

Sherwood Women Give Showers For Miss Elwert, Mrs. Huitt

By Mrs. Donna Meinecke

SHERWOOD—Thursday, August 4, a group of about 36 ladies gathered in the yard of the home of Mrs. Alfie Stomall on the Tualatin river to help Miss Marian Elwert at a surprise kitchen bridal shower.

A game of guessing what ingredient from the kitchen was in each of ten little bags was played and Mrs. Ruth Keicher won the prize.

Following this Barbara Drummond and Keith Hopkins came around the corner of the house dressed as a bride and groom. Barbara had on a pink, ruffled net dress over a white satin slip, a white short head veil, white slippers, and carried a nosegay of sweet peas with ribbon streamers. Keith wore a black coat and bow tie. They pulled a wagon covered with white crepe paper, large pink bows and two big silver wedding bells tied on in front and back. They had to make two trips to bring all of the presents and pile them on a table at which Marian was seated. She received many useful gifts for the kitchen and in addition, everyone had included a can of some kind of spice to her package, so she was well supplied in that line.

At the close of the evening, refreshments of cake, ice cream, coffee or tea were served by a group of Marian's Eastern Star friends. The guests were seated indoors at card tables with dishes of nuts on each table. The large table used for serving was decorated with two large silver rings interlocked and appropriate shower napkins were used.

Miss Elwert will marry Kenneth Hosier on August 14.

Mrs. Huitt Feted

Friday evening in the parlors of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Mrs. Wesley Huitt, nee Ruby Meinecke, was guest of honor for a bridal shower. About 25 ladies were present but many others also sent gifts. Mrs. Huitt opened a large number of beautiful and practical items to help her in starting housekeeping. She was assisted by her two sisters, Ruth Meinecke and Mrs. Loren Thackeray. Refreshments were served after everyone had viewed the array of gifts.

About 75 or 80 persons were present at the Eastern Star and Masonic picnic which was held at Louie's park on the Tualatin river Sunday afternoon, in spite of the inclement weather.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hopkins and children left Monday and expect to return home Thursday from Manzanita beach where they will spend the time at their cottage there.

Arrive in Boston

Ward has been received from Mr. and Mrs. George Haag that they arrived in Boston, Mass., August 1, where they plan to stay about a week before starting their drive home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Blenkinsop and Marilyn attended services at the Laurewood church in Portland Sunday where Rev. P. M. Blenkinsop is now minister. Ken sang a special number. Afterward they enjoyed dinner at the parsonage.

Callers at the Norwood Glendinning home Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kieffer and daughter, Dorothy Ann from Palmyra, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith of Spirit Lake, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lewis and children spent Saturday and Sunday at Twin Rocks beach where the Friends church is holding its conference.

Sunday dinner guests at the Emil Lawrenz home were Mr. and Mrs. Kruger, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Pape from Portland and Mr. Rudolph Ehret from Huntington Beach, Cal.

The Norwood Glendinning and K. W. Sawyer families had a picnic at Sellwood park Sunday afternoon and also visited Mt. Taber park.

"LIKE SHINY BLACK SEALS in the Only Water" is one of 100 original paintings by Navy combat artists included in "Operation Palette." Commander G. B. Coale, USNR, an eye witness of the torpedoing of the American destroyer by a German submarine October 30-31, 1941, drew this dramatic picture. In the background can be seen another U.S. destroyer, and the oil seeping from the tanks of the U.S. Navy photo.
