrs. Hilda Phelps, who plans to leave the city in the near future. The pastor was instructed to have a new sign made for the front of the church, and to contact Dr. Willard M. Aldrich, editor of The Doorstep Evangelist. This monthly paper will be used to advertise the services of the church. The congregation of the Baptist Gospel Chapel is looking hopefully to the future and invites others to come and enjoy this warm-hearted fellowship.

Pythian Sisters Set Installation

Phoenix Temple, Pythian Sisters, will meet Friday evening, at 8 o'clock at the K. P. hall, with conferring of degrees on four candidates. Refreshments will be served with Mrs. Theresa Dillon as chairman.

Joint installation with the Knights of Pythias will be held on Monday evening, January 17, at 8 o'clock at the K. P. hall.

Tell Betrothal Of Miss Voges

Miss Crystal Belle Voges announced her engagement to Vernon Gnos, at her sorority meeting last Tuesday evening by the traditional passing of chocolates.

Miss Voges is the daughter of M. and Mrs. Otto C. Voges of Hillsboro. She is a sophomore in dramatics at Pacific university, where she is a member of Theta Nu Alpha and Alpha Psi Omega.

Mr. Gnos is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gnos of Cornelius, route two. He is a senior in aeronautical engineering at Oregon State college, where he is a member of Pi Tau Sigma, Sigma Tau, and Tau Beta Pi. No date has been set for the wedding.

Patrons of the Consolidated School District No. 43, consisting of Mountaineer, Pleasant View, Arcade, and Shady Brook districts, will find the budget for the fiscal year beginning next July 1 posted on each school building in each of the four districts involved.

The meeting to vote on this 1949-1950 budget will be held at the Shady Brook school house on January 31, from 8 to 9 p. m., according to Mrs. Elsie L. Leming of Mountaineer. All patrons are urged to be present. Melvin J. Scott, Campbell, and Howard Woodin make up the present school board.

Tell Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Reiseron announce the engagement of their daughter, Delores, to Melvin J. Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hansen of Beaverton, Oregon. No date has been set for the wedding.

Officers Seated By Tuality Lodge; Seabold Master

Tuality Lodge No. 6, AF and AM held installation of officers December 27 at the Masonic Temple in Hillsboro. J. W. Barney was installing officer and Donald Megargel was marshal.

The new officers installed were: Harry M. Seabold, worshipful master; G. W. Rogers, senior warden; Howard Olanic, junior warden; Joseph C. Mills, Jr., senior deacon; Willis Pyle, junior deacon; LaVern Payne, senior steward; Joseph Miller, junior steward; John Catten, Tyler; Megargel, marshal; Herb Rasmussen, re-elected treasurer; Edwin Bowman, re-elected secretary; Ben Faber, trustee.

Bowman was re-elected secretary for the 14th consecutive time. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Griffiths Return; See Former Local Residents

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Griffiths returned home Sunday night after a vacation trip by auto to southern California, leaving Hillsboro on December 28. They were accompanied on the trip by their cousins Mr. and Mrs. Ben Allen of Seattle, Wash. The Griffiths reported cold weather all the time they were in California, with plenty of snow north of Redding.

In Claremont, they called on Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Sullens, former congregational minister in Hillsboro. Rev. Sullens has been ill but is now up and around and wanted to be remembered to all his Hillsboro friends. In Los Angeles, they called on Dr. and Mrs. William E. Hinds, more former Hillsboro residents. They visited Mrs. Griffiths' four sisters, in San Rafael, Glendale, and Los Angeles.

Annual Meeting Slated At Congregational

Principal activity of the Congregational church this year is the annual meeting to be held tonight (Thursday).

Dinner will be served at 6:30, followed by the business session, at which there will be reports from the various departments and officers. A revision of the membership roll will be recommended and acted upon, and new officers elected.

There will be a christening and baptism service next Sunday morning.

On Sunday, January 23, the officers for the year will be installed. The sermon topic for next Sunday will be "Religion as Taught in the Home."

Plan Church Planting

Senior Waltham League met at the home of Kenneth and Crystal Belle Voges last Sunday evening. In the absence of the president, Edwin Boge, Carolyn Sinclair, presided. A project under consideration is a fuchsia planting at the new church. Also discussed was an evening of entertainment to be given in the near future. After adjournment, refreshments were served. Next meeting will be at the Ross Furby home.
