

Bruno Santoro Rites Offered

Solemn requiem high mass was offered at St. Cecilia Catholic church, Beaverton, for Bruno Santoro, a prominent farmer of the Beaverton area who died July 7 at his home on route 1, Beaverton, after a short illness. Requiem of the mass was at the Pegg chapel, Beaverton, Sunday night. Vault entombment was at Mt. Calvary Mausoleum.

Sayles Funeral Held at Beaverton

Funeral services for Mrs. Dorothy Maureta Sayles were held at the Pegg chapel in Beaverton Tuesday. Mrs. Sayles, an Alaba resident for the past three years, died July 7 in Portland after an operation.

Concert Set for Mountain Home

By Mrs. E. B. Joyce
MT. HOME—On the evening of Friday, July 21, the Youth Choir will present their Mid-Summer concert under the direction of Stanley Egan. A varied program will be given, and the public is most cordially invited to attend. The hour is 8:15. The concert of the day here in Mountain Home is a most enjoyable one.

Youth Arrested On Check Charge

An 18-year-old youth was arrested Sunday as he was leaving a local drug store by county officers on a charge of passing a check. He is alleged to have burglarized the home of H. Keston, also of route 1, and stolen personalized bank checks which he proceeded to cash at the drug store. The young man has allegedly been AWOL from the army since June 11.

Waibel is Prize Pupil In Vets' Farm Class

Wael qualified for the program the hard way. He spent a long stretch in the combat engineers with the 4th Infantry division, the outfit which bore the brunt of action in Italy, France and Germany. During the 27 months he was overseas he didn't stop learning.
