

Cornutt, Hofer Buy Local Firm

Clifford E. Cornutt and Roy A. Hofer have taken over the interests of Fred E. Colvin in the Hillsboro Implement Co. local dealers for John Deere and Caterpillar.

Mr. Colvin has been associated with the implement company since 1941.

Mr. Cornutt joined the local concern three years ago. He spent most of his life in the Willamette valley, and was graduated from Oregon State college. For 10 years he was fore coming to Hillsboro, he was territory manager for R. M. Wade & Co. Northwest farm implement distributors.

Mr. Hofer was raised in Washington county and received his education here. He holds diplomas from mechanical schools and certificates of merit from mechanical courses offered by the John Deere Plow Co.

The personnel of the firm will remain the same. Miss Irene Van Kleeck, who has kept the accounts for the past two years, will continue in her capacity.

Cecil Ploghoff, who recently joined the company, will remain as field representative. The parts department will be in charge of Lawrence Tauler, with Bob Sagel as
