

BPW Club Observes National Week

Hillsboro Business and Professional Women's club started its observance of National Business Women's Week by attending the morning service at Bethany Presbyterian church, where Rev. H. Dickman gave an inspirational sermon and a 25-minute radio special. Mrs. Jean Zylstra was general. Lovely bouquets of fall flowers decorated the church.

In the afternoon, a group of members attended the tea given by the Hillsboro BPW club at the home of Mrs. Mary Deane. The Hillsboro club scheduled three events for the day, attending the Portland club breakfast going to the Methodist church morning service and tea in the afternoon.

The local club held its business meeting Wednesday night in the chamber of commerce, with Mrs. Jean Loring speaking on the book, mobile and county library.

Governor McKay endorses the week in this message:

"Integrating character into our mind as I begin to prepare this message of congratulations to the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. I am reminded that 51 per cent of the nation's registered voters are women. It is a privilege to observe their progressive role of accomplishment in community, city, county, state and national levels of responsibility. I am happy therefore to endorse the week in honor of National Business Women's Week, October 9-15.

Douglas McKay
Governor of Oregon

Public Affairs Bureau will be held on the regular BPW meeting date, October 21, at the chamber of commerce, when members will have a group of their employees and employees. Wayne Stevens of Stevens-Lane Publishing Co. will be the speaker. He has only this month returned from an extensive two-day tour in connection with his publishing activities and has an interesting and informative talk on present day "trends" in our national circles.

Dances will be at 8:45 p.m. in the chamber of commerce during week.

Ex-Resident Returns

Mrs. and Mrs. John F. Hayes of Boston, Mass., were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Art Miltzberger a few days last week. Mr. Hayes was a resident of Hillsboro about 25 years ago and lived northwest of town. He had for many years been greatly changed since he left and that he hardly knew his old home town. He said he found the town greatly changed since he left and that he hardly knew his old home town. He said he found the town greatly changed since he left and that he hardly knew his old home town.

Baptist Church Holds Children's Services

"Twilight Hour" the first in a series of services for children, began Sunday night at the First Baptist church. The series will continue for three more Sundays at 6:30 p.m. Dances open at 8 p.m. so that those coming early may have a chance to sit in the lucky seat in one of the first rows. A prize is awarded each night to the occupant of the lucky seat.

Prizes are also awarded for bringing the most new boys and girls for regular attendance and for memorization. A contest is in progress between boys and girls to see which has the greater attendance.

Stories are illustrated on the service. In the Drama and Gavel section will present a special number at the service Sunday evening.

Those attending who have not received tickets may get them before the service starts. Tickets are handled at 6:30 p.m. each Sunday. Parents are invited to come with the family and sit in on the service.

National AAUW Head To Broadcast Tuesday

Local branch of the American Association of University Women received word this week that Dr. Althea K. Hotel, national president of AAUW, will appear on the Tuesday evening broadcast of Town Meeting.

European Trip Related to Guild

Ray Talbert, science instructor at Hillsboro Union high school described his three-months tour of Europe at the All Saint's Guild meeting October 3. He showed colored pictures of the countries he and his wife visited during the summer. They included Wales, Ireland, Scotland, England, France and Switzerland.

Johnson Family Tours California

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Johnson and their children, Virginia and Donna, returned home Sunday after an 11-day trip to California and Mexico. They were accompanied by Mrs. H. R. Johnson of Beaverton, Mr. Johnson's mother.

They went as far south as Tijuana, Mexico, during their trip. On the way down they passed at Santa Dam and watched rice harvested at Willows. Because the ground is so spongy from constant flooding of the fields harvesting is done with wide-tread caterpillar wheels. Mrs. Johnson, at Beaverton, they also saw cotton picked.

Among the points visited in Los Angeles were Forest Lawn cemetery, Warner Brothers studio, Griffith Park zoo, and the Hayden planetarium.

In San Francisco they saw Fleishenger zoo, the Golden Gate park and Japanese tea gardens. In Mountview, they went through the Pacific Press, a book publishing concern. Near Santa Cruz they watched the harvesting of artichokes.

During their trip they photographed many of the spots with movie film. Their return route was along the coast through Redwood City where they were rejoined by Mrs. H. R. Johnson.

Garden Club Holds Annual Bulb Sale

Hillsboro Garden club held its annual bulb sale at the meeting held Monday in the parish hall. Mrs. Wilma Merrill, president, reported on plans of the Oregon Garden clubs to begin publishing a garden club magazine. She also delivered an invitation from the Portland Chrysanthemum society to attend their 11th annual show at the Masonic temple, November 5 and 6. An invitation from the Forest Grove and Beaverton Garden clubs to meet with them for a luncheon at the Forest Hills Country club November 28 was accepted. State officers will be entertained at the luncheon.

First Birthday Noted

A party celebrating the first birthday of Christine Eagon was given by her mother, Mrs. Donald Eagon, at the home of Mrs. Ray Casey Sunday. Those present were Mrs. Ray Casey, Mary, Michael and Sharon; Mrs. Virgil Hatfield, Steven and Colleen; Mrs. Harold Casey, Eleanor and Billy; Mrs. Ed Hatfield, Susanne and Patricia; Mrs. Scott Chandler, Mark, David, and Janet; West Slope, Mrs. Al Kurt, Tommy and Mary Ann, of McMinnville; and the honor guest's two grandmothers, Mrs. Beatrice Hatfield and Mrs. Frank Eagon.
