LIFE INSURANCE. - Attention is called to "Correspondence" in to-day's issue in relation to the benefits accruing from securing a policy in the New England Life scale, from the skirmishing on the hill. Insurance Company of Boston. There is no way in which a man can more certainly provide for the comfert and 'support of his family in case of his sudden "taking off," than by investing in a policy in the New England. Those who do not fully understand the principle and workings of life insurance, should read the correspondence referred to, and then call on Messrs. Russell & Elkins, agents for the New England in this city, where they can get fully "posted" as well as secure a policy in the Company.

FROM GROCEREE TO GROCERI.-As will be seen by reference to ads. under " New to-day," Mr. M. Pearson is again in charge of the grocery establishment at the corner of First and Broadalbin streets. It is impossible for Pearson to " loaf round;" he has too much energy and vim in him to let time go by without profitable employment. He will always be found in readiness to wait on customers, furnishing them with the best groceries to be had in any market. Go and see him. He is on the trade, ever as ready and willing to buy as to sell, " trade or dicker."

On the 21st of January, 1869, misfortune compelled me to forego the payment of the last premium—which non-payment in any other company would have lost me my policy—but I am now overjoyed with the receipt of the amount of the policy (less the amount of the unpaid premium only), thanks to the equity of the Massachusetts Lapse Laws, that must bless many widows and their children. I recommend the New England Mutual to all who would provide against possible misfortune. I sincerely thank against possible misfortune. I sincerely thank you again, gentlemen, for the payment, and also for your generous and gentlemanly assistance in the matter. Respectfully, BETSEY MILLER.
