

Jr. Women Hear Musical Program And Mrs. Chandlee

Junior Women's club members and their guests heard a varied musical program at their open meeting Tuesday evening in the Episcopal parish hall. Mrs. Howard Davis was program chairman and introduced the numbers on the program.

Don Becker, Hillsboro lyric tenor, opened the program with a group of three songs, "Trees," "An Italian Romance," by Donizetti, and "Daddy Day." Later he sang "Galway Bay," "A Little Bit of Heaven," "The Old Lamp," and "The Girl That I Married."

Mr. Becker, whose wife is a club member, sings with the Portland symphonic choir and drew much applause from the members. Robert Vance, who has been a piano student for the past seven years at the Portland School of Music, prepared for the concert stage, played three selections and received "Malagena" and the "Tutal Fire Dance."

Concluding the program was a member, Mrs. Vincent Dobbin, who was warmly received with her comedy interpretations and accordion selections.

Mrs. William B. Chandlee, president of the Oregon Federated Women's clubs, described her trip in April to the national convention at Hollywood Beach, Fla., telling of sight-seeing in Denver, Dallas, Houston, and New Orleans and showing souvenirs of the trip. Of particular interest to the club were the junior events and junior night when delegates gave their reports by floodlight beside the half-million dollar swimming pool at the resort hotel. She told of the values of hearing what other junior clubs were doing and particularly urged that the Hillsboro club begin plans to send a delegate to the national convention in Boston next year.

At the short business meeting, the president, Mrs. A. L. Schuler, announced plans for the club's picnic, Sunday afternoon, August 7, starting around 2 o'clock at Lewis and Clark college in Portland. Coffee and ice cream will be furnished, but members are asked to bring silverware for their own families.

Picnic chairmen are Mrs. Stan Walker and Mrs. Leon Banner. Members will be notified by mail or telephone of final details by the picnic hostesses, Mesdames Don Shattuck, Ted Oberlander, Hugh Rogers, Frances Ryan, Ed Setniker, and Ernest Lashien.

Betty Yungen Returns From Conventions

Betty Yungen returned last week from San Francisco, where she attended the national convention of the American Home Economics association June 23 to July 1. Two thousand members attended the 40th anniversary meeting.

Before that convention she attended the Pacific region Future Homemakers of America meeting at Santa Barbara June 21 to 24 as a local advisor. Future Homemakers chapter mothers, local advisors and state and national supervisors from the 11 western states and Hawaii met to plan future development of their four-year-old organization.

Mohans Picnic—Sixty members and guests of the Aloha chapter of commerce held a picnic Tuesday evening at Carlisle field beside the half-million dollar swimming pool at the resort hotel. She told of the values of hearing what other junior clubs were doing and particularly
