Employment Agency Plans Muled Here

Discussion and plans for establishing an employment agency in Hillsboro were discussed last week at the American Red Cross offices when representatives from the state employment agency and veterans administration and other organizations met with Fred Conn, county service officer.

It was unanimously agreed that such an agency would serve the needs of the county and relieve business firms from seeking people for jobs. The Hillsboro chapter of commerce offered one of its meeting rooms for this work which will probably be one day a week pending later announcement from the state agency. Those present included Mrs. W. R. Manley, Red Cross executive secretary; K. H. Peterson, county welfare officer; Richard Smith, Veterans Administration; Neal Bush, V. J. Bell, Ralph Hess, E. A. Woodard, Val Abadie and Winan W. Winans, secretary, chamber of commerce.

Brooder at Whitmore Place Burns Sunday

Hillsboro firemen answered a call to the H. C. Whitmore place, two miles west of Laurel Sunday, when a chicken brooder belonging to Whitmore caught fire. The brooder burned with a loss of about $100, according to Wilbur Dillon, fire chief. The building could not be saved and the fire department assisted the owners in keeping the blaze from spreading to other buildings.

Congregational Church Notes

In spite of unfavorable weather conditions, there was a good attendance at the annual meeting of the Congregational church last Thursday evening. The committee in charge, Mr. and Mrs. J. Enschel and Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. Don Meagall and Mary Jo, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Wildbarn and Mrs. M. P. Cady, served a well planned dinner.

The treasurer's report showed that the church had raised $100 over the current expense budget for the year. In the building improvement program, the total receipts for the year were $8779.42 with $241.89 carried over from 1947. Expenses for improvements during the year were $8503.02, leaving a balance on hand of $416.09. Most of the proposed improvements have been completed. New tables for the dining room were authorized.

Mr. Pearson, reporting for the church school, emphasized the need for more teachers. The Women's Fellowship reported a comfortable balance in their treasury. Mrs. Howard Davis, tendering resignation as Director of Music, to become effective February 1. The membership roll was revised, bringing the active list up to date.

The new officers elected were: Clerk for one year, Mrs. Blanche Brice; financial secretary-trustee, R. F. Barnes; treasurer-trustee, Clark E. Patton, trustee for three years, F. W. Peterson, J. M. Strickler, Russell Steeves and J. R. Cox; deacons for three years, H. G. Cooper and J. T. Oden; deacons for three years, Mrs. J. T. Oden and Mrs. J. M. Strickler; music committee for one year, Mrs. W. S. Enschel, Mrs. Fred J. Sewell and Wesley Foster; social action committee chairman, Francis Stalley.

At the service last Sunday, four parents presented their children for christening in dedication for the christening of their children: Mr. and Mrs. Clark E. Patton, Linda Scheller and Sidney Foyson. The children christened were: Linda Sue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley A. Foster; Linda Joe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patton; Frederick Lynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Foyson; and Dale Denzil, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dale Scheller.

Next Sunday the new pulpit, a memorial in the name of Mrs. Margaret E. McKinney, will be dedicated.

Due to sickness some parents were unable to present their children for christening last Sunday; if they are able to attend next Sunday, the sacrament will be observed. There was good attendance at the Pilgrim Fellowship meeting and a well-planned and executed discussion led by Bobby Enschel. Gladys Michale will be the leader for next Sunday evening.

Takes Treatment—
Harry Bates of Bates Pharmacy has returned from a trip to Priest River, Idaho, where he has been taking treatments for his health. He spent two weeks in Idaho and will return there again at the end of this week.

Legion Auxiliary To Seek Oxygen Tent for County

Hillsboro American Legion Auxiliary, working under a national publishing company, will start a magazine subscription campaign in Washington county with commissions earned to be used for the purchase of a portable oxygen tent; it was announced this week.

The oxygen tent will be for the free use of residents, doctors and nurses of this area. It will be housed at the first station.

Mrs. Jo Rushlow, Mrs. Mary Hadley and Mrs. Margaret Loring, American Legion auxiliary, committee for the campaign, said this will not be a donation plan and representatives are not authorized to solicit or accept donations. Bonded representatives of the publishing company will call upon residents and explain the plan.

It is the desire of the Auxiliary that anyone interested in purchasing magazines do so through this plan to assure the purchase of the unit.
