Last Rites Held For W. Williams

Funeral services for William Ed. Williams, Beaverton, were held Friday in Finley's morning light chapel, Portland. Last rites were under the auspices of Mt. Tabor lodge No. 42 AF&AM. Williams died December 29.

His wife, Edna, survives the Beaverton man. He was the brother of George Williams, Mrs. Cora Holmes, and L. O. Warren.

Commitment was at Riverview cemetery.

County Resident Since 1909 Dies

Mrs. Fannie Oliva Davis, a Washington county resident since 1909, died at the age of 76 December 14. Funeral services were December 17 with burial at Forest View cemetery.

Mrs. Davis traveled at the age of five by covered wagon from her birthplace, Arkansas, to Texas. She and her husband, Edward, moved to Forest Grove in 1909. Ten years later they moved to Thatcher where they developed nut orchards.

Surviving Mrs. Davis are five children: Mrs. R. W. VanValin, Newberg; Claude I. Davis, The Dalles; Albert L. Davis, South Bend, Wash.; Beverly Davis and Mrs. Betty D. Moffitt of route 1, Forest Grove. Three brothers and two sisters who survive are: John, Beverly and Malcolm Dickerson, Mrs. Beatrice Hobbs and Mrs. Ella Harrison, all of Texas.

Mrs. Ray Christensen gave a surprise party for Mrs. Hannah Christensen December 21. Rebekah club was invited to share in the surprise home of Mrs. Robert Beale. Miss Kelly, home demonstration agent, presented, "Unifying Home Furnishings."

There were 18 members present when Extension unit met at the home of Mrs. Robert Beale. Miss Kelly, home demonstration agent, presented, "Unifying Home Furnishings."

days, but didn't quite make it. It took him three starts to just get off the ground and when he decided to leave from Medford the control tower decided then wasn't the time. So he waited until noon and gave up. Upon returning he said it didn't make any difference for he had forgotten the present for his Poppa anyhow. This is the sort of thing that makes you want to try getting up on the other side of your bed.

Perhaps it would be the proper time to wish all a Happy New Year and hope you had a wonderful Christmas, and if you don't have your resolutions made as yet you better hurry for the old man with the sickle and white robe is soon to disappear.

Draper-Inners have included Lt. May of Portland, Carl Brandenfeld from St. Helena, Harry Plein from Troutdale, Art Hawser and Maurice Erickson also from Troutdale, and last but not least is Emmett Wheeler from Camas.
