

Folgate Acquires Tournery Crown At Forest Hills

A heavy comeback by Roger Folgate brought him the fall handicap crown of Forest Hills Country club as he downed L. P. Busch, 1 up.

Folgate was three down at the end of the first nine but produced the second nine comeback which was worth the match and the championship.

Folgate opened his campaign for the crown by outting Jim Anderson, defending champion, 2 and 1, in first round play. In the quarter-finals the champion tipped Austin Serraford, 2 and 1, and then brushed aside Jim LeDuc, 5 and 4, in the semi-finals.

Ivy Warnick cupped the first flight championship by edging Andy Vanderzanden, 1 up. Wes Foster won the third flight nod by tipping John Oppenlander, also by a 1 up margin.

DEARBORN STANDARD MANURE AND MATERIAL LOADER

Saves Time, Work, Money

Replace a lot of back-breaking toil... picking and shoveling dirt, loading manure with a hand fork, lifting and carrying heavy objects around the farm... by using a Dearborn Manure and Material Loader on a Ford Tractor. With two slight movements of the Hydraulic Touch Control lever... one to lower, one to lift... you can pick up the load. Then wheel to wherever you want it, pull it, dump it, and there you are... Removable bottom plate converts loader for handling loose material or forking manure.

FFA Boys Speak on KWJJ Radio Program

By Mrs. H. A. Balch

SCOGGINS VALLEY—Before leaving for Kansas City last Friday, Dick Hart was one of two FFA boys to speak over KWJJ on the early morning program, the other was Vernon VanDyke. Both told of their work in the FFA and how they were looking forward to their trip to the national convention.

Hostesses last Friday at a shower for Virginia Valentine of Hillsboro, bride-elect of Jim Michaelis, were Mrs. Ralph Haines and Mrs. Floyd Michaelis at the Art Michaelis home.

Miss Valentine received many beautiful gifts. The hostesses served refreshments.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deatherage at a wedding shower last Saturday night at the Scoggins Valley church were around 100 persons.

Gifts Mrs. Russell Oberg, Mrs. Wally Epperson and Mrs. Tom Montgomery were hostesses. Mr. and Mrs. Deatherage are now living in the new cottage on the Roy Matteson farm, which was just vacated by the Anderson family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tress Balch of Drain, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Balch were called to Hoquiam, Wash., to attend the funeral of their brother, Lyle, who died there.

Another brother, Heway from Port Angeles, Wash. On their return trip Sunday they stopped in Portland to see their sister, Mrs. Kate Morey, who is ill.

Fred Knox is attending the stock show in Portland for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman, and family moved Friday from the Kintz place to upper Scoggins Valley on the place formerly owned by the McIntyre family.

Sharon Kadolph celebrated her seventh birthday October 10 with a few of her little friends as guests.

Leonard Smith has returned to his home in Portland. He underwent an operation about 10 days ago and has been spending the last few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kadolph.

NOTICE: The undersigned administrator of the estate of JOHN BILL, deceased, has filed his final account in the County Court of the State of Oregon, in the County of Clatsop, and said Court has appointed November 12, 1949, at ten o'clock a. m. as the time and place for the hearing of objections thereto and for the settlement thereof.

Garden Club to Meet Tomorrow

By C. E. Barker

ALOHA—Happy Gardeners club of Aloha will meet Friday at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nellie Reekers. Bring an article to be sold and plans for bird feeders.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Watson and daughter, Patricia, of N. Vista avenue, returned September 26 from a nine-days' trip to San Francisco and other points in California, going by auto. Going, they stopped off at Eugene, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Watson, with whom Patricia stayed until her parents stopped on their way back.

Reuben Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Sullivan, of N. Vista avenue and Johnson street, who has been connected with the Washington county forestry service, has returned to Oregon State college at Corvallis to resume his course in forestry in his junior year.

Melvin Wright, N. Vista avenue, and a newcomer from Iowa, from his first garden in Oregon showed a squash weighing 36 pounds and a cabbage weighing nine pounds.

The first meeting of the season of the Friendly Neighbors club was held last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Wilson on N. Vista avenue. The object of the club is indicated by its name. There are 25 members.

Ross Renamed President—Lyman Ross of Aloha was re-elected president of the Laurel-Scholls local of the Farmers' Union, at the regular monthly meeting in Laurel hall October 6.

Sons Surprise Parents—Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Ross enjoyed a surprise visit from their son Jack last week. Jack is now stationed at the Marine air base, El Toro, Cal. He flew up with the Marine football team to Seattle and stopped off on the way back to visit his parents. He is a graduate of Beaverton high school.

On the day following Jack's visit, the Ross' elder son, Major Edward L. Ross, sprang surprise No. 2 by stopping off for a few hours visit on his way from junior officers' training school to enter the University of Washington at Seattle. Many former Hilhi students will remember Ned Ross, who at one time was student body president at Hilhi.

Engagement Revealed—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reekers, on Hunter avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Myrna, to Robert Long of Beaverton. No date is set for the wedding. Both young people are members of the Aloha Community Baptist church choir.

Ellis Nylund, Hunter avenue, achieved the feat of bringing down what is believed to be the largest deer taken from the Tillamook burn so far this season. It was a 6-pointer, weighing 183 pounds dressed.

All Saints school, Portland, met signal defeat before superior team work of St. Mary's Home eleven last Saturday here, 12-2. James Forcier of the victors, intercepted a pass and ran 70 yards for a touchdown. George E. Mann found a fence, he gave George enough rails to build a fence around two sides of his place on E. Shak street. Though the rails are 50 years old, the fence adds a charm to the home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smyser, Alexander street, departed last Saturday for Missouri for a visit to his mother and brother-in-law.

As revealed by the pictures, these colorful folk dancers that are becoming popular, must be a hopperful of fun.

Oregon has the largest furniture factory west of Chicago; the oldest protestant church west of the Rocky mountains; the deepest lake in the world; the only volcano in the world within the limits of a large city; the only major city in the world with a woman mayor; the largest sea lion cave in the world; the only navigable lake in the world owned by the home owners. Governor Withycome was wont to on its banks, and undoubtedly has said, "Friends, Oregon is a great the biggest ocean in the world. As state."
