

Strawberry Float Wins First Prize At Farmeroo

By Mrs. Stanley Shuck
CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—The Buck Heaven Variant club float received first prize in its division at the Farmeroo parade in Newberg Saturday. The float represented a strawberry field. Riding on the float were the plants, Mrs. J. E. Simpson, Mrs. Roy Shook, and Mrs. Ira G. McCormick. Mrs. Otto Ornduff was the chauffeur. Mrs. Shook's small son, Douglas, was a passenger. Chehalis Mountain Trail riders received second in the mounted group.

Bob Gannett exhibited two Hereford cows and their calves and a yearling heifer. He received several prizes. Will Green received first in the driver seat. These boys are FFA members at Newberg high. Mildred Shook rode in the pony cart that represented Troy Tit farm at Newberg.

Captain Howard Williams was home from Bang air field, Spokane, Wash., from August 5 to 7.
Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Meeker, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Meeker and children, Mr. and Mrs. John and children attended a family reunion at Corvallis Sunday.
Mrs. Edith Lilly of Newberg, who taught the last five terms at Pleasant View school, drew the lucky number at Fred Meyer's week at Junction Beach that entitled her to an all expense paid four days trip by plane to San Francisco, Cal., and by bus to Yosemite valley national park. They left last Saturday morning.
Henry Hanson of Portland visited a brother E. V. Hanson and family last Sunday.
Shingles Home
Charles Ornduff of Tillamook was here this week shingling the home of his wife's aunt, Mrs. Ada Stewart.
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shuck and son Timothy accompanied by Mrs. Emma Rabin of Portland left Friday on a ten-day trip to Seaside, Mant, where they are visiting Mrs. Shuck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lobert.
Mrs. Ira G. McCormick will gather and write Chehalis Mt. news during Mrs. Shuck's absence.
Miss Ann Ornduff of Portland was an over-night guest at the home of her brother, Otto Ornduff, before attending the Jones-Shuck reunion at Newberg Sunday.
Take Trip to Coast
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Simpson and Mrs. Mary Wiley were guests last Sunday of Arthur Simpson on a trip to the coast and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Boney at Talah.

Pleasant View Community club annual picnic held at McManville city park Sunday was attended by about 50. After dinner, swimming, horseshoe pitching and fishing were enjoyed. Next regular meeting will be the second Saturday evening in September when election of officers will be held.
Tom Jones arrived here August 8 from Pocatello, Ida., and is visiting his brothers, Wilbur and Brad Jones, also other relatives. The brothers attended the Jones-Shuck annual family reunion in Newberg Sunday.
Sells Farm
Guy Hodge has sold his 82-acre farm here to Robert Weaver, a neighbor. Mr. and Mrs. Hodge and Bud Hodge will move to their farm near LaGrande in October where they have been making improvements.
Mrs. J. E. Simpson and daughter, Ruth, were hosts last Thursday night when 16 met there and discussed plans for the Chehalis Mountain Trail Riders's annual ride along the Sky Line trail in the Cascade Mountains. August 22 was the date set for departure.

Youth's Death Told
Steve Brink, 14, nephew of Mrs. F. E. Hoffman, died last Friday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Brink at Klamath Falls. Steve spent several summers here with his aunt. His mother will be remembered as Helen Smith, who lived here with her sister, Mrs. Hoffman, several years.
Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Allen and son Dennis of Holtville, Cal., left Saturday for home after several days camping along the Sky Line trail in the Cascade Mountains. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allen's two daughters, Edith and Peggy, who spent the summer here, returned home with their parents. Mr. Allen underwent an emergency major operation on his arrival home.
Glenn Miller salvaged 85 pounds of honey last week when parts of his pump house were torn away for repairs. The bees had built in the 10-inch wall where sawdust insulation had settled.

Visit Relatives in Albany
Mrs. Robert Johnston had as their guests last week Mrs. Johnston's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Webb McFadden and Naomi, and Marion Fadden of Shamrock, Okla. They, with Mrs. Howard Johnston and daughter, Dennis, visited another cousin, Mrs. James Griffin last Wednesday at Albion.
Mr. and Mrs. Jake Haynes and daughter, Sandra, of Molalla, came Friday to visit Mrs. Haynes' mother, Mrs. F. L. Shook, and other relatives.
Ray Shook and Ed Parrish are being treated at a logging camp at Valley.
Otto Ornduff narrowly escaped serious injury last Thursday when the windmill under which he was helping pull a pipe from a well collapsed.

To Meet on Trip
Mrs. Robert Johnston left Wednesday for Montpelier, Idaho where she will meet her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Sparrow of Cedar Rapids, Ia., and mother through the Grand Tetons and Jackson Hole country before going on to Estes Park, Colo. There they will be joined by a woman-on-lake and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Frutcher of Houston, Tex., and other sister and her daughter, Mrs. Leora Frutcher and Lou of Cedar Rapids. They will spend a week at Columbian Lodge in Rocky Mountain national park.
Mrs. Glenn Miller went to Delake Sunday for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Maynard.
Mrs. F. L. Shook was hostess Friday afternoon when a group of Buck Heaven Variant club members met here for work. Regular meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Jim Meeker today, Thursday.

John Reynolds Buried Friday
Services for John Blackstone Reynolds, who died August 9 at Hillsboro, were held at the Pegg Chapel in Beaverton, Friday. Interment was in Crescent Grove cemetery. Elder R. J. Thomas of Portland officiated and Elder Armond Johnston sang the service.
Mr. Reynolds was born March 11, 1879, in Columbia, Neb. He was prominent in community affairs for over 30 years at Hartshorne, Okla., where he operated a hardware business.
His wife, Woody Banks Reynolds, died in 1932 at Hartshorne, Okla. Later, Mr. Reynolds sold his business and retired. After extensive travels he came to Oregon. Mr. Reynolds settled near West Slope and lived in that community for about 13 years. He made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Mathis near Beaverton, until the time of his death.
Mr. Reynolds is survived by one son, M. Sgt. James W. Reynolds with the U. S. Army at Warren, Va.

Ralston, Martin Set Air Show For Tillamook
Swede Ralston and Dick Martin will once again take to the air for one of their spectacular demonstrations of aerial skill at the Tillamook County fair set for this Saturday and Sunday at the coastal cheese center.
Four members of the Ralston-Martin show will participate in the program which is set for Sunday afternoon. Besides the two men, include Ira Butterworth and Jay Smith will make the trip to do their acts in the show.
Some of the acts on the list of the local dare devils will include "How Not to Die" by Swede Ralston, "Car-to-A" Transfer" by Jay Smith and aerobatics by Dick Martin in his P-38. The Hillsboro crew will also have more acts in the program.
Following the Tillamook show, Ralston and Butterworth will be on the agenda at Port Angeles, Wash., for a show set in that city, August 28.

Hillsboro Scouts Back from Camp
Sixteen Hillsboro Boy Scouts under the leadership of Gerard Heine returned from Camp Baldwin last Sunday after spending a week at camp with scouts from Klamath Falls, Wash., and Pine Grove, Ore. Officials report that all local scouts passed their tests and received good camper's badges.
The scouts from Hillsboro were Howard Hinek, Clifford Halvorson, Donald Ross, Robert Engelen, Larry Hall, Robert Hise, Richard Hise, David Galt, Bill Hare, Davison, Denton, Glen Danielson, Gar Pittman, James Furby, Mike Wirtz, Dan Duncan and Larry Relling.
The Scouts returned to Hillsboro by the way of Bonneville dam and the Columbia river highway. They visited the dam before returning home.
Camp Baldwin is located between the Hood River-Mt. Hood loop highway and Dufur on Ramsey Creek. It is operated by the Portland Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America.
In addition to Camp Baldwin, the Council operates Camp Meriwether on the Pacific coast. This camp has been used for over 25 years by an average of 1500 Scouts a year.
