

Joan Story Weds Howard Chapman In Home Rites

Miss Joan Barton Story and Howard Duane Chapman were married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. MacLeod, Sunday afternoon by Judge R. Frank Peters. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Chapman of route 4.

The bride wore a princess style white satin gown with Belgian point lace inserts and fashioned with a full train. Her full-length veil of net and lace fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses and bouvardia with white satin streamers with orange blossoms.

Mrs. Donald Stannard of Forest was matron of honor. She wore a shell pink satin gown with a nosegay of pink roses edged with tulle.

Charles Straghan of Farmington was best man. White gardenias and bouvardia decorated the table for the reception which followed. Mrs. Marvin Layton of Aloha poured, and Miss Jean Layton of Hamlet cut the wedding cake.

The bride's mother wore a rose tulle dress with gold accessories, and the bridegroom's mother chose a black dress with green accessories.

When leaving for the honeymoon trip to southern Oregon beaches, the bride wore a brown and beige suit with green accessories. After October 17 they will be at home in The Dalles. The bride attended high school in Gouverneur, N. Y., and Holland

Miss Fisher Wed To Joseph Stone In Portland Rites

Miss Jane Carol Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Boyd Fuller of Portland, became the bride of Joseph M. Stone September 22 at the Central Seventh Day Adventist church in Portland. Mr. Stone is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stone of route 2, Gaston.

Elder R. D. Draxson, head of the department of Biblical language at Walla Walla college, performed the ceremony in a setting of pink and white zinnias and asters.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ivory satin gown with long sleeves and court train. Victorian brocade lace trimmed the square yoke. A Juliet cap of matching lace held her fingertip veil trimmed in the same lace. She carried pink Ribesum lilies with pink rosebuds and white bouvardia.

Miss Lois Schaffer of Portland was maid of honor wearing a green tulle gown trimmed with lace. Her nosegay was of pale pink chrysanthemums.

The bride-smaid, Miss Maxine Darling of Salem, wore a gown matching the maid of honor's and carried deep rose chrysanthemums. Janet Staley, the flower girl, wore an ivory satin gown and carried a nosegay of pink and white roses and carnations.

Millard Wisby of Gaston was best man. The groomsmen was Donovan Reier, Edward Gray of Portland and Jack Wray of Tillamook. Refreshments were served by the Washington county local leaders.
