

Miss Walton Wed To John W. Jones On Thanksgiving

A white and yellow chrysanthemum decorated the First Methodist church in Newberg, Thanksgiving evening for the wedding of Miss Amelia Katherine Walton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Walton, and John W. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones of Chehalis Mountain. Dr. J. D. McCormick read the service by candle light.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Emerson Walton, wore the traditional white slipper satin gown with a French illusion finger tip veil. She carried a white prayer book centered by a single orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Margie Unficht, wore a pink gown. Bridesmaids were Miss Maxine Thrope in a blue gown and Miss Genevieve Miller dressed in a yellow gown. Her attendants carried colonial bouquets and wore matching head dresses. Candle lighters were Miss Mary Hanson and Miss Thelma Bakken.

Robert Thrope was best man. Ushers were Dale Ottenbaker and Eugene Rives.

Misses Galtie Ryles, Carolyn Colcord, and Gwen Forkner sang "Because" preceding the ceremony, accompanied by Miss Margie Puckett. Mrs. Grace Francis was at the electric organ. Dr. Homer Hester, uncle of the bridegroom, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Amos Walton, mother of the bride, wore an orchid print dress with a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Wayne Jones, mother of the bridegroom, wore an aqua frock with a gardenia corsage.

At the reception in the church parlors Mrs. Virginia Faust, sister of the bride, cut the wedding cake assisted by another sister, Mrs. Hazel Turpin, and by Mrs. Emerson Walton, sister-in-law of the bride. Priscilla Bakken was in charge of the guest book.

Also assisting in the serving and in the display of gifts were Miss Arlie Eide and Miss June Hynes. There were over 200 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones plan to make their home at Melanah where the bridegroom is employed.

Trinity PTO Plans Children's Paper

Parent-Teacher organization of Trinity Lutheran church met Sunday afternoon with 150 attending. They voted to sponsor a Sunday school paper with Miss Mary Koch and Mrs. Kenneth Peterson in charge.

Grades four to eight and their teachers were guests of honor at the fellowship luncheon. After a message from PTO President Louis Heinrichs, the guests presented a program announced by Diederich Sahn.

Piano selections were played by Ann Elizabeth Stevers, Derold Meyer, Diederich Sahn, and Mary Schmeling. Billy Schmeling sang a solo. George Putnam read "The Friend" and Ethan Voges delivered the 23rd Psalm. The group sang "Oh, Come All Ye Faithful."

Grades four to eight, which are the junior mission club, filled three stockings with candy to send to an adoptive family in Germany for distribution in their neighborhood. Their goal had been to fill one stocking.

Mrs. Harold Meyer and Mrs. Louis Heinrichs took charge of the primary classes and Mrs. Syver Hurd led the junior mission group.

Edgar MacBarger showed a movie during the afternoon while parents and teachers discussed church etiquette led by Mr. Heinrichs. Mrs. Gordon Soderholm read a paper on the same topic.

Mr. and Mrs. Monrad Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Voges were in charge of the luncheon. Others assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sahn, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Furby, Mr. and Mrs. B. Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Blumke, Mrs. Otto Voges, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hamman, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Holly, and Mr. and Mrs. O. Leinen. They are class parents of the homestead group.

Dorothy Brown Becomes Bride Of David Wiley

Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William James Brown of Chemainus, B. C., became the bride of David Chalmers Wiley November 19 at St. Michaels and All Angels Episcopal church in Portland. Rev. George Turner officiated in the afternoon ceremony. Mr. Wiley is the son of Dr. and Mrs. David Edwin Wiley of Hillsboro.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dull gold satin dress with a white and pink accessories and a brown orchid corsage.

Miss Edith Brown of Chemainus, the bride's sister, wore an American beauty dress with winter white accessories. Her corsage was of white chrysanthemums.

John M. Wiley of Portland was best man.

At the reception in Portland, Mrs. M. Macmillan, aunt of the bride, and Miss Ann Chalmers, aunt of the bridegroom, poured the bride and groom. They were assisted by Mrs. John M. Wiley and Miss Clara Wiley.

The bride chose a gray and taupe brown two-piece dress and taupe coat for her going-away ensemble. Following a trip to the Oregon beaches, they will be at home in Portland.

The bride is a graduate of Royal Jubilee hospital in Victoria, Canada. Mr. Wiley is a member of Theta Kappa Psi medical fraternity at the University of Oregon medical school.

Scholls Women To Give Bazaar

Bazaar and cooked food sale sponsored by the Scholls Senior and Junior Women's clubs will be held at the Granger Consolidated school Friday.

The sale will include a boys' quartet, led by Melvin Wells, drum majorettes from Beaverton high school, choral numbers by students of Granger school, under the direction of Mrs. Onelia Deodier. Dance numbers by students of Anita Penrose, Beaverton, and community singing.

Proceeds of the bazaar and sale will go toward purchase of cafeteria equipment for the new school. The sale is invited and no admission will be charged. Refreshments will be served.

Furnishing the cafeteria is the major project of the two clubs for the year. It is their entry in the "Build a Better Community" contest sponsored by the General Federation of Women's clubs.

Mrs. Thomas Lusk and Mrs. William Jackson are in charge of the bazaar. The food sale is under Mrs. Evelyn Goodell and Mrs. Milburn Ziegler. Mrs. W. A. Prier and Mrs. Jess Snyder Jr. are co-chairmen of the refreshment committee.
