Rev. Erwin Jahr Installed Pastor Cornelius Church

Erwin H. Jahr, new pastor of the Cornelius Emanuel Lutheran church, was officially installed Sunday, June 12, in a ceremony at the church at which Dr. S. C. Siefkas of Portland, president of the Northwest District of American Lutheran churches, officiated. Pastor Jahr was graduated from Wartburg Seminary at Dubuque, Iowa, and has served in pastorates at Alward, Iowa; Baker, Oregon; and Puyallup, Washington. For the past two years, he has been in the mission field, establishing churches in temporary housing areas in Los Angeles, California, and Richland, Washington.

The former pastor of the Cornelius church, Rev. Armin Reitz, has been transferred to Hermiston.

OUR FARM MACHINERY SERVICE

... CAN SAVE YOU TIME AND MONEY ...

Just what is service? Here's what we try to do:

Keep ever Ford Tractor and every piece of Dearborn Farm Equipment working at top efficiency ... and be Johnny-on-the-spot when something goes wrong.

Some of our service is free: some costs only for the parts; some requires a reasonable labor charge. But you'll find us fair ... we want to keep on serving you for a long time.

Miss Wheeler and Mr. Kincheloe Wed at Reedville

Reedville Community Presbyterian church was the scene of a beautiful candlelight wedding Friday evening, June 24, when Miss Kathleen Elaine Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler of Beaverton, became the bride of Mr. James Lewis Kincheloe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kincheloe of Beaverton.

Merrill Collett, of Hazelton, played the wedding music and Mrs. Collett was soloist. She sang "Because" and "Always." Rev. Graham Gilmer, pastor of the church, officiated at 8 o'clock in a double ring ceremony in a setting of pink and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with train and fingertip length veil of silk net held in place by a crown of seed pearls, also a pearl brooch formerly worn by her grandmother. She carried a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds with white ribbon streamers.

Miss Irene VanKleeck was maid of honor, and James Newton and Dale VanDomelen were ushers. Sister of the bridegroom, Miss Goldwyn Kuible, was bridesmaid. They wore gowns in pastel shades of pink, yellow and blue, and carried corsages of pink rosebuds with contrasting ribbon streamers.

John Kincheloe of Walla Walla, Wash., was best man for his cousin, and James Newton and Dale VanDomelen were ushers. Sister of the bridegroom, Miss Goldwyn Kuible, was bridesmaid. They wore gowns in pastel shades of pink, yellow and blue, and carried corsages of pink rosebuds with contrasting ribbon streamers.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Tom Heitzman served the wedding cake. Mrs. Edna Yoxall, cousin of the bride, poured. Mrs. Abe Setterberg of Portland presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Harry Naden, Mrs. Dave Lofgren and Mrs. Charles Robinson assisted in serving. Miss Florence Rice had charge of the guest book, and Miss Jovee Setterberg of Portland had charge of the gift table.

Among the 250 guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Simonson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schaefer and family, all of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kincheloe, grandparents of the bridegroom, of Walla Walla, Wash.; Miss Nina Hoffman of Ridgefield, Wash.; Mrs. Edna Yoxall of Klamath Falls; the George Lewis family of Salem, and the James Ward family of Gresham.

The bride is a graduate of Beaverton high school and attended Oregon State college nearly two years. The bridegroom is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and was a coxswain in the U. S. navy where he spent four years. He is now a technician with the County Dairy association in Hillsboro.

The couple left for a two weeks' wedding trip to Oregon beaches, Crater Lake and the Oregon Caves. For her going away costume the bride wore an aqua silk dress with white coat and accessories, an orchid corsage, and a cameo locket.

The wedding reception was held at the newlyweds' new home. They left on a short honeymoon to Seaside and coast resorts.

Miss Zimmerman Weds Mr. Hawkins

Miss Elizabeth Zimmerman, daughter of Mrs. Evelyn James of Tualatin View, exchanged vows with Edward Hawkins, son of Mr. William Hawkins, also of Tualatin View, in an evening ceremony June 23 at Centenary-Wilbur Methodist church in Portland.

Attending were immediate families and a few friends. The bride wore a pink gabardine suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Riley Osborn was her attendant. Best man was Lyle Hoag.

The wedding reception was held at the newlyweds' new home. They left on a short honeymoon to Seaside and coast resorts.

Dinner Party Held

Visitors at the J. R. Kay home on Father's day were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carlson and Buford R. Winters of Raymond, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kay and family of Beaverton; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Holmen and son Arthur, of West Slope; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Huntington of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jones, daughter of San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. Wilma Miller and daughter of Placerville, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tolson of Forest Grove; Mrs. Dora Tolson of Gaston; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Collins and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Mills of Shady Brook, and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Mule and son of Portland.

Church Nuptials Unite Couple

Miss Myrtle E. Holden became the bride of Dale Birdsall, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Birdsall of Hillsboro, at a ceremony June 16 at the Cathedral of St. John in Providence, Rhode Island.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Holden of Esmond, Rhode Island, was escorted to the altar by Professor Amos Hovey, of Bates college and given in marriage by her father, Robert Holden. She wore an ice-blue changeable taffeta gown with a tight bodice and very full skirt. Her fingertip veil of ice-blue was held by a headpiece made to match her gown and trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and blue delphinium. Her necklace was an heirloom which belonged to Mrs. Lloyd Nichols, cousin of the bridegroom's mother.

Miss Frances Burns of South Duxbury, Mass., was the bride's only attendant. Her gown was made with a pink lace bodice and taffeta skirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink snapdragons and blue delphinium. Stuart Gaul of Tacoma, Wash., and classmate of the bridegroom at Reed college, was best man, and ushers were David Harvey and Howard Young.

White and pink roses and silver candlesticks with white tapers decorated the parish house where the reception was held.

After a honeymoon spent at Cape Cod, Mass., the newlyweds will make their home in Providence, Rhode Island, where both are teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Kincheloe will be at home at 472 Walnut street in Hillsboro after July 10.

Mrs. John Wheeler and Mrs. Ray Kincheloe entertained members of the wedding party at the Kincheloe home following rehearsal Tuesday night of last week. Light refreshments were served.

Goes to Lowry Field

Jack Doyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Doyle, arrived in Denver Sunday en route to Lowry Field for six weeks' training with air forces in connection with advanced NROTC. Sam Christensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Christensen, is also training at Lowry Field.

ing assistants in history at Brown university.

Local Women at AAUW Convention

Mrs. Arnold Jensen of Hillsboro, president of the Forest Grove-Hillsboro chapter of American Association of University Women, and Miss Edna Tarr of Forest Grove were delegates from the local chapter to the national convention of AAUW at Seattle June 19 to 23. Others attending from here were Mrs. Ada Patterson and Mrs. Paul Patterson.

It was the first time the AAUW had ever held a national convention in the west, according to Mrs. Jensen.

The organization eased the ban on membership as to color and set it up on a state's right basis. Mrs. Jensen said. A limit of 20 per cent was placed on associate memberships.

Miss Bendler Visits

Miss Eleanor Bendler, who has been attending Women's Medical college of Pennsylvania, arrived in Hillsboro Thursday for a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. A. Bendler. Miss Bendler will spend the summer in San Francisco and will return to Philadelphia in the fall.

Visit at Zuercher's

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Peters of Mt. Vernon, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. John Scheidt, Carol and Darlene of Beulah, North Dakota were guests at the Louis Zuercher home the past week. Mr. Scheidt is a cousin of Mrs. Zuercher.

Eastern Visitors Honored at Reception

An informal reception in honor of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Smith (Joyce Martin) of Cincinnati, was given by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Martin Saturday evening June 24. About 150 guests attended, which included the membership of the Forest Hills Country club where the party was held, and school friends of Mrs. Smith.

Dancing to a three-piece orchestra was from 9 to 1. A buffet-dinner was served from a table decorated with summer flowers and white tapers.

Among the former Hillsboro guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cyrus Jr., who came from Corvallis for the reception.

WRC Meets Friday

The Woman's Relief corps will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Pythian hall. Initiation will be held and Mrs. Jessie Sutherland, president, requests that all members attend. Refreshments will be served, and the committee for the day will be Mrs. Amanda Spears and Mrs. Edith Phelps.

Choir Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zuercher and Miss Lydia Scheidt entertained the choir of the First Evangelical Reformed church of Portland, Sunday, at the Louis Zuercher home. Music and games were part of the entertainment. Thirty-eight people were present.

Couple Feted On Silver Wedding

Rev. and Mrs. O. R. Mueller were honored on their 25th wedding anniversary Saturday night at St. Peter's Lutheran church at Boring by members of the congregation and a host of friends. Rev. and Mrs. Mueller were guest speakers at a special service, after which a social hour was held in the basement. The honored guests were presented with a silver gift offering from the congregation and refreshments were served.

Out-of-town guests present for the gathering and also for the work were the couple's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Newland of Everett, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mueller and son Jimmy, and Pastor Mueller's mother, from Tacoma, Wash.

Attend Eugene Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. George Hart of Hillsboro had as week-end guests their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart of Eugene. On the previous Sunday, the senior Hart travelled to Eugene to witness the wedding of their grandson, Gordon Hart, to Miss Phyllis Falk at the Presbyterian church. He is a student at OSC, while his bride attends college in California.
