

DAV Chapter Elects Officers

Officers were elected and routine business transacted May 3 at a meeting of Washington county chapter, Disabled American Veterans, in the Legion hall at Forest Grove.

State officers chosen include: Rudolph Thurnher, Laurel, delegate to the convention; Martin Scheufele, Forest Grove, state executive committee and chapter commander; John Anderson, Dilley, commander of district 3 and bringing Washington county.

Other officers named included: Lyle Anderson, Forest Grove, senior vice-commander; Mr. Butler, route 1 Hillsboro, junior vice-commander; Hugh Farshaw, Hillsboro, chaplain; John Anderson, Dilley, treasurer-adjutant.

Agnes Krevenko of Gaston was reported as a new member of the auxiliary.

The installation of both chapter and auxiliary officers will take place at a meeting June 7.

County Library Plans Considered

Plans for establishing county library service were considered at a meeting of representatives from various parts of the county in the chamber of commerce rooms here Tuesday afternoon.

An evening picnic is planned for June when directors will be named.

Richard E. Wiley of Hillsboro is chairman of the steering committee.

Merchants Face Forest Grove

The Hillsboro Merchants, local entry in the Tualatin Valley baseball league, will tangle with Forest Grove Sunday on the foreign field as action in the circuit goes into the third round.

The Merchants will carry a 500 mark into the Sunday fracas, having lost to Banks last Sunday after winning Gaston in the opener.

Manager Walt Turner, who finished last Sunday's contest, probably will start on the mound for the Merchants.

In other contests around the league, Banks will be at Seaside, Sheridans to Gaston and Cornelius plays at Vernier.

Tailor Shop Moves To New Location

Wally the Tailor will open in new location Monday morning, May 16, according to Wallace Folsom, proprietor of the shop. Folsom will move from his old location in the telephone building to the Bump building at 116 East Main.

Saturday will be the last day in his old shop and moving will be done Sunday so that no time will be lost, Folsom said. The move was necessitated by expansion of the telephone company.

Rites Held for Fred G. Heidel

Fred George Heidel, 69, former Hillsboro resident, died in a Corvallis hospital Sunday. Funeral services were held in Corvallis Tuesday.

He was born in Kansas April 8, 1880, and moved with his parents to Hillsboro in 1891, where he attended school. For several years he was engaged in the milling business here. He had been a resident of Summit for the past 35 years.

Mr. Heidel was a member of the Hillsboro Knights of Pythias lodge. Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Mary Forbes and Mrs. Wilma Young of Portland.

Corvallis 4-H'er Slated as Speaker At Leaders' Meet

Barton Hutton, state agent in 4-H club work from Corvallis, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Washington County 4-H Leaders' association in Hillsboro Monday, May 16, at 8 p.m. in the county court room.

He will speak on the place of fairs and contests in 4-H club work.

Hutton, well known throughout the northwest as former farm service director of radio station KPOJ in Portland, is making his first appearance before Washington county 4-H leaders since assuming his place on the state 4-H club staff, according to Joe Cox, county extension agent.

Another feature of the meeting will be a model 4-H club meeting given by girls of the Cherry Grove Simulac Cookers club led by Mrs. Ed Durnford.

Plans for 4-H club summer school which is to be held on the campus of Oregon State college June 14-24 will be discussed by the county extension agents.

All county 4-H club leaders are urged to attend the meeting.

Funeral services for Martin A. Ficken of Sherwood, who died May 2, were held Saturday afternoon at St. Paul's Lutheran church with interment in the Lutheran cemetery.

He was born March 11, 1909, in Sherwood and had lived in that vicinity all his life. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Survivors include the following brothers and sisters: Lorenz, Hillsboro; Walter, Seaside, Wash.; Otto, Emil, Edwin, Herbert and Roland, Arthur all of Sherwood; Mrs. Ella Krause and Mrs. Rose Roberts, both of Sherwood; Mrs. Flora Tylon and Mrs. Mildred Holman, both of Portland; and Mrs. Ida Seibrass, St. Charles, Mo.

Peas Mortuary, Beaverton, was in charge of arrangements.

Savings Bond Group Slates Dinner Meet

The Opportunity Bond Drive will be discussed at a dinner meeting of the county savings bond committee and bankers at Heidelberg park, Beaverton, Tuesday evening.

Quota for the county is $235,000 in Series F bonds. The drive runs from May 15 to June 30.

E. C. Sammons of Portland, state bond committee chairman, and George Minnaugh, state director of the U. S. savings bond division, will speak.

Brush Fires Keep Department Busy

Three brush and grass fires kept the Hillsboro fire department busy last week, according to Wilbur Dillon, fire chief. The department answered two residence fires which resulted in slight damage.

Thursday, May 12, 1949—Hillsboro (Ore.) Argus 3

he said. The Francis Lyons residence, 162 East Oak, was slightly damaged May 5, Dillon said. A chimney fire at the Scott Campbell residence, route 3, Hillsboro, on May 9 caused some damage around the chimney, he said. A brush fire at the R. E. Herman place on North Brookwood avenue, May 6, was out on arrival. A grass fire on route 2, May 7, was answered by the department. The department's third brush fire was May 10, at the old Emil Miller place on Pumpkin Ridge. All were brought under control.
