

Doris Saunders, Robert Thornton Wed in Sherwood

Miss Doris Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Saunders of Sherwood, was married September 27 to Robert H. Thornton, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Thornton of Wilsonville, at St. Francis Catholic church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle with white edging of white tulle and a full train. She wore an elaborate veil which fell from a crown of white pearls and carried a white prayer book and an orchid with ribbon streamers.

The brides only attendant was Miss Margaret Thornton, sister of the bridegroom. She wore a gown of light green tulle.

Paul McKee of Oregon city was best man. The ushers were Hal Lawrence and Lewis Thornton, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Bushman played the wedding march and accompanied the bride, sung by Hal Lawrence and Mrs. Crawford.

The bride's mother was dressed in green with black accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of Kelly green with black accessories. Her corsage was also of pink carnations.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Kiwanis hall with a wedding breakfast served by the bride's mother. Miss Mona Saunders, sister of the bride, served the wedding cake which was three-tiered and decorated with a dome and yellow roses. Assistants at the table were Mrs. Earl Berglund pouring coffee and Mrs. Frank Crawford, sister of the bride, serving punch. Mrs. Barbara Saunders, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The brides going away outfit was a dress of red wool with brown accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Thornton are now at home in Oregon City.

Catholic church for the wedding, were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gibson and Bill Gibson, all of Albany, Cal. and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Leady of Albany.

The Columbia district of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs will hold its fall meeting October 7, in the Journal building, from 1:30 to 11:45 a.m. and from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. All Garden club members are invited to attend. Guest speakers include Dean Collins and Mrs. Ralph Fowler, state garden club federation president.

First Baptist Church Plans Children's Hours

Four "Twilight Hours" sponsored by the Child for Christ crusade will be held during October at the First Baptist church, corner of Second and Lincoln streets. The program will be held from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. October 9, 16, 23, and 30.

Included in the program will be singing, stories with colored slides and dolls by children, and prizes.

According to Rev. John Schiering, "The only change is good behavior." He urges parents and friends to cooperate in providing transportation for children of the district.

Library Displays Five Art Periods

Five periods of art are now on display at the Hillsboro public library with a pamphlet describing them.

The three from the European twelfth century are "Melchior" by Pablo Picasso, "Odalisque" by Henri Matisse, and "Blue Oak" by Andre Derain.

French paintings from the last quarter of the nineteenth century are "The Sea Shore" by Auguste Renoir, "Tahitian Woman" by Paul Gauguin, "Drawbridge" by Vincent Van Gogh, and "Blue Horse" by Frantz Marc.

Examples of the realism and impressionism of the third quarter of the nineteenth century are "Third Class Carriage" by Honoré Daubigny, "Dancers" by Edgar Degas, "After the Hunt" by Gustave Courbet, and "Scene Near Arles" by Claude Monet.

Four pictures represent the Impressionism period. They are "The Boat" by J.M.W. Turner, "The Rain" by J.M.W. Turner, "The Rain" by J.M.W. Turner, and "The Rain" by J.M.W. Turner.

Those of the Flemish and Dutch period are "Bohemian Girl" by Frans Hals, "Young Woman with a Water Jug" by Jan Vermeer, and "Fox and Wolf Hunt" by Peter Paul Rubens.

The public is invited to see the paintings while they are on exhibit.

Miss Weil Announces Engagement in Seattle

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Dorothy Karen Weil, daughter of Mrs. Morris Weil and the late Morris Weil, to Lawrence Urbach, was made last week at the Phi Sigma Sigma sorority house in Seattle.

Mr. Urbach is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Urbach of Seward, Alaska.

Both Miss Weil and Mr. Urbach are seniors at the University of Washington. Mr. Urbach is a member of Zeta Beta Tau fraternity. No date has been set for the wedding.

PTA Adds Evening For Square Dancing

Another night of square dancing has been added to the Hillsboro elementary PTA recreational program. Square dancing will now be offered on the last Wednesday and second Thursday of each month according to Miss Frances Mohr.

The great response to the square dancing class has led to the adding of the class. Adult couples are invited to attend, but they must wear rubber-soled shoes. Classes are held from 8 to 10 p.m. in the B. W. Barnes gymnasium.

The PTA also sponsors volleyball for adult recreation on first, second and third Wednesdays of each month in the B. W. Barnes gymnasium. Plans are being made for basketball later in the year.

Mrs. Hadley Vacations In California, Nevada

Mrs. Vera Hadley returned last Thursday from a trip to California and Nevada. She visited relatives in Sacramento and Auburn and took a scenic drive from Auburn through the Sierras mountains to Virginia City, the location of the old Comstock Lode. Among the buildings she saw were the Piper's opera house in Virginia City and the Bower's mansion between Reno and Carson City. The mansion, which was built from profits of a mining claim, reportedly had gold and silver door knobs. Other places she visited were Carson City, Reno, Lake Tahoe, and Placerville, where gold was first discovered in California.

OSC Mothers Meet During Registration

Mothers of past, present or future Oregon State students are invited to a meeting at 11 a.m. (Thursday) at the Neighborhood of Woodcraft building, S. W. 14th and Morrison street in Portland. Dr. George Peavy will be the speaker. The program will be followed by a tea.

District President Installs Officers

Tigard and Tualatin Valley Legion and Auxiliaries held installation of officers jointly Sept. 28 at Metzger community hall, beginning with a pot-luck dinner. Mrs. Maybelle McCoy, president of district 1, installed the officers, assisted by Sherwood past president, Mrs. Helen Dooley.

On Thursday night Mrs. McCoy installed the officers of Cannon Beach Auxiliary, with Mrs. Pat Jackson acting as sergeant-at-arms. Mrs. LaFaye Jensen was installed as unit president. Other Hillsboro members attending were Mrs. Irene Burt, Mrs. Maude Stannard and Mrs. Lucetta Hunt.

Enter Dental College—John Hual and Bob Bristol have entered the University of Oregon Dental college in Portland, and took up their studies this week.

Pacific Tests Eyes During Registration

For the first time in any university, all students at Pacific were required to have a registration vision test this fall.

Dr. Richard Feinberg, dean of the college of optometry, said a statistical study will be made using the results of these tests and grade point averages of the students. In this manner a correlation will be established between visual performance and scholastic achievement.

Students who need further professional attention will be referred to their own doctors or to the optometry clinic at Pacific.

This testing program consisted of a battery of visual skills tests including visual acuity for both distance and near, visual posture of "muscle balance," color perception, depth perception, and the span of recognition or speed with which the student could see.

Foursquare Church To Note Founding

Founder's Day will be observed Sunday in the Hillsboro Foursquare church. Musical numbers written by Annie Temple McPherson, founder of the Foursquare organization, will be included in the program.

In the 7:45 p.m. service, a recorded sermon by Mrs. McPherson will be played and pictures shown of Angelus temple in Los Angeles.

Leaders' Meeting Set for Thursday

Hillsboro leaders of Camp Fire groups will meet at 7:30 p.m. (Thursday) at the Camp Fire office in the basement of the library, according to Miss Blanche Britton, chairman.

The new leaders in the Hillsboro district will be welcomed and a training discussion period has been planned for them. The leaders will be divided into Blue Bird and Camp Fire groups.

Plans will be made at the meeting for leaders both new and experienced to attend the national conference in Portland October 29 and 30. These two days of the week-long conference are being devoted to workshop sessions for leaders and the Hillsboro council has held luncheon and food sales to help defray the expenses of the conference.

No formal county-wide training courses have been held this fall because of the national training course of this opportunity for leadership in Portland.

Move from Portland—Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mahoney have moved from Portland to route 2, Hillsboro, with her brother, Lee Knipe, who is ill. They plan to make their home here and he is seeking office or accounting employment.

Visit in South Dakota—Mr. and Mrs. Phil Wortman left the first of the week for Gettysburg, S. D., their home town. They will visit with her relatives there and his mother at Watertown. While there he expects to do some pheasant hunting.

Blooming Juniors to Meet—Blossoming Farmers Union Juniors meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the home of Grace and Dorothy Koehnke, south of Cornelius.
