LOCAL AFFAIRS

NEW CARD .- In to-day's issue will be found the card of Messrs. Russell & Ferry, real estate brokers and collecting agents, Portland. Everybody in this county knows Judge Russell, and knowing him are aware that he possesses all the qualities of a first-class business man and a gentleman. A husiness career of several years in this city has not only secured to him a fair amount of cash, but hosts of friends, who would much rather have ination to remain with us. him remain among us. From an acquaintance of some years with Mr. Ferry we are prepared to Wednesday, and we judge from his pleasant vouch for his high standing as a business man- looks that he was enjoying life to its full extent. ager and a liberal, sociable gentleman, and to predict for the new firm a brilliant financial success. Parties having business in their line should call at their office, corner Washington and First streets, Portland.

THE HOME BOOK OF WONDERS .- This book is a complete Museum, Descriptive and Pictorial, of the World's Wonderful Phenomenon. It is something wonderful in printed facts, and is a

THE FIREMEN'S BALL-On the night of the 224, was a complete success. The attendance was large, the music was good, and the arrangements were such that all got a full share of dancing. There were between fifty and sixty couples in attendance. The supper, gotten up by Mr. Murray, of the "Overland," was up to the mark in every respect, and, to sum up, a more enjoyable and pleasant party has not been given in Albany. Success to the Albany Fire Company. Hip, bip, hurrah!

Mone Jewelny .- Mr. Titus, at the new jewclry store, has been receiving a new invoice of watches, rings, sleeve buttons, and other rich jewelry, as well as a large invoice of the latest styles of clocks, and his prices are lower than ever. If you want to see rich jewelry, call on Titus. Solid coin silverware sold at a slight advance on coin valuation. Now is the time to secure goods cheap.

OUR POST-OFFICE .- Our post-office, in charge range, $1 25@1 50. of Mr. Ed. Freeland, has undergone an entire change in its internal arrangements, and now, 1 10. with its neat lock-bokes, and other conveniences. Money market in Portland is easier than for best mechanics in the State, as the work shows. change since our last. We quote: If neat, tasty carpentering is needed, Althouse & Co. are the gentlemen to do it.

RELIGIOUS .- The meetings at the Court House under charge of the Revs. Harris and Powell, of the Christian church, commenced on the 12th, were discontinued on Monday. The meetings were well attended, and were productive of great good. How many were added to the church we did not learn. Miss P. Hackleman received the rites of baptism on the 20th.

ANOTHER CHURCH -Subscriptions are being circulated to obtain money to build an edifice for the use of the members of the Christian church. We suppose the effort has met with fair success. as our people liberally aid all enterprises that have for their aim the well being of society.

RECEIVED .- The Oregon Medical and Surgical Reporter, for the month of February, received. We notice that Dr. J. C. Grubbs has been promoted to the chief editorship. The contents of the present number are varied and afford much reputation as a first-class house, but has food for thought. As a medical instructor it has already attained a high position, and should receive a liberal patronage.

RAILROAD .- A large number of hands were to be set to work on the Oregon Central Railroad (East Side), by the first of next month, and the building and equipping of the road completed as Summer will witness the completion of the road, As Albany will, in all probability, be the Winter ed here next Winter.

from San Francisco. We understand that he in-tends offering for sale all the popular magazines, periodicals, etc. This looks like business.

CHURCH SERVICES.—Rev. W. D. Nichols, of Lebanon, will preach in the M. E. Church tomorrow (Sabbath), at eleven o'clock. The pub-lie are cordially invited to attend. THANKS .- We are indebted to the officers of the

P. T. Co.'s steamer Reliance for attentions and favors extended on a recent visit to Portland. The Reliance is not only well officered, but we believe she is the fastest boat on the river.

Will Lose Ir.—The son of Councilman Riley who, it will be remembered, was hurt by an arrow some time since, is rapidly convalencing, but will lose the sight of the injured eye.

Convaluscing .- The many friends of Mrs. Delazon Smith will be glad to bear that she is convalescing slowly.

PERSONAL .- Colonel Preston, of Silver City, Idaho Territory, formerly a resident of this State, paid our city a visit during the week. The Colonel is an able lawyer, a thorough Republican, and one of the most eloquent speakers on the Pacific coast. We hope he can be induced to take part in the coming campaign.

Our old townsman, John Barrows, and family who have been spending some months in the Eastern States and California, returned to their old home on Tuesday's steamer, satisfied that there is no country equal to Oregon, and that there is no city in Oregon that has a more brilliant future than Albany. The many friends of Mr. Barrows will be happy to learn of his determ-
