SCHOOLS.—Thursday evening (tonight) at 8 o'clock will be a school meeting at the Granger school building. The budget and vote on a district tax.

January 25 is the date set for a P. A. benefit dinner, according to plans made at the last meeting, which was held January 17. This meeting was postponed from their scheduled date, Friday, January 10. Further details of the dinner will be given later.

Sewing Class Stars.—The Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Milburn Ziegler last Tuesday evening and made plans to start a sewing class, with the first meeting on Friday, January 26, at 10 o'clock.

At 10 o'clock at 1.30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ziegler. There will be regular meetings with a sewing class, a music club, members and their families will have a social evening and pot-luck supper at the Ziegler home, the evening of February 22. The president, Mrs. Meredith O'Dell, will represent the club at the county federation meeting on Friday, January 26.

Schools Close.

Due to Weather.—The schools of the Granger consolidated district were closed Friday because of weather and road conditions.

The past few weeks have cut down the school attendance.

Members of the Schoells Women's club and friends of Mrs. Wm. B. Chandler of Hillsboro were thrilled to hear Mrs. C. H. Chandler, who started her club work here and is now serving her second term as president of the O. F. W. U., will be appointed as a candidate for the office of recording secretary of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Her candidacy was enthusiastically endorsed at the state board meeting of O. F. W. U. held in Portland, Friday, January 19. The club and state chairmen from here were unable to attend the board meetings as they had planned on account of weather conditions.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. Archer of Portland spent a few days last week at the home of Mrs. Archer's sister, Mrs. J. A. Brittain.

K. T. Lewis spent a month including the holidays with relatives in Illinois.

A resolution presented from Cedar Mill local proposing a Columbia valley authority was approved by the Washington County Farmers Union. The authority would build a building on the fair grounds on Saturday night. It was contended that the authority would expend a large amount of money to help west relieve the power shortage and give relief from floods.

Two resolutions coming from the Lakeland local were also passed. One objected to moneys being expended by the highway commission on "throughways" rather than on "arteries" and the other that the second was in opposition to paying saving time.

Members went on record as opposing the additional increase in electric rates.

It was voted to accept the invitation of the chamber of commerce to hold a luncheon at the hotel. W. W. Winans and also in a letter to hold future meetings in the chamber rooms.

W. W. Winans, secretary-treasurer of the State Farmers Union, discussed Farm Union policies and

Seek Access Road

Several members of this community attended the hearing Tuesday morning in the Imperial Hotel where the State Highway Commission heard testimony from various groups interested in getting an access to the Sunset highway where it is crossed by the railroad tracks. The West Union community club members spoke in behalf of the West Union community club.

The Spartan Bees had to do a desperate defensive job Tuesday night before emerging the victors 26-25, in a preliminary game of the class.

With four minutes to go, Norm Hubert dumped in a free throw for the Spartans and as things turned out, that was the winning goal. Tiger made it 26-22 at the three minute mark and added a free throw and a field goal to make it 26-25 with 1:40 left. The Spartans still then thwarted the Tiger Bees until time ran out.

Jim Niernann again topped Bees with a 41 point effort while Hubert accounted for seven.
