

Rotary Leader Speaker Today At Local Club

Charles R. Cooley of Grants Pass, district governor of Rotary International, will speak before the Hillsboro Rotary club this noon (Thursday) on his official visit. A sub-assembly with the district governor was held by club officers and committee chairmen last night in the chamber of commerce rooms. There are 39 clubs in this district. Cooley is president of the Three C's Lumber company in Grants Pass and is connected with other lumbering interests in southern Oregon, and is owner of the Luthia Hotel in Ashland. He is one of the 186 Rotary district governors who are supervising the activities of some 7000 Rotary clubs which have a membership of 330,000 business and professional executives in 81 countries and geographical regions throughout the world.

Halvorson Rites Scheduled Today

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. today (Thursday) at Young's Funeral Home for Harold L. Halvorson, 81, of 705 East Baseline, Hillsboro, who died here Monday, Rev. Erwin H. Jahr will officiate and interment will be in the family plot at Farmington cemetery. Mr. Halvorson, a native of Norway, has lived in Oregon for the past 62 years and in Hillsboro for the last five. He was born in Norway, July 18, 1868. Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Lenora Halvorson of Hillsboro; two sons, Alfred of Grants Pass and Louis of Willport; a daughter, Mrs. Chris Peterson of Portland; and three grandchildren.

Bookmobile Set For Display, Use At County Fair

A bookmobile, on loan from Clackamas county, and stocked with books from the state library will be on display at the county fair this year on September 1, 2 and 3. The portable lending library will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily during the three days, and books will be charged out to Washington county patrons. Mrs. Marshal Hooper, former Multnomah county bookmobile operator, will be in charge of the portable lending library and at the same time, women from all parts of the county will assist Mrs. Hooper in explaining the library, furnishing information and generally promoting the bookmobile. Miss Eleanor Stephens, Oregon State librarian, assisted local people in getting a loan of the Clackamas county vehicle and was also instrumental in the furnishing of volumes from the state library for the bookmobile. Miss Stephens is scheduled to be present at the fair this year and observe the results of the bookmobile in operation in Washington county.

Fair Gates Open Next Wednesday

(Continued from page 1) By half of the upstairs over the 4-H club building. The pioneer log cabin, used last year for display, will be devoted to registration for home coming and for a place where visitors may rest. Eating facilities at the grounds this year will be the best that can be provided and will include hamburger stands and the kitchen. The kitchen will again be operated by the women of Washington Grange, who will serve meals and sandwiches.

Extension Heads Attend Program

(Continued from page 1) maker who will attend the extension unit meetings. Committee Assignments After dinner, committee assignments were made by Miss Nichols, when officers and committee chairmen were named to assemble in groups, where leaders would try to help them understand their work more intelligently. At 2 p.m. committee reports were given on recreation, publicity, legislative, Alaska house, child care, 4-H, A.C., W.W. and U.N. Presentation of standard unit certificates was made by Miss Nichols. Fourteen units received charters for standard units. Several charters had gold stars on them indicating these units had been standard units before. The new county committee was installed with Mrs. Jodie Johnson acting as installing officer. Miss Hill, assistant state librarian, said the state library had 1000 books marked for Hillsboro to be on display in a bookmobile at the Washington county fair in Hillsboro. Mrs. Alfred Meyer thanked all who had helped with the program.
