Miss Barr Weds Mr. Williamson In Oakland Rites

At St. Paul's Episcopal church in Oakland, Cal., Miss Lois Barr of Oakland married Norman Williamson of Hillsboro, on June 25. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Calvin Barkow.

Given in marriage by her father, Mr. Ralph Barr, the bride wore a white slipper satin gown with a white collar edged in lace. Her hair was styled in a French colonial bouquet of white roses, carnations, and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Marilyn Mason of Piedmont, wore an ice blue nylon marquisette dress tied with a wide satin sash. Misses Pat Snyder and Georgia Ames of Oakland, the bridesmaids, were similarly attired in dusty rose. They carried bouquets of pink and blue flowers and wore matching headbands.

Jack Williamson of Corvallis was best man for his brother, William and John Gorman, both of Hillsboro, were ushers.

For her going away costume the bride wore a skipper blue suit with navy and white accessories and a white orchid corsage. They will make their home in Eugene while Mr. Williamson finishes his law studies.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barr of Oakland. Mr. Williamson is the son of Mrs. Anna Williamson of Hillsboro.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Williamson are students at the University of Oregon where she is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi and he is a member of Delta Theta Chi legal fraternity.

Open House to Honor Hart's Golden Wedding

A golden wedding anniversary open house for Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hart will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the home of their son, M. E. Hart, 1902 East Lincoln street.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hart are invited to attend, according to their daughter, Mrs. Richard Rice.

Couple Tour Midwest

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Broniewski returned Sunday from an auto trip to the Midwest. They left June 9 for Hutchinson, Kan., where they visited Mr. Broniewski's brothers and sister. They spent a week visiting relatives in Kansas, and then went to Minnesota.

At Lake Okoboji, Ia., they attended a Broniewski family reunion. On the return trip they visited relatives in Buffalo Center, Ia. In Sioux Falls, Ia., they visited Mrs. Lillie Torsey, whose daughter lives in Cornelius.

Among the scenic spots they hit were the badlands and the Black Hills of South Dakota, the Mt. Rushmore memorial, Hell's Canyon, and the Crater of the Moon, in Idaho. Mrs. Broniewski reported that during the whole trip they avoided the heat wave that is currently sweeping most of the United States east of the Rockies.

Miss Jones Visits—

Ruth Jones, cashier at Weill's, left last Saturday for a vacation in Oakland. She was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Jones.

Junior Women To Hear of Trip

Mrs. William B. Chandlee will tell the Junior Women's club about her recent trip to Florida at their Tuesday night meeting at the Episcopal Parish hall. The meeting, which begins at 8 o'clock, is open to guests of the club members.

Don Becker, local lyric tenor, will sing two groups of songs. He is a student of Farroll Stephens, the voice instructor of the Portland symphonic choir, with which he sings. He also studies under Earl Hazelle of the Stoughton school of music in Portland.

Bob Vance, a pianist preparing for the concert stage, will play a group of numbers. Miss Elaine Dobbins, a member of the club, will entertain with her accordion.

A regular business meeting will be conducted. Hostesses will be Miss Rita Johnson, Mrs. William Lator, Mrs. Raymond Meltebeke, Mrs. Jim Miller, Miss Virginia Moore, and Mrs. William Meltebeke, chairman.

VFW Thanks Helpers

Committees of the Martin J. Ryan post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary expressed their thanks this week to the members and their families who donated time, work and money for their restaurant over the Fourth of July week-end.

Attend Relative's Funeral—

Mrs. Sadie Hollenbeck and family attended the funeral Sunday of Mrs. Walter Kirkwood at Hope well church. Mrs. Kirkwood, a sister of Mrs. Hollenbeck, died in a Salem hospital. She is survived by two daughters, four sisters and two brothers.

Jonita Lorentzen Becomes Bride In June 25 Rites

Reedville Presbyterian church was the scene of a lovely wedding June 25, when Miss Jonita Lorentzen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Lorentzen of Tobias, became the bride of Richard Charles Bump, son of Mrs. Gladys Bump of Portland. Rev. Graham Gilmer, pastor of the church, officiated in a double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock.

Miss Ida Lou Hagg played the wedding music. Robert Geiger sang "O Promise Me" and "Because." To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of white slipper satin with long train, fitted sleeves and beaded midriff. Her full-length veil fell from a tiara of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book and an orchid with white and silver streamers dotted with sweet peas.

Miss Davis Smith of Portland was maid of honor. She wore a gown of orchid taffeta with matching long gloves and carried an orchid. Miss Mae Jette, Mrs. Charles Lauderdale, and Mrs. Henry Coleman, all of Corvallis, were bridesmaids. They wore pastel gowns in blue and pink and carried nosegays of roses and sweet peas.

Misses Betty Bump, sister of the bridegroom, and Jeannette McDermott lit the candles. They wore matching gowns of pink slipper satin.

down the aisle, scattering rose petals, ring bearer, Sandra and Delores from a basket. Jerry Bump, small Casteel carried the bride's train. Brother of the bridegroom, was the They wore blue voile and yellow dotted swiss. Robert Johnson of Portland was best man. Henry and Robert Bump, brothers of the bridegroom, and David Peterson, all of Portland, were ushers, assisted by Henry and Charles Lauderdale of Corvallis. Candelabra and baskets of Madon-na lilies, delphinium, and roses with ferns were used in decorating the church. A reception was held in the basement social room of the nearby school building where the elaborately decorated wedding cake was the centerpiece. A large silver bowl of cut flowers and paired candles with streamers were complementary decorations.

Mrs. William Van Dersal, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Daniel Weir of Portland and Mrs. Arthur Carlson Sr. poured. Mrs. Walter Donnell and Misses Geneva Inlay, Olga Palodichuck of Portland, Blanche and Laura Wyman of Blanchard, Wash., assisted in serving.

Mrs. Jay Frost, Mrs. Mark Bolocco of Witch Hazel, and Mrs. Albert Erickson of Hillsboro assisted in the preparations. Mrs. Orla Wyman of Rose, Wash., cousin of the bridegroom, and Mrs. George Petrovich of Aurora, aunt of the bride, presided at the gift table. Mrs. Burnard McQuinn of Witch Hazel had charge of the guest book.

The mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom each wore a dress of white flowered jersey with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Reedville grade school, Hillsboro Union high school, and Oregon State college, where she was graduated with honors with the class of 1949. She plans to teach in the Portland school system.

The bridegroom is a former student of Benson high school in Portland and a graduate of the American school. He was a coxswain in the U.S. navy, in which he served four years. He is now employed by the Sylvan Brick company.

Mr. and Mrs. Bump will be at home at 1304 S. E. Ash street in Portland after July 12.

About 300 guests were present for the wedding and the reception. 130 of them from out-of-town and 30 from out-of-state.

Past Chiefs Plan Picnic

Past Chiefs' club will have a picnic at Shute park Thursday night, July 14, according to plans made at the meeting Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Vesta Rutherford. A pot-luck supper will be served at 6:30 for members and their husbands. Coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished by the committee, and members are requested to bring table service.

At Thursday night's meeting, Mrs. Wanda Garrigus presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Theresa Dillon, because of illness. The business meeting was followed by cards. Mrs. Adah Moore received first prize in bridge, with Mrs. Emma McKinney taking consolation prize. In rummy, Mrs. Maude Stannard received first and Mrs. Mary Porter consolation.
