

MR. AND MRS. REX CARLSON (Nonnie Van Mook) who were married at the home of the bride's grandmother in Hillsboro June 25. They will be making their home in Reedsport after returning from a honeymoon to eastern Oregon. (Bruno Studio photo.)

Couple Married At Parish Hall

The All Saints Episcopal parish hall was the scene of the wedding of Miss Joyce Elaine Ostead and Wallace Vance Weatherston last Friday evening with Rev. Sten White-side officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ostead of Edberg, Alberta, Canada. Mr. Weatherston is the son of Mrs. J. B. Weatherston of Little Rock, Ark.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown with a net yoke, lace bodice and nylon net skirt fashioned with a small train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap covered with seed pearls. She wore a string of pearls belonging to her mother and carried a cascading bouquet of yellow roses and white stephanotis.

Miss Ruth Haman of Portland, the bride's only attendant, was gowned in aqua nylon net with a matching coronet. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses.

John C. Kresse of Hillsboro was best man. Ushers were Irvin Boyd of Hillsboro and John Miller of Portland.

At the reception in the parish hall, the table was decorated with sweet peas and rambler roses. Miss Ellen Markell cut the cake, assisted by Misses Ruth McKinnon, Helen Chubb and Hazel Casonias, all of Portland.

For the ceremony the bride's mother wore a blue-gray crepe afternoon dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue tulle suit with white accessories.

For her going-away ensemble the bride wore a white serge suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses. Following their wedding trip to Mount Hood and Crater lake, they will be at home at 2210 N. E. Weidler, Portland.

The bride is a graduate of Royal Alexandra Hospital School of Nursing in Edmonton, Canada. Mr. Weatherston was graduated from the University of Arkansas, where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is now employed as special representative for the YMAC division of General Motors.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were the couple's parents and friends from Portland and Eugene.

MR. AND MRS. WALLACE VANCE WEATHERSTON (Joyce Elaine Ostead) were married July 1 at the All Saints Episcopal parish hall. Mr. Weatherston is a former Hillsboro resident. (Photo by Bruno Studio.)

Ludwigs Observe Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ludwig of 2718 S. W. Spring Garden road celebrated their golden wedding anniversary June 26 at the Kinton Grange hall in Kinton.

They were married June 25, 1899, and have lived in and near Portland since they came to the United States in 1902.

Among those who attended the reception in their honor were nine children, nine of their 21 grandchildren, and five of their six great-grandchildren.

They were entertained by songs and music. Fred Bron of Tigard offered a toast in their honor.

the Merchant Marine during the war has recently joined the Portland Fire department.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Erick from British Columbia, Mrs. Ethel Follen and Mr. and Mrs. F. Kerstetter of Vancouver, Wash.

Thursday, July 7, 1949—Hillsboro (Ore.) Argus

MR. AND MRS. SAM LUDWIG celebrated their golden wedding anniversary June 26 with a family reunion at the Kinton Grange hall. They have lived in this vicinity for 48 years.

Additional Locals, Clubs and Society in Sections 3 and 4

Big News for You in the Argus Advertising Columns

Miss Van Mook Weds Mr. Carlson At Home Rites

The home of Mrs. Hermina Hilbert in Hillsboro was the scene of the wedding Saturday afternoon, June 25, of her granddaughter, Nonnie Van Mook, daughter of Mrs. C. M. Willingham of Tigard and Jan Van Mook, to Rex Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson of Reedsport. Rev. Clifford Trout officiated.

The couple was married before a mantel decorated with white and pink roses, and Mrs. Violet Van Mellebeke played recordings of "Because" and "Through the Years" throughout the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length white shantung and lace ensemble and carried a nosegay of white carnations and roses.

Miss Hazel Carlson of Portland was maid of honor. She wore a light aqua tulle suit and carried a nosegay of pink roses. The junior bridesmaids, Joanne and Della Willingham, sisters of the bride, wore matching shantung dresses in aqua and pink and each carried nosegays of Cecil Brunner roses. Patricia Willingham, also a sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore pink organza and carried a basket of pink roses.

Jack Carlson of Reedsport was best man.

At a reception held immediately following the wedding, the table was decorated with Cecil Brunner roses with the wedding cake as a centerpiece. Mrs. Ernest Zuercher, center piece, Miss Shirley Anderson of Portland, and Mrs. John Hilbert of Valley, Cal., aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Serving punch was Mrs. Kenneth Biersdorf, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Hall Bradley was in charge of the gifts and Miss Sandy Carlson, sister of the bridegroom, passed the guest book.

Leaving for their honeymoon to eastern Oregon, the bride was wearing a brown tweed suit with white accessories and wore a carnation corsage.

Mrs. Willingham chose for her daughter's wedding a black and white afternoon print dress and Mrs. Carlson wore a flowered print. Each had corsages of roses and sweetpeas.

The couple will make their future home in Reedsport, where the bridegroom is employed by K and M Logging company.

Lynn Hall Leaves For Study at U. C.

Lynn Hall received final confirmation last week of a scholarship to study nuclear chemistry at the University of California. He will leave Monday for Berkeley, where he will begin work immediately in the university's nuclear chemistry research laboratory under Dr. Glenn Seaborg until the beginning of fall term.

Mr. Hall was graduated this year from Reed college in Portland, where he was a chemistry major. His earlier education was received in Hillsboro elementary and high schools.

His studies at the University of California are expected to last for several years while he works toward his advanced degrees.

Lynn Hall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hall, formerly of Hillsboro. Mr. Hall is a senior division accountant of the Birds Eye-Sonder division of the General Foods corporation.

FL Club to Picnic

July 17 has been set by the FL club of Rebeekah lodge for a picnic to be held at the home of Mrs. Vernon Hahn at Mountaineer. Those planning to go should get in touch with Mrs. Bill Kent for transportation, etc.

The FL club wishes to thank people who assisted with the refreshment stand at the celebration grounds during Happy Days—JOOP, Rebeekah, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Housman of Portland, Merrill's Coffee shop, Times cafe, and Boy Scouts.

Wilmarth's End Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wilmarth returned home Friday after a month's auto tour of 14 states. They visited in South Dakota, Nebraska, and Illinois. On the way they also saw Yellowstone national park, the redwoods of California, and the Mormon cathedral at Salt Lake City.

Travels in Washington

Mrs. Ruth Mulkey and her mother, Mrs. C. L. Welch of Hubbard, visited relatives in Tacoma last week, while Mrs. Mulkey was on vacation from her job as county public health nurse. During the trip they visited Mt. Rainier, Paradise Inn, and Spirit lake. On their way they encountered a snowstorm.

Spends Fourth in Boise

Miss Corrine Wortman left Saturday for Boise, Idaho, where she visited relatives the week-end and 4th of July with Miss Agnes Polimias, roommate at Maryhurst college. She returned home Monday night, making the round trip by plane.

Fischens See Park

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Eischen and children, of Cornelius, spent ten days visiting Yellowstone National park and parts of Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, and Washington.

Miss McFarren Becomes Bride At Grace Manor

Miss Mavis Ruth McFarren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. McFarren of Bonny Slope, became the bride of Harlan Earl Hamel on Sunday afternoon, June 12 at Grace Manor in Portland.

Mr. Hamel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hamel of route 2, Portland.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. French of the Free Methodist church before a large group of relatives and friends. Candelabra and bouquets of gardenias, delphiniums, and snapdragons decorated the room.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an eggshell satin gown fashioned with a train. Her fingertip veil fell from a headpiece of net trimmed with pearl beading and orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book and a white orchid.

The maid of honor, Dolores Hamel, the bridegroom's sister, wore an orchid chiffon dress with pink horsehair halo hat and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids, the Misses Jean Batke, Carol Rainey, Patty Blair and Genevieve Styles were gowned in bouffant taffeta dresses of pastel blue, pink, yellow and green. Each carried a bouquet of white asters and wore a headband of forget-me-nots.

Mr. Donald Purcell was best man. Ushers were Messrs. Jerry Johnson, Edward Hage, Dick Batke, and Lowell Ingram.

Following the ceremony Misses Phyllis, Norma Lou and Marilyn French sang "At Dawning," "Always and I Love You Truly." Mrs. Grace Gregg played Wagner's wedding music.

At the reception immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Robert

MRS. HARLAN EARL HAMEL, the former Miss Mavis Ruth McFarren, was married in a Portland ceremony June 12. (Bruno photo.)

Wilson, great-aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Grace Gregg served the cake.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McFarren chose a pale blue dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue ensemble.

After a short trip to the Oregon beaches the couple is at home at 1918 N. W. Leahy road near Cedar Mill. The bride's going away costume was a navy and white dress with pink and white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bridegroom, who served in

WEDDING INVITATIONS

Engraved or printed on fine quality stock.

Allow 10 days for delivery

Hillsboro Argus

SHOP AT . . .

and have more time for pleasure.

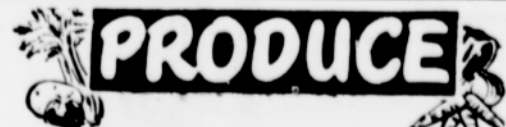

No time lost in parking.

MEATS

Bacon Jowls lb. 23¢

Wieners lb. 49¢

Cantaloupes ea. 15¢

LARGE SIZE, 27's

Celery lb. 7¢

NEW CROP, LOCAL

See us for CANNING APRICOTS

CRUSE'S HIGHWAY MARKET

6th and Baseline You Can Park at the Front Door

Friday and Saturday Saving Values

Armour's Milk

Tall Can 11¢

Borden's, Carnation, Pet, Nestle's 2 for 25¢

Wheaties

Large 12-oz. size 19¢

Happyvale Peas

3 No. 303 cans 29¢

Treet

LUNCH MEAT, 12-oz. tin 44¢

Tang

SALAD DRESSING, Pint 26¢

Cigarettes

ALL POPULAR BRANDS, Carton $1.45

Duz

Large 29¢ Giant 79¢

Trend

Large Size 18¢

Coffee

S & W. Pound 53¢

Veal & Pork Loaf

ARMOUR'S, 12-oz. tin 54¢

Dog Food

PLAY-FAIR 4 1-lb. Cans 31¢

Hi Ho Crackers

1-lb. 27¢

Candy Bars

6 for 25¢

Ivory Soap

LARGE 2 for 29¢

MEDIUM, 9c PERSONAL, 7c

DELICIOUS BAKERY DELICACIES

FRENCH ICE CREAM CAKE

A large 3-layer cake with a lemon-orange filling and a nice rich boiled french cream icing.

SANDWICH BREAD HOT DOG BUNS and HAMBURGER BUNS

Keep your Cookie Jar full of a variety of our Cookies for those energetic youngsters.

PERFECTION BAKERY

Main Street HILLSBORO Telephone 451

The DuraPower Mainspring WON'T RUST!

FOR FURTHER PROOF See Our Window Display!

ANDERSON

JEWELERS Washington County's Oldest Established Jewelers 224 E. Main St. Hillsboro