GOOD TIME .- Last evening, after the programme for the day had been gone through with at the Fair, "Captain Sligart," a fine large stallion, was put upon the track, and trotted a quarter of a mile to sulky, just to show what he could do. He made the quarter in 46‡ seconds

OSAGE ORANGE .- We saw on et h bition in the Pavilion "Gsage Oranges," which were quite a curiosity to a good many. These specimens were from Lane county, and were taken from a hedge on Eugene City. Mr. Holt has about one mile of this hedge on his farm, and speaks highly of it as a preventive against the incursion of stock, hogs, etc. He says that it grows with great rapidity with scarcely any care or attention, and to introduce these hedges, both as a matter of economy, and to lend additional at- heaven. tractions to their homes.
