Morrison-Cover Nuptials Held in Portland Church

In a setting of candlelight and arrangements of white delphiniums and pink gladioli in Westminster Presbyterian church in Portland, Miss Dianna Laurie Cover became the bride of John Augustus Morrison on Friday evening June 17. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Cover of N. W. Cornell road, Cedar Mill, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrison of Aloha. Dr. Thomas Franklin Hudson performed the double ring ceremony. Vocalist Carol Shiley sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Candlelighters were the Misses Janet French and Nancy Nagues. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin with beaded bodice and finger-tip veil held in place with a beaded tiara. Her bouquet was in tones of pink bouvardia, sweet peas and an orchid.

Her sister, Mrs. John Olson, was matron of honor, wearing a period style taffeta dress of chaircase with matching bonnet. She carried a fan of flowers of stock and wore a bustle corsage of matching flowers. The Misses Arden Arntfield, Bonnie Ganger and Barbara Monahan were bridesmaids, wearing period style dresses of lilac taffeta and matching bonnets. They carried flower fans of pink sweet peas and wore bustle corsages to match.

Kathy Pennington and Becky Buck, flower girls, wore dresses and bonnets in yellow tones and carried nosegays. David Morrison was his brother's best man. Dwight Smart, John Gohman and Donald Walters were ushers. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. C. P. Pennington and Mrs. Bessie Cover, grandmothers of the bride, served the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Derrol Pennington of Seattle, Washington, Mrs. Lloyd Pennington of Ashland, Mrs. Joseph Buck of Eugene and Mrs. Allen Arntfield of Beaverton. Assisting were Janet French, Nancy Nagues and Mrs. John Olson, Nancy O'Con-

Miss Ellingson, Mr. Anderson Married June 18

A bride of Saturday evening June 18, Miss Cynthia Jean Ellingson, whose marriage to Harold Guy Anderson was solemnized at the Trinity Lutheran church of Hillsboro, Rev. George Reule conducted the services.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ellingson of Greenacres, Washington, and Mr. Anderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Anderson of Beaverton. The church was beautifully decorated with white delphiniums and gladioli. Miss Kathryn Reule sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Robert Gernert.

Mr. Ellingson gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a heavy white satin dress with full train and finger tip veil held in place by white seed pearls. Her bouquet was white roses and gardenias centered with an orchid.

Miss Ruth Reiersen of Hillsboro was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Delores Reiersen, Miss Joan Delmonica and Mrs. Arthur Kraus. All wore taffeta frocks, the maid of honor in pale green and the others in pink, aqua and yellow, and carried bouquets of sweet peas and roses.

Wesley Gates of Hillsboro was best man and ushers were brothers of the bride, James and Gerald Ellingson.

At a reception held in the church parish hall the wedding cake was used as the centerpiece for the table with flowers on each side. Assisting were Mrs. Syver Roud pouring, Mrs. Roy Reiersen cutting the cake, and assisting were Misses Alice and Elaine Furby. The Misses Crystal Belle Vages, Caroline Sinclair, Jean Kohlmeier took charge of the gifts and guest book.

Leaving for a honeymoon to Crater Lake and the Oregon beaches the bride was wearing a navy blue gabardine suit with white accessories.

The newlyweds will make their home at 356 South Sixth avenue in Hillsboro.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Derrol Pennington of Seattle, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pennington of Ashland, Mrs. Joseph Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Chad Newhouse, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bird, all of Eugene; Mrs. Leona Moore, and Mrs. Hazel Moore of Missouri.

For her going away costume the bride wore a navy blue suit with yellow accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following a wedding trip to Yellowstone National park, the couple will be at home at 9117 N. W. Cornell road, Cedar Mill.

Nuptials Surprise Guests Attending Anniversary Rites

CHERRY GROVE — The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Pearson became the wedding day of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Sievers at a surprise ceremony at the Baptist church Wednesday evening of last week at 8 o'clock.

Relatives and friends of the Pearsons participated in a program which concluded with the singing of "Because" by Mrs. Olga Fritzberg, who dedicated it to the honor guests and her cousin, Miss Elva Lovegren, the bride.

Miss Lovegren and her fiancé, Frederick Sievers, then took their places before the minister, Rev. L. O. Wahl, who performed the marriage ceremony.

The bride was attired in a purple satin gown. Her head covering was a finger tip veil. She wore a corsage of roses.

The church was decorated with mock orange blossoms, pink peonies and roses, lilies and iris.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Hilma Lovegren, wore an Alice blue crepe gown. Mrs. O. Hedin poured, assisted by Mrs. John Pearson. Mrs. George Bruce took charge of the gifts and Mrs. Mabel Tupper passed the guest book.

At the beginning of the service, candles were lighted by Misses Pauline Pearson and Enid Bruce. Prior to the marriage ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Pearson entered while the wedding march was played by Mrs. George Bruce, sister of Mrs. Pearson.

Miss Pearson and Miss Bruce sang a duet "I Love You." Rev. Wahl read the prayer, telegrams and greetings were read by Mrs. Ooms; also a poem which she had written. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson sang "Just a Song at Twilight" and "I Love You Truly." A duet was also sung by Mrs. Charles Scott and Mrs. Waldemar Tornblad.

A short speech was given by Rev. David Anderson, who was pastor of the church when the Pearsons were married. George Bruce brought reminiscences of 25 years ago, and Mrs. Christina Nelson, aunt of the bride, described the marriage, which was performed by her late husband, Rev. Nelson, at Shasta Springs, Cal., in the sight of Mr. Shasta. Rev. Wahl closed the service by reading a psalm and the audience sang a hymn.

Those out-of-town relatives and guests who attended the wedding and the anniversary celebration were Mrs. Christina Nelson of Berkeley, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. George Bruce and Enid of Keyes, Cal.; Mrs. Mabel Tupper of Placerville, Cal.; Mrs. Teon Lovegren and Calvin, Mrs. Wilford Lovegren and sons Kenneth and Edward of Cottage Grove; Mrs. Olga Fritzberg and son Gerald, Mrs. Olaf Carlsson of Preston, Wash.; Mrs. August Frid, Forest Grove; Mrs. Lenora Whinnor, Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Ohrling, Eugene; Mrs. Perry Wright and sons, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Charles Scott and Janice of Seagoville, Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Erickson of Turlock, Cal.; Mr. and
