The Albany Register. PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY BY COLL. VANCLEVE.

OFFICE ON CORNER OF PERRY AND PIRST-STS. TERMS-IN ADVANCE. Single Copies .. ADVERTISING RATES.

Transient advertisements per Square of ten lines or less, first insertion, $3; each subsequent insertion, $1.
Larger advertisements inserted liberal terms.

JOB WORK. Having received new type, stock of colored inks, cards, a Gordon Jobher, etc., we are pre-pared to execute all kinds of printing in a better manner and fifty per cent. cheaper than ever be fore offered in this city.

Agents for the Register. The following gentlemen are authorized to receive and receipt for subscription, advertising, ete . for the REGISTER : HIRAM SMITH, Esq...... Judge S. H. CLAUGHTON. PETER HUME, Esq..... Brownsville R. KIRK, Esq..... BEO. W. CANNON, Esq. L. P. FISHER, Esq..... . Portland.

BUSINESS CARDS.

A. WHEELER, Notary Public.

BROWNSVILLE, OREGON. EGAL INSTRUMENTS OF ALL KINDS made and attested. Conveyances and collections attended to. 12'69

J. HANNON. Attorney and Counsellor at Law, ALBANY, OREGON.

OFFICE -On Main street, opposito Poster's REALERS IN GROCERIES AND PRO-Hiltabidel & Co., visions, Wood and Willow Ware, Confec-tionery, Tobacco, Cigars, Pipes, Notions, etc. Main street, adjoining the Express office, Albany, E. A. Freeland, DEALER IN EVERY DESCRIPTION OF School, Miscellaneous and Blank Books, Stationery, Gold and Steel Pens, Ink, etc.. Postoffice Building, Albany, Oregon. Books ordered from New York and San Francisco.

S. H. Claughton,

OTARY PUBLIC AND REAL ESTATE
AGENT. Office in the Post Office building, Lebanon, Oregon

Will attend to making Deeds and other conveyances, also to the prompt collection of debts en trusted to my care.

Mitchell, Dolph & Smith, TTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW, A Solicitors in Chancery and Proctors in Admiralty. Office over the old Post Office, Front street, Portland, Oregon.

Powell & Flinn, TTORNEYS & COUNSELLORS AT LAW (L. Flinn, Notary Public,) Albany, Oregon. Collections and conveyances prompty attended to.

J. QUINN THORNTON, Attorney and Counselor at Law, ALBANY, OREGON.

WILL practice in the superior and inferior courts of Marion, Linn, Lane, Benton and Five per cent. charged on collections made without sueing.

F. M REDFIELD & CO.,

CONSTANTLY on hand and receiving, Groceries and Provisions. Wood and Willow Ware, Tobacco, Cigars, Confectionery, Yankee Notions, &c., &c., Wholesale and Retail, opposite R. C. Hill & Son's drug store, Albany, Oregon.

ALBANY BATH HOUSE.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECT-fully inform the citizens of Albany and vi-cinity that he has taken charge of this establish-ment, and, by keeping clean rooms and paying strict attentic) to business, expects to suit all those who may favor him with their patronage Having heretofore carried on nothing but

First-Class Hair Dressing Saloons, he expects to give entire satisfaction to all.

Children and Ladies' hair neatly cut and shampooed.

JOSEPH WEBBER.

E. F. RUSSELL, JAMES ELKINS, ATTORNEY AT LAW. NOTARY PUBLIC

RUSSELL & ELKINS. (Office in Parrish & Co.'s block, First street,)

Albany, Oregon. HAVING TAKEN INTO CO-PARTNER-SHIP JAMES ELKINS, Esq., ex-Clerk of Linn county, we are enabled to add to our prac-tice of Law and Collections, superior facilities for Conveyancing, Examining Records, and attending to Probate business.

Deeds, Bonds, Contracts and Mortgages care

Homestead and Pre-emption Papers made, and claims secured.
Sales of Real Estate negotiated, and loan

All business entrusted to them faithfully and promptly executed. RUSSELL & ELKINS.
Albany, Oct. 10, '68-5y

"ON TO HIT!"

WADSWORTH & KUHN Plain and Fancy Painting!

Signs, Carriages, Buildings,

Graining, Paperhanging, Calcimining and in fact all kinds and styles of PLAIN AND ORNAMENTAL WORK. that can be done with Paint and Brush, at FAIR, LIVING RATES. Give us a call. Shop on Ferry street, ever Kuhn & Adams' wagon shop. adg21-50

UNION REPUBLICAN CONVEN- LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

The Union Republican voters of the State of Oregon will meet at the City of Portland, at 10 o'clock A. M., on Thursday, the 7th day of April, 1870, in Delegate Convention, for the purpose of placing in nomination a State Ticket to be supported at the approaching election in June, and the transaction of such other business as shall properly come before said Convention.

Counties will be entitled to delegates as follows Tillamook ... Umatilla.... Douglas The Committee recommend that the County Conventions for the election of Delegates be held on Saturday, the 26th day of March, 1870. By order of the State Central Committee, M. P. BERRY, Chairman. T. B. ODENEAL, Secretary. Portland, January 19th, 1870.

PORTLAND CARDS.

OCIDENTAL, Western Hotel,

Portland, Oregon. Messrs. SMITH & COOK have taken this well known house, refitted and refurnished it throughout, built a large addition, making thirty more pleasant rooms, enlarged the Dining ooms, making it by far the Best Hotel in Portland.

A call from the traveling public will satisfy them that the above statements are true. SMITH & COOK, Props. N. B.—Hot and cold Baths attached to the nouse for the benefit of guests. Portland, August 15th, 1869.

AMERICAN EXCHANGE.

Front and Washington Streets, PORTLAND, OREGON.

L. P. W. Quimby, - - - Proprietor. (Late of the Western Hotel.)

landing.

The Concord Coach will always be four at the landing, on the arrival of steamships ar river boats, carrying passengers and their bargage to and from the boats free of charge.

House supplied with Patent Fire Extinguishers.

COSMOPOLITAN HOTEL.

(FORMERLY ARRIGONI'S,) Front street : : : Portland, Orego

THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING PURchased this well known Hotel, are now pre-pared to offer the traveling public better accom-modations than can be found elsewhere in the Board and Lodging $2 00 per day. The Hotel Coach will be in attendance to convey Passengers and baggage to and from the Hotel free of charge. Office Oregon & California Stage Company, B.

New Columbian Hotel, Nos. 118, 120 and 122 Front street, PORTLAND, : : : OREGON

The Largest, Best and most Corvenien Hotel in Portland! Located in the center of business and near

Board and Lodging

ED. CARNEY, PROPRIETOR.

From one to two dollars per day according to the room occupied.

Rooms newly furnished and well ventil ated. Superior accommodations for families. ated. Superior accommodations for families.

The New Columbian Hotel Coach will be in attendance at all the landings to convey passengers and baggage to and from this Hotel 17 Free of Charge! 69

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

C. MEALEY DEALER IN & MANUFACTURER OF

FURNITURE:

CABINET WARE!

Bedding, Etc., orn or First and Broad Albin streets,

ALBANY, OREGON.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION PAID TO THE ORDERS OF ALL KINDS

I AM PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF TURNING! I keep on hand and make to order
RAWHIDE-BOTTOMED CHAIRS,

Spinning Wheels. Shop near the "Magnolia Mills."

JOHN M. METZLER

Albany, Nov. 28, 1868-12

BLANKS! OF ALL KINDS, printed at the very low

CALLED.-Postal Agent, Hon. Ben Underwood, called on us Saturday, en route for Portland and Dalles, on biz. Ben is an indefatigable worker, wide awake to the interests of the people in mail matters, and is giving good satisfacaction throughout the valley as postal

We have received the prospectus of a Radicals regardless of taste or expense.

GONE.-U. S. Assistant Assessor, Col. of his genial countenance upon us for two or three weeks past, having "finished up" for this city, took up his line of march for Corvallis on Monday, to fix up his lists there. From thence he goes to Harrisburg. The Colonel is a jovial, whole-souled man, and of course makes friends wherever he goes.

FROM Scio.-The Scio News of the 10th instant received. Following is the

A correspondent differs with the editor in regard to the propriety of building a macadamized road from Scio to a point on the Railroad. He thinks a railroad is what is demanded, and that ten miles of railroad will cost the people less than the road. With a railroad, all the produce dents. raised in the vicinity would find a ready market in Scio, building up the town and surrounding country, whereas a macadamized road would build up a market at the railroad point ten miles off, to the material detriment of Scio and the country adjacent.

A party of hunters had returned bringing the carcasses of twelve deerthe editor was remembered.

A new billiard saloon is soon to b opened in Scio.

RECEIVED .- The Excelsior, a monthly L. Van Allen, at $1 per annum. It is a by Congress. neat 32-page journal, with illustrations, Horse racing has been restored at teresting literary and miscellaneous mat- preparation. ter. Through arrangements with the new publications, markets, etc.

One of the editors in Reading had a shirt, about which he made his brags, and abused his cotemporaries for having none. It afterwards appeared that he had stolen it off a pole from a brother editor, who was in bed waiting for it to of Oregon City. The deposit where made it crops out is about one foot thick and two rods wide.

In Stockton, a few days since, a man named Crabb entered a house in the day time and stole a watch. The lady of the house returned from a visit to a neighbor just in time, caught the thief by the throat, and choked him till he dropped the watch and ran.

public debt at the rate of $182 a minute -one hundred and eighty two thorns in the Democratic side every sixty seconds.

During the month of January one hundred and forty-eight marriage licenses were issued from the County Clerk's office in San Francisco, and twice that number of souls "with but a single (or simple) thought," made miserable or happy, as the case may be.

BACK AGAIN .- H. W. Scott, Esq., editor of the Oregonian, arrived at Portland on the last steamer from San Francisco, from his late visit East.

NEW LOCOMOTIVE .- The bark Web foot brought to Portland a new locomotiv to be used on Holladay's road.

Judge Lorenzo Sawyer, having qualified, entered upon the discharge of his duties as Judge of the United States Circuit Court at San Francisco, on the put more upon a man than he can bear. Worry is rust upon the blade. It is not the revolution that destroyes the machiery, but the friction. Fear secretes acids; but love and truth are sweet juices.

NEWS ITEMS.

it is claimed, will throw shot eight or case along side of Brick Pomeroy."

The Legislature of Tennessee, by bill, the amended Constitution at the same probably the final survey on that route.

An American citizen named Vincent paper to be published at Roseburg, Ore- Danny, of Florida, for relating a somegon, by Wm. Thompson, to be called the what modified account of the assassina-Plaindealer. It will sustain the doc- tion of Castanon, was set upon by voltrine that this is a "white man's govern- unteers, in San Jose street, Havana, and down into history as a worthy example for ment," and will doubtless go after the beaten to death. Nine Cubats were also masacred in Havana and Matanzas.

In New York city, John Goulding, a well known politician, was discovered Folsom, who has been shedding the light having intimate relations with the wife of Joseph Sinnett, a seaman. He fled from the wrath of Sinnett in the evening, and the wife at once cut her throat with her husband's razor.

The new naturalization bill, now before the House Judiciary Committee, takes the matter from the State Courts and puts it into the hands of the United States officers. Four years of continuous residence before application for naturalization must be proved by persons intending to become citizens.

The people of Long Island still con tinue excited over the Mormon question. The Legislature of Virginia has elected Gov. Rice, of Shenandoah county, State Treasurer. His county cast its same number of miles of macadamized vote for Fremont and Lincoln for Presi-The steamer Anna reports having successfully landed, December 19th last, on Cuban soil, 22 men, including Col. Ryan, Cespedes and Gaicuria, with 2,400 stands of arms and 30 tons of powder, shot and shell. Gov. Butler issued a proclamation calling the Nebraska Legislature together on the 17th, for the purpose of ratifying the 15th amendment, dividing the State for the erection of a new penitentiary,

The Territorial government asked for magazine, published in New York, by C. by Alaska will probably not be granted double-column magazines. It is neatly From Madrid (Spain), it is reported printed, and filled to the brim with in- that another Carlist insurrection is in A minority of the Committee investipublisher we are enabled to furnish all gating the alleged defalcation of the M. new subscribers to the REGISTER, who E. Book concern at New York, report wish it, with the Excelsior one year free. heavy irregularities in the printing and The European Mail, published weekly binding department; give the total dein London, England, at 13s per annum. falcations; implicate the son of one of It contains a vast amount of general and the ex-managers, and reflect upon the miscellaneous European news, reviews of the father. The report is signed by the it is just that spiritualism should be Revs. S. Slicer and Pike, and by the judged by its fruits-that is, by the in-

Secretary of the Committee. Julian, Chairman of the House Committee on Public Lands, has prepared a bill prohibiting further grants of public lands to railroads or other corporations, under any circumstances whatever.

Counterfeit five cent nickels are in circulation. It is announced that twen-BLACK LEAD .- The Enterprise says ty-five per cent. of those now in circulathat Dr. Ross has found a very pure arti- tion are spurious. All the old issue will cle of native plumbago, in the upper part probably be called in, and a new issue

The Mormon Legislature of Utah has passed the bill granting the right of suffrage to women, and acting Governor Mann has signed it.

In San Francisco last week, articles of incorporation were signed, creating the San Francisco & Northern Coast Railroad Company. The design is to construct a railroad from a point near San Rafael to Healdsburg, with a branch to Grant's administration is reducing the Bloomfield and Tomales. The company is said to have the capital and enterprise to carry out the project.

The man James Dwyer, who was out of Deitrich Wohler, in San Francisco, was arrested on Saturday last in that city, charged with robbing a man named bail. On the 12th inst., Oregon oats brought $1 60 per 100 pounds in San Francisco. Wheat firm at $1 40(a) 1 65 per 100 pounds. Flour, in sacks, $4 50@5 50, as to quality, per barrel. In San Francisco, Charles Kyle & Samuel Carr, keepers of a saloon on ural life, convicted of the crime of mur-

Brick Pomeroy boasts that he once worked by the side of a negro compositor. The negro compositor turns out to be one Nosh Pickett, who writes to It is not work that kills men; it is the Herald that he did work along side worry. Work is heathy; you can hardly of Brick, and that he is ashamed of it. madge, Summit county, Ohio, and adds: 000,000 acres of land.

"I am now rather crippled up, but my A new double shotted projectile, in- Heavenly Father knows that I would vented by J. H. Hill, of Jefferson Iowa, starve before I would again work at a

The Eugene Journal says that Chief Engineer Brocks with a party of men has postponed county elections to the 4th are between Spore's Ferry and Spring-Monday in March, in order to submit field, making a survey-the second and

A Maine soldier has had his name removed from the pension rolls, saying he has regained his health and does not need the pension. Commissioner Van Aernam wrote to him that his name "should go ed in velvet and gold, and repainted, and the coming generations."

Spiritualism,

LEBANON, O., Feb. 14, 1870. Our village has been visited by some of the inhabitants of "That undiscovered country, from whose bourne no traveler

Mr. McCord has taken it upon himself to enlighten this benighted community on the subject of spiritualism. His zeal and disinterestedness are highly comnendable. It is true he usually charges each an admission fee of fifty cents ; but, of course, he must have some compensation for his valuable time, and incidental expenses must be paid. He appeared here before a small audince last Wednesday evening; and to quized convince them that he is a fa-orite of the spirits, and that they came to his assistance at his bidding, he solicited some one to tie him, which being done, he was taken into a dark, very dark room, and in about twenty minutes he came out with the rope in his hand. Now, sir, is not that enough to convince the most skeptical that there is a reality in spiritualism? For, remember, he was bound hand and foot, and cast into that dreadfully dark room! Certainly none but a spirit could see how to untie those hard knots!

Is not this "a most wholesome doctrine and very full of comfort?" For, if by any means, its disciples should incur the into Congressional districts, providing displeasure of the civil law, and the authorities should bind them with chains and cast them into prison, the first dark night the spirits would come to their reief, remove the chains, turn the bolts and let their wards go free. We suppose, of course, that spirits have as much

Then, again, is it not a source of comfort to the friends of the deceased to know that their departed sisters, friends and children are permitted to attend De Wolfe, Todd, McCord and others for the purpose of tipping tables, rapping to questions, untying knots, &c.? This is uestions, untying knots, &c. ? ennobling employment for the great and good who once inhabited earth! How much more ennobling than that in which we have been accustomed to suppose them engaged! A tree is known by its fruits. Hence fluence that it has on the characters of its followers. Not by isolated cases, but by the characters of its leading advocates and the masses of its followers. Could you find a more noble example of a true man than is exhibited in the lives of its leading advocates? Are they not noble examples for the youth? It is true that De Wolfe got into trouble at Olympia by ignoring the law regulating marriage; and Mrs. De Wolfe was arrested in San Francisco by the police for appearing on the streets in attire which they thought was not becoming her sex; but might not the fault be in the laws? Spiritualists do not visit saloons, the race-course, or gaming table; neither do they violate the Sabbath, or take the name of God in vain. Do not their lives recommend their doctrine? CREDO.

MARRIED IN A CORNFIELD .- A highly dramatic episode, showing how the course of true love does not run smooth, transpired here the other day. The daughter of a rich planter, who lives a few miles from the city had fallen desperately in love with a young lawyer from the same neighborhood.

The affection was mutual, but the old man, the girl's father, was bitterly opposed to the match, and packed his girl off on $16,000 bail to answer for the murder to Nashville, to one of the strictest female seminaries. Love, from the foundation of the world, has been found fertile in resources, and, as might have been expectcity, charged with robbing a man named ed, the young people were not long in Ball, a few hour after his discharge on finding means of interchanging notes, and afterward meeting at the house of a mutual friend. They had arranged for a sort of clandestine marriage, when the cruel parent got wind of the matter (cruel parents always hear of these things), and took the girl home for a day or two till he could take her to New York and incarnate her in a convent. After much difficulty the lover got a note to her, and the day before the intended Kearney street, on Saturday last were departure for the East she went into sent to the penitentiary, each for his nat- back room, under pretext of getting some article to pack in her trunk, slipped through the window, across the yard, and into an adjacent cornfield, where the lover was ready with a "Squire," standing amid the corn ricks in a drizzling rain, the two were married. That was pretty plucky on the whole, wasn't it?—Cincinnati Times.

"Big Injun" Downing, Chief of the That Brick still owes him $2 70 ber- Cherokees, is in Washington to secure rowed money, and that he would be the ratification of a trenty by which his happy to receive it at his home in Tall- nation will receive $3,000,000 for 13,- But Nahum was not to be eluded thus.

To Let-Inquire Within.

The lady flounced out in a rage. Two young damsels and a spinster aunt followed, and after a lengthy inspection of the premises, came to a state council in the parlor. " I like the house very much," said the spinster aunt solemnly, "and with a few alterations, I will engage it for my brother's family. "Very good, Ma'am," said Nahum, rubbing his hands, and scenting a speedy termination to his trials. "Name 'em. "The door handles must all be gilded and I should like the house newly paperthe partition between the pariors taken down and replaced by an arch, and an extension dining-room built on behind, and a new style of range in the kitchen, and a dumb waiter put in, and new bronze chandeliers throughout, and another furnace in the sub-cellar, and—" "Hold on, ma'am-fust hold on one minute," said Nahum, feebly gasping for breath. "Wouldn't you like the old house carted away, and a new one put in its place? I think it would be rather less trouble than to make the trifling alterations you suggest."

"Sir!" said the spinster loftily. " I don't think we can agree, ma'am. "Very well—very well—come girls."
With prim dignity the lady marshalled her two charges out, muttering some-thing about the "extortionate ideas of landlords now-a-days." While Nahum, wildly rumpling his iron-grey hair with both hands, solilo-

"Well, if Job had been alive, and had a house to let, there never would have been any book of Job written. There goes that everlasting bell again! I'll haul it out by the roots, if this thing body, coming when and where they please; goes on much longer. I'll tear down he bill, and put up the old place at auc-

Another lady, but quite different from the other-a slender little cast-down lady, with a head that drooped like a where on a person, that person always of the valley, and a dress of brown silk, that had been mended, and turned, though it would puzzle him to say just and retrimmed, and even Nahum Briggs, man and bachelor though he was, could see how shabby it was. Yet she was a good deal of sympathy from others, pretty, with big blue eyes, and shining Whoever asks him what ails him laughs fair, fleeting color, where the velvety roses of youth had once bloomed in vivid her, there came back to him the sun- are just beginning to practice are fond of shiny days of youth; a field of blooming trying their lancets on them. Boils are clover crimsoned the June light like said to be "healthy," and from the way power over chains and bolts as they have clover crimsoned the June light like leaning over the fence with her bright bair barred with level sunset gold, and he knew that he was standing face to face with Barbary Wylie, the girl he had quarreled with years and years ago, and whose blue eyes had kept him an old bachelor all his life long. "This house is to be let, I believe?" she asked timidly, with a little quiver in her mouth. "I believe it is, Barbara Wylie." She looked up, starting with a sudden flush of recognition.

And then Barbara turned very pale, and began to weep, with the little goldhaired girl clinging to her skirts, and " Mamma, mamma-what's the mat ter, mamma Nothing now," said Barbara, resolutely brushing away the tears. "If you please, Mr. Briggs, I will look at the house; I am a widow now, and very poor, and I think of keeping a boarding-house to earn my daily bread.

wards," said Nahum, fiercely swallowing down a big lump in his throat that threatened to choak him. "Come here, little girl, and kiss me ;

We'll talk about the rent after-hope the rent is not very high?"

I used to know your mamma when she wasn't much bigger than you are." Barbara, with her blue eyes still drooping, went all over the house, without finding a word of fault, and Nahum Briggs walked at her side, wondering if it was really fifteen years since the June sunshine lay so brightly on the clover

" I think the house is beautiful," said meek Barbara. "Will you rent it to me, Nahum?" "Well, yes," said Nahum, thought-fully. "I'll let you have my house, if you want it, Barbara."

"With the privilege of keeping a few boarders ?" " No, ma'am." Barbara stopped and looked wistfully

"But 1 don't think you understand how very poor I am, Mr. Briggs."
"Yes, I do." "And that I cannot afford to take the house without the privilege of boarders." "I tell you what, Barbara," said Mr. Briggs, dictatorily, "I'll give you the privilege of keeping just one boarder, and him you have got to keep all your life long, if you once take him." "I don't think I quite understand you, Nahum Briggs," said Barbara, but she blushed very becomingly, and we are rather inclined to think that she told a naughty little fib. "What do you say to me for a board-er, Barbara?" said the old bachelor, taking both the widow's hands in his. "Barbara, we were young fools, once, but that is no reason why we should be old fools now. I like you just as well as ever I did, and I'll do my best to be a good husband to you, and a good father to your little girl, if you'll be my wife." Barbara blushed again, and hesitated. " Shall I take down the sign 'To Let,'

Barbara ?" "Yes," she murmured, almost under breath. So Nahum went deliberately out, and coolly tore down the bill, to the great astonishment and disappointment of a party of rabid house-hunters, who were just ascending the steps.

"And when shall we be married, Barbara?" he next demanded.

"In the summer, perhaps," said Mrs. Barbara shyly.

"To-morrow," said Nahum decisively, and "to-morrow" it was.

"Upon my word, Barbara," said Na-hum, on the first day of May, as he watched his wife's blooming face behind the coffee urn, "you can't think how much jollier it is with you for a housekeeper than that hag, Mrs. Parley."

Barbara only laughed, and said "he was a dear, good old stupid."

So the probabilities are that neither Mr. Nahum Briggs nor his brown atone house will be in market again as "To Let-Inquire Within."

JOB'S COMFORTERS. - The following deeply interesting "narrative" is credited to a "School Boy." It has very many "fine points" in it that leads us to be lieve the credit is correct or not. But in any case it presents the subject in its very best light, and we hope those who read it will take as much comfort in it as we did : A boil is very small at first, and a fellow hardly notices it, but in a few days it gets to be the biggest of the two, and the chap that has it is of very little ac-count in comparison with his boil, which then "has him." Boils appear mysteriand often in very inconvenient places. Sometimes a solitary boil is the sum total of the affliction, but frequently there is a "rubbishin' lot of 'em" to help the first one. If a boil comes anywishes it had come somewhere else, al-

If a chap has a boil, he generally gets brown hair, and cheeks tinged with a at him for his pains to answer, while many unfeeling persons make game of roses of youth had once bloomed in vivid carmine. And a golden haired little lassic clung to her dress, as like the tiny lily buds to a blooming chime of flower bells.

As Nahum Briggs stood looking at As Nahum Briggs stood looking at ral thing, although young physicians who they take hold, and hang on, and ache and burn, and grow, and torment one generally, there is no doubt they are healthy, and have good constitution They are generally very lively and play-ful at night, and it is very funny to see a chap with a good large one prospecting around his couch for a place where his boil will fit in "without hurting." Boils tend to "purify the blood," strengthen the system, calm the nerves, restrain the profanity, tranquilize the spirits, improve the temper, and beautify the appearance. They are good things for married men who spend their evenings away from home, as they give them an opportunity to rest their night-keys. and get acquainted with their families. It is said that boils save the patient "a fit of sickness," but it the sickness is not the best to have, it must be an all-fired mean thing. It is also said that a person feels better after he has had them, and there is no doubt that one feels much better after having got rid of them. Many distinguished persons have enjoyed these harbingers of health. Job took the first premium at the county fair for having more achers under cultivation than any other person. Shakespeare had them, and meant boils when he said, "One woe doth tread upon another's heel, so fast they follow." There are a great many remedies for boils, most of which are well worth trying, because, if they don't do any good, they don't hurt the boils. If a chap goes down street with a boil, every man he meets will tell him of "a good thing" for it, among which are Shoemaker's wax, Mrs. Winslow's Syrup, Trix, Spalding's Glue, Charlette Brees, Comp. Draws ing's Glue, Charlotte Russe, Gum Drops, Water-Proof Blacking, Night-Blooming Ceres, Chloroform, Kissengen, etc.

Bow-LEGS .- Bowed legs are not caused by a baby's being placed upon its feet too early, but to a habit children have of rubbing the soles of the feet together. They seem to enjoy the contact only when the feet are naked; they dont attempt to make it when the feet are socked. So the remedy is obvious; keep the baby's feet covered. Knock-knees are ascribed o a different childish habit—that of sleeping on the side with one knee tucked into the hollow behind the other. When one leg has been bowed inward more than the other, the patient has always slept on one side, and the uppermost member has been that most deformed. Here the preventive is to be careful every night to place the child to sleep in different positions. Indeed, all through life, it is well to sleep on either side.

To REMOVE DIET FROM THE EYE .-Take a bog's bristle, double so as to form a loop. Lift the eyelid and gently insert the loop up over the ball, which will occasion no disagreeable feeling. Now close the lid down upon the bristle which may now be withdrawn. The dirt will surely be upon the bristle.

Our good minister once said that if we were so foolish as to allow people to laugh us out of our religion, till at last we dropped into hell, they could not laugh us out again.