Field Work Given Pacific Students

Practical work mixed with formal textbook studies is the ideal combination for learning, and Pacific university is making use of this principle by setting up a work program for students this fall, cooperating with merchants of Washington county communities. Prospective businessmen and professional men at the university put aside their books for a few hours a week, roll up their sleeves, and learn how things are done on the "outside."

The Argus was host to a journalism student Tuesday, Hans Ranning, for his first five-hour session of laboratory work, and he is scheduled for two more return visits once each week. Tony Pranger of Hillsboro, editor of the university's student publication, "Index," will visit the Argus beginning October 25. Bill O'Connell was in the hospital a short time with a broken jaw resulting from a tooth problem.

Men Bag Deer
Bob Wenzel got a 3-point 200-lb. deer over on Wilson river Saturday. Darrell Walker and Wayne Smith also in the group got 3-point deers, but the other two men, Dewey Johnson and Bud Smith were unsuccessful.

Walter Langue and his father Chris Langue went hunting near Jordan creek Saturday. They were unable to get any deer but brought home two small bears.

Young people from the First Baptist church of Hillsboro met at the Johnson home for a hymn sing, prayer and fellowship. The B. Y. advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Brownlee, attended.

Mrs. Henry Cypher spent the larger part of the week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dale James.

A pink and blue shower was held at the home of the Cecil Reufs in Portland for their son, George Henry, Mrs. J. R. Sandford, Mrs. Ann Dornand and Mrs. Otto Hartramp, were hostesses and 15 people were present. Mrs. Reuf is Mrs. Sandford's daughter.

Mrs. Rosella Mills was hostess for the Past Chiefs club September 29. There were 22 present. Mabel Williams won the traveling basket, and Bernice Mathieson won high scores.

Mrs. Arthur Davis and sons Dick and Pat of Astoria are visiting Mrs. J. R. Sandford while Mr. Davis is in eastern Oregon deer hunting. The senior Christian Endeavor group of the Church of Christ gave a food shower Tuesday night for their pastor, Ronald McCracken. The group was divided in half and each wrote a newspaper of the other half. About 20 were present, and refreshments was served.
