

LOCAL AFFAIRS

FOR OCHOCO AND CROOKED RIVER. A company, consisting of Messrs. Jerry Driggs, Wm. Driggs, A. Gregg, George Patterson, Abe Miller, J. Linsey Hill, and one or two others, have made arrangements to start for Ochoco and the headwaters of Crooked river, early next week.

PLEASURE SEEKING.—Our citizens are already talking of forming parties to visit various points of interest in easy reach of this city during the coming "heated term."

ANOTHER INVENTION.—The model of a newly invented rotary engine, made entirely of steel, in complete working order, was forwarded to Washington on Wednesday last, with the application for a patent, through Messrs. Russell & Elkins, of this city.

RED WAGON.—A brand new two-story red wagon drove into town Thursday morning. It was a handsome vehicle, and, as was patent to all the world, contained bottles of "Dr. J. W. Murray's Improved Magic Oil," "Lung and Liver Balm," etc.

EDITORIAL CHANGE.—Last week's Democrat contained the announcement that H. M. Abbott had vacated the editorial chair of that paper.

HOTELING.—From the Oregonian we learn that Messrs. Sewall & Sprenger, of the Cosmopolitan, have associated themselves with Major Cook, and bought the furniture of the Western Hotel of Portland.

SERVICES AT THE COURT HOUSE.—Rev. I. D. Driver, agent of the American Bible Society, will deliver a discourse at the Court House in this city to-morrow at 11 o'clock A. M.

NEW RECORDER.—The City Council has elected Mart. V. Brown, Esq., City Recorder, vice L. W. Doolittle, resigned.

MEETING MONDAY NIGHT.—Handbills were issued calling a meeting at the Court House on Monday night for the purpose of "taking the sense" of our people on the subject of a public celebration on the coming 4th of July.

MEETING MONDAY NIGHT.—Handbills were issued calling a meeting at the Court House on Monday night for the purpose of "taking the sense" of our people on the subject of a public celebration on the coming 4th of July.

PERSONAL.—Judge Baber arrived in our city the first of the week. At present he is in Portland, but will return in a few days to take up his residence again among us.

Mr. Ed. Turk left this city on Tuesday, bound for Canyon City, where he proposes to remain some six months.

STRAWBERRIES.—Mr. John A. Millard presented us with some specimens of this delicious fruit raised by him, which for size and flavor, were hard to excel.

MARKETS.—Our market has been well supplied for a week or two past with garden "truck," and the present week with gooseberries, cherries, wild strawberries, etc.

FOR JOHN DAY.—On Tuesday Henry Dash started over the mountains for Canyon City with a band of one hundred head of cattle.

PAINTING.—A thorough-brace wagon standing in front of Mr. Knight's paint shop on First street, attracted our attention the other day, from the neat manner in which the painting had been executed.

DRILL.—The fire company had their engine out on Thursday night for the purpose of drill. The trial was satisfactory, and everybody was there to see the engine work.

LEGAL.—By an advertisement elsewhere it will be seen that J. P. Schooling has been appointed administrator of the estate of John A. Sims, deceased, to whom all claims against the estate should be presented.

RIVER.—The Willamette is gradually losing volume, and navigation will soon be impracticable for the large boats. The P. T. Company propose to run boats to this point all the ensuing summer if they have to maintain a "sprinkler" on every bar between here and Salem.

CHERRIES.—This fruit has been selling in this market at fifty cents a gallon. It is said the yield will not be so large as last season.

SPRING RACES.—Commence on Thursday of the coming week, and will continue three days. An interesting time is expected.
