THE RESULT .- The Linn County Republican Convention met on Thursday, nominated a full ticket, and after a harmonious and pleasant session, adjourned. The ticket presented by the working men, who have been tried and not found | Kirk wanting in any of the attributes of manhood; honest and capable, who will fill any position assigned them with honor to themselves and credit to Linn county. With such men as compose the Union Republican ticket of Linn, we ask and Seio-Joseph Conner, E. E. Wheeler, J. C. hope to receive a majority of the suffrages of the Johnson and J. B. Irvine, proxy. citizens of the county at the pells on the 6th day of June next. Let every man who has the inter- Jordan. ests of Linn county at heart go energetically to work now, and the desi.ed result will be achieved. Elliott. We think there are more believers in "woman suffrage" now than ever before. Our old friend A. B. Meacham, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, called on us last week. The paper-bullet pellings be has received at the hands of the Democracy doesn't som' to have cost him a moment's thought, and he is as happy and jolarious as in the olden long ago.

STAR PICTURE GALLERY .- Messrs . Templeton & Hume have opened the "Star" Picture Gallery, at Brownsville, and with a choice-stock of chemi-

cumstances" the announcement of the night for the donation at the Methodist parsonage was wrongly given in our second edition, but right in the first. We were requested to change the time from Tuesday to Monday night, and did so. We are informed that the affair came off on Tuesday night, was pretty generally attended, and proved very pleasant and profitable to the paster and family. We are only sorry that he did not receive four times as much.

Toes Cur Ore .- A young man named Will Hawley, living about four miles southwest from clamation. Brownsville, on Monday last, while cutting wood, accidentally cut off all the toes but the big toe of and on motion, T. G. Taylor was nominated by cut clear through, partly severing the sole of the boot. The big toe was partly cut off, but will be saved. The young man is doing as well as could one foot. The ax glaticed, and striking the foot acclausation. be expected.

NEW STORE .- Mr. N. Baum, late clerk in the establishment of Messrs. Senders, Sternberg & Co., goes to San Francisco on the next steamer to lay in a stock of gentlemen's furnishing goods, eigars, tobacco, etc., which he will bring to Albany, and open in the building on the corner of Ferry and First street, adjoining Tally's saloon. His large experience in the business warrants us in saying that his stock will be one of the best.

FUNERAL CEREMONIES .- The funeral obsequies of Miss Viola Smith transpired on last Sabbath, her death having occurred about noon of the 15th. Almost our entire population followed the body to the cemetery, to do the last honors to one who held so high a place in the estimation of all while living. Revs. Emery, of Corvallis, E. R. Geary and H. C. Jenkins, of Albany, officiated, the first mentioned delivering the funeral sermon.

Ms. Entron :- We design to express our thanks M. Thompson and J. B. Irvine. to the many kind friends who met at the parsonage of the M. E. Church on Tuesday evening last, and left as an expression of their sincere kindness, for the benefit of the pastor and his family, articles and money to the amount of nearly seventy dollars. Such expressions of kindness are not soon forgotten. We trust that the blessings of our Heavenly Father may ever rest upon them all. H. C. JENKINS.

A NEW PHYSICIAN .- See the card of Dr. W. J. Crockett, a graduate of an Eastern medical institution, in this issue. The Doctor's qualifientions are undoubted and his recommendations of the first character, and we bespeak for him the attention his claims deserve. Office in Foster's brick, up stairs, adjoining Powell & Flinn's law office, First street.

ROAD COMPANY NOTICES .- The Willamette Valley & Cascade Mt. Wagon Road Co. have two | Council. notices in this issue, both of importance. They intend building a new piece of road, for which bids are invited, and all the land owned in Linn county by the Company is offered at private sale. FORKS OF SANTIAM, Apr. 14, 1870. EDITOR REGISTER:-By request of many Demcerats I beg leave to make known, through your columns, the reason why we, as life-long Demo crats, in this section, refuse to support Mr. Jones the nominee on the Democratic ticket (but not the Democratic nominee) for the office of County Clerk. About six weeks or a month prior to th Convention Mr. J. partially, and I may say wholly, came out before the people as a candidate for the clerkship, and after his name had been canvassed among the Democracy for a time he saw his unpopularity, and suddenly and to the astonishment of his friends withdrew his name asserting positively that he would not be a candidete for the office, thereby deceiving his friends and causing them to bring forward good men to be throttled and butchered in the Convention by tricksters prompted to action by the superior intellect and better disciplined treachery of A. C. Jones. On the announcement of Mr. Jones' withdrawal

Jones could have got the nomination on a fair PERSONAL.—We have had the pleasure of greetig, in our sanctum, daring the week, James Arnold.

J. W. Richardson, B. W. Hamilton and Isaac and honorable race or not I am unable to say, but this I will say, that the way in which he did get his nomination was too disgraceful, and too undemocratic, for him to secure his election next June unless he can spring a trick in the Republi-can ranks by which he can get a liberal support from them. I was informed by a prominent Democrat, when last in albany, that Mr. Jones was sprung at the eleventh hour in a Democratic Convention held in that place last winter, for the vention held in that place last winter, for the nomination of city officers, and secured the nomi-nation of himself for City Recorder (if I am not mistaken in the office) over a Democrat who had the man to let the people know before hand that he desired the nomination; and after the nomination had been made he (Jones) with all possible candor and solemnity pretended great astonish-ment at the result—said he had not been a candidate and had not expected the nomination. Now, it may be true that he was not a candidate, but since his villainy at the County Convention we are not inclined to take his word for anything. After he received the nomination for Clerk he tried to play the same old Mother Goose. He was astonished at the nomination—had not expected such a thing—was not a candidate—did not want the office, etc. Well, if he does not want the office I think he will not be forced to Organization.

Resolved. That the order of nominations be as follows: 2d, Representatives. 5dl, School Superintendent. 9th, Assessor. 10th, Surveyor. 11th, Coronner. 11th, Coronner. 10th, Assessor. 10th, Surveyor. 11th, Coronner. 10th, Assessor in the more of the track? If you are I think of coming out, but if you are going to run I will not, for it would only cause confusion for so many caffiddates to present themselves, "whereapon Jones told him positively, as a friend, that he would not run; and this was the inducement that led Hill to come out. Hill put the question to Jones some weeks before two vention and said to him, "Mr. Jones, I want to know positively whether you are off the track? If you are I think of coming out, but if you are going to run I will not, for it would only cause confusion for so many caffiddates to present themselves, where the second of the proper description.

Clerk, went to Jones some weeks before two vention and said to him, "Mr. Jones, I want to know positively whether you are of the track? If you are I think of coming out, but if you are intendent. 2th, Assessor. 10th, Surveyor. 11th, Coronner.

Coroner. J. F. BACKENSTO, Chm.

On motion, report adopted.

E. E. Wheeler, 29, H. Smith, 27, A. Wheeler the following result:

E. E. Wheeler, 29, H. Smith, 27, A. Whe the truth of this statement I cannot vouch, for I have not spoken to Hill since the Convention, but the following leads me to believe there is something in it : On the day of the Convention Jones was making himself very busy among the delegates, and suspicions were aroused that he would play a trick, and was asked what he was doing? Did he intend to come before the Convention? He said emphatically that he would not be before the Convention, he was talking to the delegates Messrs. Brown, Kirk, George and Combs were declared nominated, they having received a maand they thought he would be sprung in the Con-tion. He was sprung. He did everything that was dishonorable, and nothing but what two-thirds of the Democracy are ashamed of.

Another thing I wish to call attention to is this: political matters will lie to them on business mat-ters, and as we consider Jones one of that stripe we will scratch him with a far more liberal hand

The following gentlemen were nominated by acclamation:

S. G. Irvine, School Superintendent.

H. C. Powell, Assessor.

J. A. Warner, Surveyor.

D. M. Thompson, Coroner.

On motion the following named gentlemen were appointed as a County Central Committee: J. H. Foster, S. H. Claughton, J. F. Backensto, D. M. Thompson and J. B. Irvine.

The question then is, who will we support? I will answer that question thus: I have heard a great many say that unless there is another Convention called through which the Democracy as a people can be represented, they will support the Republican candidate, and others will not agree to support the Republican candidate, and others will not agree to support the Republican candidate, and others will be who he will be. We ask you to bring out agood man and he will be represented for he is not the regular Democratic nomines. Jones denies having been cognizant of the scheme but his word is no better than his name over here. His bosom We do not feel like throwing money into a man's hands who would use it as a power to strangle and disorganize his own party. Nor will we do it. der, Gradwohl and Meyer. Minutes of

On the announcement of Mr. Jones' withdrawal from the field he was called upon by different individuals to ascertain why he withdrew, and I am credibly informed that he made this reply: "There will be a good many candidates in the field, and some of them will be hard to beat. I might get the nomination and I might not, but my religion would be urged against me, and some would object to me on account of that occurrence at Lebanon." Now, as to whether Mr. Jones could have got the nomination on a fair honest men-Democrats in principle as well as name will submit to such things? No! they well not!! I favored the nomination of Mr. Lake. but could freely support any honest man that would honestly get a nomination. I do not op-pose Mr. Jones on account of his religion, for his Mormonism is his own, and not mine, but I vote against his dishonesty in Conventions. A Demo-erat that would lie to his Democratic friends on than he has anticipated.

The question then is, who will we support? I no better than his name over here. His bosom friends told of this thing before hand, and the more indiscrect ones talked it publicly on the streets as soon as the Convention adjourned, and said it did not make any difference if a few did get sore, a nomination was an election in this county. Under these circumstances I should consider the election of Mr. Jones a withering shame to the Democracy of old Lion; and if such things are tolerated much longer Democrats will not scratch by hundreds but by whole regimints.
