Beaverton Unit Legion Auxiliary Installs Officers

Mrs. Adeline Frost was installed as president of the Beaverton unit American Legion Auxiliary at an impressive ceremony held Wednesday night of last week at the Beaverton grade school auditorium. Mrs. Marie Moore, president, presided. Mrs. Wilda Thorn of The Dalles, department president, was installing officer, assisted by the past president's team of Hillsboro unit.

Distinguished officers present besides Mrs. Thorn were Mrs. Mae Whitcomb, Portland, department secretary; Mrs. Eda Zelezko, head of hospital workers at the US Veterans hospital in Portland; and Mrs. Barbara Rhodes, who was installing officer for the unit when organized. Officers installed with Mrs. Frost were Myrtle Hardman, first vice-president; Arlie Applegate, second vice-president; Hilma McKercher, secretary; May Regnito, treasurer; Ethelyn Taggart, chaplain; Evelyn Joneson, historian; Mary Porella, sergeant-at-arms; and Margaret Jones, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

Attend Wedding—

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skinner and two sons drove to Walla Walla Sunday, July 3, to attend the wedding of Mr. Skinner's sister, Miss Lenore Skinner. They were gone four days.

Ledford-Harsch Rites Solemnized

Miss Doreen Harsch, daughter of Cecil Harsch of Tillamook, and Robert E. Ledford, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Ledford, were married June 3 at a minister's parsonage in Vancouver. Rev. O. A. Cooper performed the ceremony.

For her wedding, the bride wore a blue gabardine suit with white accessories. Her carriage was of red coachwork.

Her attendant was Mrs. Becky Johnson of Tillamook, her niece. Best man for Mr. Ledford was his brother-in-law, Don Stevens of Beaverton.

Following the ceremony, the couple left on a trip to California, Crater Lake, and the Oregon coast. They are now making their home in Tillamook.

Westerners to Work

Tonight at 7:30 the Washington County Westerners will start on their "work night" cleaning up their new grounds at the John Reilly place. The group is working on a fun day. Last Sunday many of the club members attended the Ranch Riders' Fun day in Forest Grove and brought home their share of the prizes.

Arday Miller of Well's department store is on her annual vacation.

Miss Coussens, Mr. Lillegard Marry July 11

Miss Margaret Coussens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Coussens of Route 1, became the bride of Albert V. Lillegard, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lillegard of Route 2, in a Monday morning ceremony at St. Matthews Catholic church. Rev. J. T. Costello officiated in a setting of white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with marquisette yoke and ruffles of Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses bound with a white satin ribbon.

Miss Alice Coussens, the sister of the bride, was maid of honor wearing a pale blue marquisette gown. Her bouquet was of Rome Glory roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Sylvia Coussens and Miss Ann Coussens, were similarly attired.

Elmer Lillegard was best man for his brother, assisted by Robert Spiering and Jack Hanson of Portland. Ushers were H. L. Beckford Jr. and Kenneth Warman.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories for the ceremony. Mrs. Lillegard, the bridegroom's mother, was attired in a rose dress with black accessories.

Mrs. Carl Anderson, cousin of the bride, provided music for the ceremony. Mrs. Donald Smith sang "Ave Maria." "The Lord's Prayer" and "Palm Angels."

Marie, "The Lord's Prayer" and "Palm Angels"

At the reception at the Forest Hills country club, Misses Clara Beckford and Margaret Jane Dooley presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Donald C. Foster, sister of the bride, cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Remi Coussens and Mrs. Albert Coussens. Miss Joan Hanson had charge of the guest book. About 45 out-of-town guests attended.

A wedding dance at the Hillsboro Grange hall was held at 9:30. The bride chose a pink-beige suit with brown accessories for her going-away costume. Following a honeymoon to California, they will be at home on East Baseline after July 23.

A graduate of Hillsboro Union high school, the bride attended Pacific university. She is employed at the Terminal Ice and Cold Storage company. Mr. Lillegard, who is a graduate of Hillsboro Union high school, served four years in the army. He is employed by Siranahan Motor company.

Shower Honors Bride

Mrs. Lillian Huff (Bonnie McKelton) of Forest Grove was guest of honor at a bridal shower given by Mrs. Robert Carroll at her Hillsboro home. The evening was spent playing games and visiting after which the gifts were opened. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Wilson-Becker Rites Performed July 1 in Portland

In a setting of white gladioli and pink roses, Mildred Elaine Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Becker of Beaverton, became the bride of G. Dean Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wilson of Marshalltown, Ia., July 1 at the First Nazarene church of Portland. Rev. Fletcher Galloway performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pink slipper satin gown fashioned with a train and a bustle back. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of imported lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and gladioli centered with a white orchid.

Mary Lou Anderson of Portland, the maid of honor, was gown in orchid satin and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white sweet peas.

The bridesmaids, Virginia Wions of Gresham and Joyce King of Portland, wore matching dresses of apple green satin and carried bouquets of roses and sweet peas.

Bob Duberry of Emmett, Ida, served as best man. Jim Galloway of Portland and Alvin Becker of Beaverton, brother of the bride, assisted.

While Mrs. Royal Warner of Los Angeles, sister of the bride, played, Don Becker of Hillsboro, the bride's brother, sang "O Promise Me," "God Give Me You," and "Blessed Be." The bride's mother wore a rose crepe dinner dress for the ceremony.

At the reception in the church parson, the table was decorated with pink roses, lilies and gladioli. Mrs. Don Becker and Mrs. Theodore Wilson poured. Mrs. John Krets cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Ruth Mack, Mrs. James Becker, and Miss Mary Becker.

Miss Virginia Galloway had charge of the guest book.

For her going-away ensemble the bride chose a rose gabardine suit with navy and white accessories and an orchid corsage. Following a honeymoon at the Oregon beaches, they are now at home in Portland.

The bride attended Hillsboro high school for two years and was graduated from Roosevelt high in Portland. While attending the Northwest Nazarene college in Nampa, Ia., she taught physical education.

Mr. Wilson is a graduate of Marshalltown high school in Marshalltown, Ia., and attended the Northwest Nazarene college for one year.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. John Krets of Crell, Ore.; Mrs. C. Sommerfeldt of Seattle; and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Becker of Tillamook.

Wyoming Publisher, Family Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Black and children John, Susan, David and Gretchen of Thermopolis, Wyo., visited here Friday to Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Reid Cottrell while on an automobile tour of the northwest. The two families were friends in Wyoming and Mrs. Black and Mrs. Cottrell worked together in a bank back there before their marriages.

Black, who is publisher of the Independent Record, won first place for community service in the 1949 national newspaper contests conducted by the National Editorial association. The year before he took second in community service.

He says the largest mineral hot springs in the world is located at Thermopolis and that many people come there for their health.
