New Business Has Big Opening At West Slope

By Mrs. W. A. Bunnell
WEST SLOPE—The grand opening of the new Cundari Drive-in and restaurant Saturday was attended by a large crowd of people, who inspected the up-to-date facilities of the drive-in and adjoining bakery, which prepares all the baked goods consumed on the premises as well as supplying the retail store in the bakery quarters. The building also houses the Hay Appliance Center, the Chez Sissy Women's dress shop, the Commercial Bank of Oregon, and the insurance offices of Mr. Frank Cundari, owner and manager of the building. The new establishment is open until one o'clock on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays and until 2 o'clock on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. It is closed on Mondays.

Harold Alvers, who recently underwent surgery at the Portland Sanitarium, left by plane Saturday for Los Angeles, where he will undergo further surgery in his throat. Quake Proves Puzzler
West Slope residents are still discussing the Wednesday earthquake and their reactions to it. About 80 per cent of the population thought they were having dizzy spells until the length of the tremor proved otherwise. One man thought the quake was the vibration from a distant atom bomb, and others blamed the motion on passing trucks, etc. Very few persons traveling in cars felt the motion, and were surprised to hear the news. Very little damage was reported, aside from cracked paving, fireplaces, and so on, here and there. Cracks appeared in the ground in some places, pendulum clocks were stopped, and doors left open.

The second anniversary of the B & T Market was observed last Friday and Saturday. Special demonstrations and gifts marked the two-day event. Carl Gestring is owner of the food bank.

Bunnell Sisters Home
Nadine and Virginia Bunnell arrived early Thursday morning from Chicago to spend 10 days at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bunnell. The sisters arrived in Seattle an hour after the earthquake on Wednesday, and found the Union Station there littered with fallen planks from broken walls. A burned bridge prevented the Hiawatha Olympian train on which they were traveling from reaching Seattle on time and they were forced to wait till a late hour before the railroad officials would allow their train to proceed, on account of damage caused by the earth quake. The train finally arrived in Portland on Thursday morning. The sisters will leave Saturday for Chicago to fulfill a singing engagement at Edgewater Beach hotel in Chicago.

Charles Loren spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Fred Mathis, returning to his position in Astoria Sunday evening.

Sook Funeral Held Saturday

Funeral services were held for Emery Shepard Sook, 62, Cornelius, at Donelson & Seavel chapel. Death came at a Forest Grove hospital April 14 after an illness of three months. Interment was at Portland mausoleum.

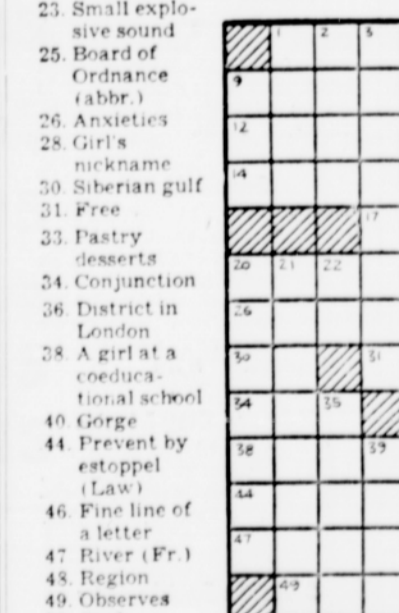

He was a retired salesman. Survivors include a son, Harry C, past eight years; Sook, Schaefer, two daughters, Nora Sook, Portland, and Mrs. H. R. Hinson, Cornelius; a brother, G. W. Sook, of Minnesota.

He had lived in Cornelius for the . . . Say you saw it in the Argus.

THE LARGE KETTLE-LIKE contrivances pictured are actually molds for the concrete which go into the making of 48-inch concrete pipe sections at The McCormack Co. near Hillsboro. The concrete is carried to the molds with the lifting machine shown and shoveled into the molds. Making of large pipe sections requires much handwork.—(Argus photos by Gene Olson)

Officials include a son, Harry C, past eight years; Sook, Schaefer, two daughters, Nora Sook, Portland, and Mrs. H. R. Hinson, Cornelius; a brother, G. W. Sook, of Minnesota.

Men Reminded of Meeting Tonight

By Mrs. J. A. Odell
MIDWAY—A reminder is given to the men of Grover consolidated school district of the meeting at the home of Hank Rhodin tonight. All men are invited. Refreshments will be served.

18th Birthday Honored

Covers were laid for 20 relatives and friends at a dinner party 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Leeper celebrating the 18th birthday of their daughter, Linnet. Miss Leeper was also honored guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kramer in Hillsboro Monday evening. The honoree, Mary Kramer, entertained 30 guests, seniors from Hillsboro high school. A wicker roast was a feature of the evening.

The Earthquake of Last Week

A new experience to some folks those driving cars or tractors did not feel the tremor. Only damage reported in the Midway district was a few bricks shaken loose in the chimneys of some of the older houses, and a light pole or two that had to be replaced after the quake.

Ankle Hurt in Accident

Ray Odell hurt his ankle in a freak accident Friday while towing his car with a small tractor. The car bumper caught on the tractor wheels raising the front of the car up on the tractor, pinning his foot between the wheel of the car and the frame of the tractor. It happened near the Waibel home and the Waibel boys lifted the car enough so he could pull his foot free.
