

Eugene Wedding Unites Miss Falk And Mr. G. Hart

Central Presbyterian church of Eugene was chosen for the wedding of Miss Phyllis Jeanne Falk to Gordon Glenn Hart at four o'clock on Sunday afternoon, June 19. Rev. John Van Lierop officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hart, both of Eugene, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hart, former Hillsboro residents, also of Eugene.

Baskets of garden and snapdragons in pastel shades alternating with candelabra holding bouquets of organ music and accompanied Miss Nance, daughter of Portland, when she sang "I'll Love You" and "At Dawning."

Mr. Falk gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor-length gown of white marquisette with a full skirt attached to a fitted bodice which had tucks from shoulder to waist. Peter Pan collar and short sleeves. She wore elbow length gloves of nylon net and her hair was pinned up in a chignon.

Miss Joan Bartlett of Portland, cousin of the bride, was her attendant. She wore an aqua dress identical in style to the bride's, with aqua Juliet cap and white net gloves. She carried a pastel colored bouquet of sweet peas.

J. Milton Nelson of Eugene was best man. Ushers were Leonard H. Falk, brother of the bride, and James Jandrow of San Francisco, California.

The bride's mother wore a dress of sheer black and white print with black hat and corsage of pink roses and lilies. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of white with white accessories and corsage of yellow roses and lilies.

The wedding reception was held in Fellowship hall of the church. Mrs. Sidney E. Caldwell of Portland, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Miss Mildred Loomis of Columbia, Missouri, and Miss Myrtle Hill of West California, poured.

For her going away outfit, the bride wore a two-piece white knit dress, with white accessories and a corsage of baby orchids. The couple will live in Eugene only during the summer. The bride will return in September to San Francisco, California to continue work on her master's degree in Christian education at San Francisco Theological Seminary. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Sigma Delta Pi, Phi Mu Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa.

The bridegroom was born in B. W. Barnes school. Since graduation from Eugene high school he attended University of Oregon one year, but is now a student at Oregon State college.

Attending the wedding from Hillsboro were the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hart, Viola Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hart, Donna and Colleen, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rice, Shirlene, Marian and Jean.

Miss Edwards and Mr. Westcott Wed At Church Rites

Last Sunday afternoon a pretty wedding took place at Grace Manor in Portland, when Miss Joan Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Edwards of Metolite, was united in marriage to Richard Westcott, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Westcott of Beaverton. The Rev. Henry Young performed the ceremony.

The bride's gown was of cream satin with veil held in place with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Maid of honor was Carolyn Frost of Aloha, and bridesmaids were Shirley Johnson of Maplewood and Mrs. Harvey Kuhl of Portland.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Vernon Westcott of Gresham. The young couple will spend their honeymoon at Oregon beaches.

Charivari Given for Newly Wedded Folk

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Powers (Clara Fisher) prepared for the expected charivari on last Wednesday evening. The dozen guests who were invited to play lingo and refreshments were served. The next evening, however, some 20 members of Hillsboro Grange No. 73 invaded with noisemakers, making it a real surprise party for the Powers.

Those who attended the sing party were Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Morley, and the Mesdames Thyrta Foster, Wilma Daley, Cecil Hanna, Ella Cook, Pearl Roe, Mae Colett, Mabel Campbell, Don Brumley, and Alice Fawcett. Mrs. Shipley came from Portland.

Has Seattle Visitors—Miss Mabel E. Hanson of Hillsboro entertained her sister, Mrs. L. H. McGuire and daughters Susan and Jeanette this week. Mr. McGuire brought his family down from Seattle while he attended the Western States Safety convention in Portland.

Smith-Wilkinson Nuptials Held At Grace Manor

The wedding of Miss Ruth Evelyn Wilkinson to Raymond W. Smith was an event of Sunday afternoon, June 26, at the Grace Manor in Portland. Before a large, rich made with morning glories and red banks, for two large stands, holding gaudy and roses and large candles, Rev. Henry Young performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilkinson of Gresham, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Smith of Minnesota.

Mr. Wilkinson gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white slipper gown with full bustle and long train with finger-tip veil, and carried white roses and orchids with ivory streamers.

Miss Mable Wilkinson was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaid was Mrs. Lester Thorp of Sandy. Janet Staley was the flower girl. All wore dresses identical to the bride in shades of green and lavender. The flower girl's dress was of white satin, and all carried bouquets of roses, with ivory streamers.

Mrs. Ernest Halsted and Miss Elaine McCormick lighted the candles. Lester Thorp of Sandy was best man, and Ernest Halsted was groomsmen. Roy Wilkinson, brother of the bride, and Kenneth West were ushers.

At a reception held afterward, Miss Ruth Miller and Edith Miller poured. Mrs. Roy McCormick cut the cake, assisted by Misses LaVerne Girvan, Donna Cooper and Mary Strickland. Barbara Cleverly took charge of the guest book.

For her going away outfit, the bride was wearing a gray suit with white accessories and a lavender orchid. After a honeymoon through the southwest, the couple will make their home in Portland, where Mr. Smith is in the manufacturing clothing business.

Pythian Sisters Meet; Drape Temple Charter

At the meeting Friday night of Phoenixia temple, Pythian Sisters, the charter was draped for a member, Mrs. Lena Peters, wife of Judge R. Frank Peters, who died that day at a local hospital. She had been a member for years and was a past chief of the temple. Draping ceremonies were made by the senior, junior and manager of the temple, with Mrs. Maude Stannard giving the eulogy.

Two candidates were initiated, and a social hour and refreshments followed the temple session.

This was the last meeting until September.

Visiting Here from Arkansas—Mrs. Joseph Weathered arrived last Sunday from Little Rock, Ark. to visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Messer of Hillsboro, and also to attend the wedding of her son Vance to Miss Joyce Oldstead which will take place on Friday evening in Hillsboro.

Returns from Seattle—Mrs. George Harms returned last Thursday from a two weeks' visit to Seattle where she visited at the home of her cousin, Miss Ninnie Hall.

Vacation in Canada—Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Gibbons left on Tuesday morning for a week's vacation which will include a trip to Vancouver, B. C.

Vacation at Neskonim—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harms and family are vacationing this week at Neskonim near Tillamook.

Leola Yount Wilkins An Honor Graduate

Among the 100 students who were graduated June 30 from the University of Rochester, Rochester, N. Y., were Leola Yount Wilkins and her husband Peter Wilkins, both of whom received the degree of bachelor of music.

Of the number to receive degrees, one hundred and twenty were of the Eastman School of Music and both Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins were graduates of Hillsboro.

Unlike Oregon schools where a four point average is high, there it is a three-point, and up to this time no one from the Eastman school has ever graduated with that high an average. In this year's class Leola Wilkins maintained a high of 2.52 for her four years and Mr. Wilkins 2.50, they being third and fourth, respectively.

Leola Wilkins was graduated from Hillsboro union high school in the class of 1940. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Yount of Hillsboro.
