

R. W. Berwald,
Astoria Girl, Wed
In Sunday Rites

The first Norwegian Lutheran church of Astoria was the scene of a pretty wedding Sunday, June 20 at 1 o'clock. Carol Anne Wrausmann, became the bride of R. W. Berwald, son of Mrs. Henry Natrup of Banks in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. H. Storaasli.

The candles at the altar, which was decorated with white stock and carnations and baskets of white gladioli, were lit by Miss Rosemary Roth, Portland, and Miss Dorothy Bergman.

"Always" was sung preceding the ceremony by Miss Sonia Gundersen, who also sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the service. She was accompanied by Mrs. Grace Ellison, who played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle with lace inserts and matching lace mitts. Her floor-length veil fell from a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried white roses.

Mrs. Betty Lou Kelly of Corvallis, best maid of honor, wore a fashioned gown of a darker shade of blue and carried pink roses. Barbara Everett, flower girl, niece of the bride, wore a floor-length gown matching her mother's and carried a white satin basket filled with pale pink rosebuds.

Jack Croeni, Hillsboro, was best man, and the ushers were Lester Kahle, Cornelius, and Phil Everett. Mrs. Wrausmann, mother of the bride, chose an afternoon dress of blue crepe and lace, with corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Henry Natrup, bridegroom's mother, wore gray with pink carnations.

At the reception in the church parlors, Miss Dolores Carlson and Miss Rosemary Roth served and Miss Dorothy Bergman had charge of the guest book.

For their wedding trip down the coast, Mrs. Berwald wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and the carriage from the center of her bridal bouquet.

Out-of-town guests for the ceremony were the Misses Louise and Wilma Bergsteker, St. Louis, Mo., aunts of the bride. Many also attended from Banks, Hillsboro and vicinity.

Mr. Berwald is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and of Oregon State college class of 1949. He served with the U.S. Army in World War II. Mrs. Berwald also attended Oregon State college. They are at home in Forest Grove.

Baptist Bible School Students End Course

Daily Vacation Bible school at the First Baptist church will close Friday with a picnic at Bagley park at noon, following the regular morning session.

At 7:45 a.m. Sunday the children will give a demonstration program, "A Day at School," to show what they have done each day. Included in the program are choruses, flag and Bible salutes, memory work, and flannel-graph stories. The children's work will be on display.

Certificates and awards will be presented to the children at the close of the program. All parents and friends are invited to attend.

Chases Visit Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chase returned Saturday from two weeks in Oakland, Cal., with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stump and family. Mrs. Stump is the former Naida Chase. Mr. and Mrs. Chase found good weather all during their visit, which included a side trip to San Jose. They drove through the Redwoods on the way. During the last day, they drove 245 miles.

THIS GROUP OF HILLSBORO citizens visited the Portland city hall Monday and extended an invitation to Mayor Dorothy McCullough Lee to attend the Oregon Trails Centennial here Friday. Transportation was furnished by Ray Delman and his two-horse hack. In the group above are Delman, Mrs. U. J. Gates, next to him; Mayor Lee, seated next to Mrs. Emma McKinney in second seat, and Mrs. John Gaten, left in back seat, with Mrs. Jaye McKelton and W. W. Winans, manager of the Hillsboro chamber of commerce. In the foreground is Mrs. Edna Imbric Zilly, county historian.—Cut courtesy Oregon Journal.

Wrights to Note
Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wright of Hazledale will observe their golden wedding anniversary August 6 with an open house at their Hazledale home. They have issued an open invitation for their friends to attend from 4 to 9 p.m.

They moved to Hazledale in 1945 and have lived in the vicinity since. Previously, they had lived in Wallawa county, where Mr. Wright taught school and raised stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright have four children, two of whom are living. They are Mrs. Evelyn Murray of Tilled and Marvin Wright of Hazledale. They also have four grandchildren.

On August 6, 1899, they were married at Arko, Oregon, in Union county.

County Students Earn
Honor Roll Grades
