LOCAL AFFAIRS

PREMIUMS .- We publish to-day the list of premiums awarded at the late Linu County Fair.

BULLY BOY .- P. C. Harper, & Co. are paying thirty-seven and a half cents for fresh eggs. Of course, farmers will go where they can get the biggest price. NO. 6-GRADED CATTLE, CROSS BREEDS.

Wood.-The compositor made us say, in our wood item last week, that good, dry wood was selling at $3 per cord. It should have been, as we wrote, $3 50(a) $4 per cord.

Potatoes .- Wagon loads of potatoes can be obtained in this market at twentyfive cents per bushel. Apples can be bought for two and three bits per bushel.

FULL TIME.—The flouring mill at stantly engaged in hauling wheat to, and flour from, the same.

EGG TRADE .- At the Cash Store of L. Cheadle, Esq., thirty-three cents can be obtained for fresh eggs. Bring 'em right along. BROWNSVILLE. - A correspondent says: A new house is being erected in Brownsville, and there will be more " when the factory starts." CORRESPONDENTS .- We are favored in the way of correspondence this week. A good commencement has been made, and we hope it will be kept up. We are duly thankful, ladies and gentlemen.

NEW LINE .- It is said that a party of surveyors are running a new line for the O. C. R. R. near this city. We have been unable to obtain particulars.

gentlemanly stove dealer, presented us mond & Son, of Middlebury, Vermont, and that with a neat dipper, manufactured especially for use in the REGISTER office. was badly needed, as we had been drinking at the " trough " for some time.

Court.-His Honor, Judge Boise, has won golden opinions from the way he has dispatched business during the week. Although the docket has been an unusu- year, first premium. ally full one, it is thought it will be cleared and the court adjourned this DOUBLE SERVICE .- The citizens of Brownsville have made arrangements to double the service on the mail route from that place to Salem. Mails now leave Salem for Brownsville on Tuesday and Saturday mornings; and returning, leave Brownsville on Sundays and Thurs-

THAT BALL.-That "finish" on top of the cupola of the Court House "fills the bill," and adds greatly to the look of completeness of the building. The articles were manufactured by Messrs. O. P. Tompkins & Co., of this city, and the workmanship does them credit.

Bro An .- Attention is called to Messers. P. C. Harper & Co.'s new advertisement this morning. It is lengthy, but it takes immense space to give a tithe of the extensive stock of goods on their counters and shelves. The quality of goods sold, the low price asked, and the blood beats, second premium; turnip bests, first obliging and gentlemanly character of premium; squashes, first premium. the firm, is bringing a rush of custom that taxes their utmost exertions to satisfy. Read their ad. and go and see the Low PRICES .- Everything in the dry coods line, at low figures, can be had at A. Cowan & Co.'s. Their stock of iron, teel, and general hardware, is unexcelied; and in the way of boots, shoes, hats, caps, carpets, wall-paper, etc., etc., they offer a "big lay out," at the lowest rates for eash or marketable produce. 'Nuff

PATENT METALIC WHITE WIRE CLOTHES LINES .- This wire possesses qualities which prevent it from corroding and soiling clothes. Once put up it is not necessary to be taken down, thus saving labor and trouble. It is much cheaper than ope, and will last a life time. Mr. P. T. Block has the agency for the sale of this invention for this State, and is ready to supply all orders. Mr. Block is now canvassing the State for orders. His P. O. address is Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon.

IN ATTENDANCE.—The attendance of legal gentlemen from "furrin parts," at the Linn County Circuit Court during the week, was hardly as large as usual. George Anderson, lot pigeons, first premium; We noticed Hon. F. A. Chenowth and pair rabbits, first premium; lot ducks, first pre-Judge Odeneal, of Corvallis; Judge Willis, of Salem; Jadge Thompson, of Harrisburg; Hon. Ben. Hayden, of Eola; and Hon. J. Q. Thornton, N. H. Cranor, J. C. Powell, E. E. Russell, N. B. Humphrey, J. J. Whitney, Joseph Hannon, and L. Flinn, of Albany.

TRI-WEEKLY MAIL .- We notice that a petition, pretty generally signed by our citizens, has been in circulation during the week, asking that a tri-weekly mail route be established from Eugene City via Harrisburg and Peoria to this city. The establishment of this route will be matter of great convenience to the citizens of the several localities named, and it is hoped that the petition will meet with the earliest attention at headquar-
