PIERCE COUNTY, (W. T.) TRAGEDY.

McDaniel and Gibson, the former a land-jumper and desperado, and the latter an aider and abettor of the former, were shot "all to pieces" by members of a vigilance committee from Muck Prairie, on the 22d of January, at and near Steilacoom. McDaniel had jumped a claim—had been ordered off—a citizen's meeting passed resolutions condemning his conduct—he threatened citizens—citizens formed themselves into a vigilance committee—result as above.

THE WESTERN MONTHLY.

Is located here. This institution was chartered in 1854, and a regular course of study selected in 1860. Though but two students have completed the entire course and yet received diplomas, yet many of our best citizens and most influential men have here completed their educations, and they look upon this institution as their alma mater. Some of these are engaged in teaching, some are filling important offices in this county, and other counties; some are successfully practicing the different professions, and some are engaged in the Christian ministry. As this institution has an endowment fund of about $2,000, the rates of tuition are lower than in any other school of high grade in the State of Oregon. With its low rates of tuition, cheap board, complete philosophical and chemical apparatus, maps, charts, etc., it presents rare facilities to students for acquiring an education. The school never was more prosperous than it is now.

The morals of the community are greatly in favor of this place. Religious services are held here every Sunday, and they are well attended. The Sabbath was not observed more strictly by the Pilgrim Fathers than it is by this community.

Now, sir, putting all these things together, do you not think our future prospects certain?

On the 5th inst., Dr. Odell, with the assistance of the county clerk of Benton, and President W. H. Finley, entered into partnership for life with Miss Mary Biddle, a highly accomplished and very estimable young lady of Covallis. On the return of the happy partners to Lebanon they were serenaded by the "Lebanon Bangaway Band."

The musical instruments consisted of tin horns, pans, bells, etc., ad finem.

The Doctor showed, by giving the band a draft on Mr. Ames' provision store for oysters, etc., that he appreciated the compliment.

By the President : U. S. GRANT.

HAMILTON Fish, Secretary of State.
