

Road Repair Goal Set by Women; West Slope Businesses Open

By Mrs. W. A. Bunnell

WEST SLOPE.—A delegation of five cars of women from Sunset road and its vicinity made a trip to Hillsboro Friday to petition the court to repair Sunset road, which is in a bad condition on account of the last winter's freeze and the wear of county and other trucks. The women have circulated two petitions on the matter and decided to take up the question in person.

Farmerettes to Meet

Mrs. Marshall Yeager is to be hostess to members of the Fir Grove Farmerettes at her home on Thursday evening when matters of interest to the club will be taken up.

Shop Opening Today

The opening of a new shop for the sale of ladies' and men's clothing has been announced for today (Thursday) at 1025 Canyon road, across from Haskell Center. The new store will be operated by Kaye Porter and will be known as Porter's Outlet Clothing Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cobb of Birchwood Drive have returned from a visit with relatives in Yakima.

New Officers in Charge

Fall activities of the Westside Mothers' club began with the meeting of the club at the home of Winnie Webster last week. New officers were in charge of the gathering. Dessie Seigner was appointed social secretary, Evelyn Drager, chairman of Fairview Sewing projects, and Louyse Wood, reporter. Suggestions were offered and discussed concerning ways of adding to the club treasury, and a baked food sale was planned for the near future. A report on the recreation program was given by Bobby Abbott in which it was stressed that sales of memberships to adults were necessary to continue the work. Mrs. George March, a new Wendale resident, was a guest.

Firms Hold Open House

The Village Shop on Northwest Canyon road held open house Saturday with the McGeorge Appliances and the Hubble China and Gift shops opened for business. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McGeorge are the proprietors of the former firm and Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hubble, the second.

In New Location

Starkie's Tot Shop is also operating in its new location, two doors east of its former quarters. The store has added several new lines to its stock.

Style Show Held

Gabel Country Day school was the setting for an invitation style show and tea given by the members of the Broadmoor Women's club on Thursday afternoon. Styles for women were furnished by Chaz Sazy Women's shop of West Slope, and those for young girls by Lad and Lass shop of West Slope. Women's clothing were modeled by Mrs. Richard and Mrs. Victor Alvah. Mrs. Charles Paxson, Mrs.

Gordon Reid, Miss Barbara Hemmick and Miss Mary Leiseman and children's clothes by Karin Paxson, Julie Taylor and Sharon Maeller. Business establishments along Canyon road were active last week with the opening of new business and special activities by others.

New Shell Station Opened

Early in the week, the new Shell station next to Terry's Furniture store opened for business. The station was just completed and deals in the usual line of such establishments.

China Lantern Has Opening

On Thursday, the China Lantern, the former Lambert restaurant, held grand opening. The restaurant, which features American and Chinese food, is operated by Mrs. Wilbert Cheung. It offers for the public use the new lounge, a banquet room, main dining room, and also features a meals to take out.

Open House Held

Open house with free gardenia bouquets for women visitors was held by Labbe Flowers on Saturday at the east end of Canyon road, to honor completion of a large extension to the original shop. The extension, which brings the shop much closer to Canyon road, is built of plate glass, set in aluminum and features interior light of white neon.

Onis Anderson and Ray Pfingard returned the last of the week from a hunting trip to Bend and vicinity, bringing back a deer. Anderson left again Monday morning for Scappoose, where he has a 600-acre ranch. He plans to take in duck season. The Andersons and their daughter have also made tentative plans for a trip to Mexico about the middle of December, with complete recovery of Mrs. Anderson's health, following a major operation last month.

Miss Georgine Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Anderson, was honored at a school party on the occasion of her tenth birthday at Gabel school, September 22, with members of her class as guests. Mrs. Anderson provided refreshments and table settings, with a decorated cake baked by George O'Neill, chef of the Bohemian restaurant. The party is one of a series of similar affairs held for Georgine at the school, since beginning classes in kindergarten and several of this year's guests have attended every party since.

Engagement Announced

Announcement was made last week of the engagement of Charles Lorenz, son of Mrs. Fred Mathis of West Slope, and Miss Julie Thorne, of Portland. The wedding will occur sometime next summer. He is employed by an Astoria insurance firm.

Gabel School Meeting Held

Annual meeting of the Gabel school corporation was held at the school Tuesday evening. A dessert supper was held at 7:30 p.m., preceding the business meeting. On October 21, the school will hold the first meeting of the parents' organization for the season. Dinner will be served at 6 o'clock, and following the dinner, the group will hear reports and discuss plans for the coming winter term.

Anniversary Observed

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bunnell were Monday dinner guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Harold Mattson, in honor of their 35th wedding anniversary. Other members of the Mattson family were present for the party. Mrs. Bunnell has been confined to bed for the past three weeks with a foot infection, and this was her first trip away from home since her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Taylor were hosts to a group of friends at their home Friday evening, after which

By Mrs. Ina Sutherland

SCHOLLS.—A new business opened here October 4, known as Robin Hood Products Co., with Tom Lusk and Ross Dyer, proprietors. Located where the Lusk Custom Cannery was, they are cracking and packaging nuts, and will also do custom cracking. Assisting at the plant are Mrs. Lusk, Mrs. Fred Barker and Mrs. Alva Tharp, with others to be added later.

A surprise house-warming party was given Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carlson Sunday at their new home when relatives and friends from a distance came with a pot-luck dinner and presented them with a lace tablecloth. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Irish, Portland, Adrian Jones and Judy Brady, Bend, Betty, Kenneth and Lindy DeTour, Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hawk, Ginger and Randall, Portland, Edna Jones and Glen Irish, Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Russell, Tigard, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Demmon, Diane and David, Hillsboro, Mrs. Iva Diering, Sellwood.

Local People Arrange P. L. Booth

The Washington county booth at Pacific International exposition, which is a replica of an old-time farm-house kitchen, was furnished and arranged by the Scholls Grange. Members contributed furnishings and produce for the exhibit, and the booth was decorated and arranged by John and Harry Schmitzer, Mrs. L. W. Guild, George Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Ina Sutherland. A part of this booth was pictured in four column width on the group danced at the Laurel-hurst club.

Mrs. Victor Daniels was hostess at a luncheon at her home Thursday in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Dale Viar. A number of friends of Mrs. Viar were present. Tentative plans were made for the resumption of the Thursday painting classes that were held at the Viar home last winter. Plans for this year include an enlarged scope of activity, with other features besides painting and indoor classes that were held.

Machell Todd Honored. Little Miss Machell Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Todd, was a guest of honor at a birthday party Tuesday with her mother as hostess. Several other youngsters helped the little girl celebrate her fourth birthday.
