

Haffner-Morgan Marriage Held at Home Ceremony

At a lovely candlelight ceremony Sunday, June 13, before an open fireplace banked with mock orange blossoms, white and red roses, Mrs. Ellen Catherine Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Canada, became the bride of William John Haffner, son of Mrs. Augusta Haffner of Aloha, formerly of Hillsboro. The wedding was held at the home of Mrs. Hilda Wrigglesworth, with Rev. Charles Reep of Corvallis officiating.

The bride chose for her wedding gown afternoon dress of blue moire taffeta fashioned with small bouquet. Her shoulder length veil hung from a braided moire taffeta halo which was caught on each side with small mixed flowers. Her corsage was of mixed flowers surrounding two gardenias.

Mrs. A. J. Fuller was her only attendant and wore an afternoon dress of navy blue and a corsage of roses.

Best man was Adelbert Haffner, brother of the bridegroom. Walter E. Haffner gave the bride away and ushering duties were assumed by Mrs. Ada Haffner, sister of the bride, and Lou Zuercher of Hillsboro. Presiding the ceremony, Mrs. Hilda Wrigglesworth played the Hammond organ while Mrs. Ada Haffner lit the candles. Mrs. Shariene Lockman and Larry Walker sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" as a duet and were accompanied by James Sarvis.

A wedding reception was held immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Donald Hall, sister of the bridegroom, cut the cake. Mrs. Walter Haffner presided at the punch bowl and assisting in serving were Mrs. Ada Haffner, Barbara Morgan, Judy Hall, Shariene Haffner, Terry Morgan, Arlene Haffner, Janice Haffner and Darlene Haffner.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a purple two piece suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

After a honeymoon at Orcas Island near the sound of Juan De Fuca the couple will be at home at 237 North 14th, Corvallis.

Garden Ceremony Unites Couple in Marriage Sunday

The informal wedding of Miss Esther Garwood, daughter of Mrs. Emily Watson of Forest Grove, to William L. Hargrave, son of Mrs. Alberta Hargrave of Hillsboro, took place on Sunday afternoon, June 12, in the garden of the bride's home in Forest Grove. Rev. J. D. Hardin officiated.

The bride wore a light blue street length dress with a corsage of white orchids. She was unattended. Mrs. Wilfred Marshall, the soloist, sang "Always" and was accompanied by Mrs. Paul Brunswick.

A reception was held at the outdoor fireplace and the sisters of the bride, Mrs. Arthur McConahay and Mrs. Virgil Shaw, assisted.

Leaving for a honeymoon to Victoria and Vancouver the bride wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. Upon return from the wedding trip they will be at home at 318 Gales Creek road, Forest Grove.

Attend Wedding

Mrs. Ruby Estep and sons Jack and Bruce attended the wedding of Miss Rosalie Adams and Jack Allison on Friday evening, June 10, at the First Methodist church at McMinnville. Mr. Allison, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Allison, formerly lived in Hillsboro.

Visit at Laurel

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Meek of Corvallis were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Will of Laurel. They attended the wedding of a college friend, Milton Richardson, Friday night at First Presbyterian church in Portland, where Mrs. Meek was soloist.

The first printed colored advertisement was for a rug.

Garden Club Sees Eight Top Gardens

The Hillsboro Garden club met Monday afternoon at the Episcopal parish hall for a short business meeting, after which eight beautiful gardens were visited.

Mrs. Paul Matteson sent a very interesting and informative report on the Rose, which is the flower for the month of June.

A number of pressed wild flower pictures made by the Garden Club Study group were on display.

Gardens visited were those of Mesdames C. T. Smith, Kenneth Davison, John Laura, C. R. Merrill, Ralph Barnes, Paul Patterson, Zola Morgan, and R. C. Bach. Tea was served in the garden garden, hostesses being Miss Blanche Britton, Mrs. Lester Johansson and Mrs. Irene Polworth.

Mrs. Connell New Head of Coffee Club for Year

Annual election of Coffee club officers was held Friday afternoon at the picnic meeting at the home of Mrs. Elwood Johnson. Mrs. Hilda Connell was named as president, and her official family includes Mrs. Max Hecher, vice-president, Mrs. Elbert Hawking, secretary, Mrs. W. H. Wieber, financial secretary, Mrs. Fred Engeldinger, treasurer (re-elected), and Mrs. Elwood Johnson, trustee for this year. Hold-over trustees are Mesdames Alice Connell and Emma McKinney.

Mrs. Connell follows Mrs. Ada Patterson, who has been president of the club for two years. Officers were installed by Mrs. W. B. Chandler, president of the Oregon Federation.

Mrs. Dorothy Pence, the club candidate for Goddess of Liberty for Happy Day celebration, was a guest and was presented with a lovely gift.

Mrs. Fritz Abendroth, delegate from the club to the General Federation convention at Miami, Florida, gave her report on the event. Mrs. Chandler, state president, gave special highlights of the convention and exhibited many souvenirs given at the General Federation meeting which was held at Hollywood Beach, just out of Miami. Mrs. Lena Seary, who attended the national meeting, also added a brief report.

Annual reports of out-going officers were given by Mesdames Patterson, Connell, R. L. Pence, secretary, Fred Amacher, financial secretary, and Fred Engeldinger, treasurer.

The club will resume meetings in September.

Lions from Here Attend Convention

The delegates from Hillsboro who attended the state Lions convention from June 5 to 7 in Astoria, returned with interesting information as to what went on at both the business meetings and the social activities.

Kenneth Wilcox presided at the opening breakfast and retired as district governor of 36 O. New district governors were elected and Medford was chosen for the 1950 convention city with Baker and McMinnville seeking the 1951 convention.

Clifford Pierce, past international Lions president, told the convention members that the 6,000 Lions clubs in 26 nations must continue assuming responsibility of spreading Democratic ideas in the world. Mr. Pierce also described the hospital medical and nursing facilities that Lions International is providing in Mexico.

For the social calendar, tours and banquets filled the bill and all who attended the convention are looking forward to the 1950 one in Medford.

Those attending the convention from Hillsboro were Ruben Kuratli, Henry Desinger, Russel Ide, Marvin Brink, Lloyd Ramp, Dr. Watt Percy, Gene Romaine, James Dierckx, Earl Morley, Keith Wilcox, Shelby Forney, John Hare and Dr. Vernon Horne.
