

Miss Carpenter Becomes Bride Of Jack Drennan

In an evening ceremony Saturday, Miss Anita June Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Carpenter of Beaverton, became the bride of Jack Drennan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Owens of Oreno. Rev. Harry Leeds performed the ceremony at the Oreno Presbyterian church.

Jack Drennan sang "O Promise Me" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Jack Drennan.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white marquisette gown made with lace insets and a long train. Her head was covered with a brief veil. With her white prayer book she carried a white orchid.

The maid of honor, Miss Norma Howard of Kelso, Wash., wore a blue tulle gown trimmed with white. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Mary Sonji, the bridesmaid, also wore blue tulle and carried pink roses.

Peggy Ann Smith was flower girl, and Johnny Root was ring bearer.

Alfred Martinson of Oreno was best man, assisted by Clarence Gross of Oreno, Jack and Arthur Carpenter, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

At the reception following the ceremony in the church dining room, the wedding cake was surrounded by tiny blue flowers and blue candles. Mrs. Owen Smith and Mrs. Edna Root served the punch. Mrs. Helen Richards cut the cake. They were assisted by Misses Ava Jean Brown, Ava West, Betty Taylor, and Joyce Parmer. Miss Ramona Keybaugh had charge of the guest book.

For her going-away ensemble, the bride chose an ice blue satin dress with gray accessories and a white orchid. Mr. and Mrs. Drennan are now making their home in Portland, where they are employed by Sears, Roebuck and company.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Neffert of Boise, Ida.; Mrs. Owen Smith and daughter of Grangeville, Ida.; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Beagle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howard, all of Kelso, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Carpenter of Umatilla.

Wedding Anniversary Observed with Party

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Paine observed their fifteenth wedding anniversary recently with a party at their home. Among those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Kim Hackman, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Neild, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kincaid, Mr. and Mrs. John Eastridge, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pickens, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevens, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sahnow and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Peters of Hillsboro.

Girls from Milwaukee Visit—Margaret Ann and Mary Jane Foran of Milwaukee, Wis., are visiting their aunt, Mrs. John H. Medland. They plan to spend two weeks here.

Darlene Cantrall, Martin W. Scholz Marry Friday

Darlene Mae Cantrall and Martin W. Scholz were married in an evening ceremony Friday at Trinity Lutheran church by Rev. George Reule. Miss Cantrall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton E. Cantrall of Hillsboro, and Mr. Scholz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Scholz of route 2, Cornelius.

The church was decorated with baskets of white and salmon gladioli and asters for the ceremony. Miss Kathryn Reule sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" and "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Alvin Schultz, uncle of the bridegroom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white slipper satin dress made by her mother. It was fashioned with a Bertha collar, lace yoke, full skirt, and a train. A tarr of orange blossoms held her fingertip illusion veil. She carried deep purple orchids on a white prayer book.

Faye Cantrall, maid of honor for her sister, wore a peach taffeta gown, and carried a fan-shaped nosegay of white asters with streamers of peach ribbon.

The bridesmaids, Misses Thelma and Ann Scholz, sisters of the bridegroom, wore blue taffeta. Their fan-shaped nosegays were also of white asters with streamers of blue ribbon.

Sharon Heinrich, the flower girl, was dressed in peach taffeta and carried a basket of white asters. Donald Winkler, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Robert Scholz was best man for his brother. The ushers were Victor Wendie and Lowell Hallauer.

At the reception in the church parlor, white and shell pink asters decorated the table. Mrs. Alvin Schultz and Mrs. Lloyd Braithwait poured, and Mrs. A. W. Warnick cut the cake. They were assisted by Mrs. Levi Crowthers. Gifts and guest book were in the charge of Mrs. Willie Stark, and Misses Myrna Hood, Helen Lazuek, and Ruth Scholz.

The bride's mother wore a blue dress with gray accessories for the ceremony. The bridegroom's mother chose a black dress with black and pink accessories. Their corsages were orchids.

For her going-away ensemble, the bride wore a wine suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Scholz will make their home at 823 E. Baseline after September 1.

Among the many out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Joseph Ziegler, Joey and Michael, Mrs. Ivan Robinson, all of Halsey; Miss Leila Adelung, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John Meyers, Raymond Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Scholz and Joanne, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Larsen of Gresham; Mr. and Mrs. John Rehwal and daughter Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rehwal and Bette Jo, all of Eden, Ida.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rehwal and children, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schultz and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cole, all of Sherwood; Mrs. Frank Stamp of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoglund, Mr. and Mrs. Art Pedersen of Sheridan.

Neighbors Celebrate Mrs. Collins' Birthday

Twenty-two neighbors and friends called at the home of Mrs. Blanche Collins August 9 to celebrate her birthday anniversary. Out of town guests included Mrs. Edna Berry and two children, Mrs. Miriam Walker, Miss Dixie Lee Crawford, Mrs. Mary Peters, all of Portland; Mrs. M. Loomer, Mrs. Bessie Reed, and Michael Sulter, all of Aloha. After a lunch was served, Mrs. Collins opened her gifts.

Miss Vandehey, Robert Rauscher Marry Saturday

St. Anthony's church in Forest Grove was the scene of the wedding Saturday morning of Miss Barbara Frances Vandehey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Vandehey of St. Paul, and Robert J. Rauscher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rauscher of Sutton, Neb. Rev. Daniel K. O'Connell officiated at the ceremony.

Mrs. James Benoit was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Ray Fisher.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white taffeta princess style gown fashioned with a long train. Her fingertip veil was held by a Mary Stuart headpiece. She carried a bouquet of gladioli and sweet peas with satin streamers.

The bride's sister, Miss Thelma Vandehey of St. Paul, was her only attendant. She wore a pink taffeta gown with a matching Mary Stuart headpiece. Her bouquet of dahlias and sweetpeas was tied with a pink satin ribbon.

Alvin Van Dyke of Forest Grove was best man. The ushers were Robert Rauscher of Forest Grove and Eugene Jacobs of Portland.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in the afternoon. Miss Maxine Vandehey of Cornelius poured, and Mrs. Morris Holberman cut the cake. They were assisted by Miss Ethel Van Dyke of St. Paul and Miss Betty Van Dyke of Gaston. Miss Shirley Vandehey, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

For the honeymoon trip to the Oregon beaches, the bride wore a gray suit trimmed with black velvet. Her accessories were of black and white. They will make their home near Gaston.
