Our Candidates.

In the hurry of "making up" our paper of two weeks ago, we cmitted to mention a portion of our ticket. Mayer Hirsch, Esq., of Salem, Republican candidate for State Treasurer, is what might properly be termed a bed-rock Republican, having been a member and acting with the party since its organization As a business man he sustains a high character, honorable and upright in all his dealings, with talents that especially fit him to become the custodian of the public funds. The office comes to him unsought, and he will fill it honorably and to the satisfaction of the people.

The present Judge of the Third Judicial District, and candidate for reelection, Hon. R. P. Boise, of Polk, is one of our ablest jurists, who has filled the position with honor to wimself and satisfaction to all parties. His re-election is a foregone conclusion.

Our candidate for District Attorney. J. C. Powell, Esq., has long been a resident of old Linn, and is known and respected by all parties as a most efficient and thorough officer. Having faithfully and honestly discharged the arduous and laborious duties of the office in the past, he has gained the esteem and respect of all lovers of law and order. His renomination is a high tribute to the man as an able and capable officer of the law. His re-election is conceded by all.

Our candidate for Surveyor, Mr. J. A. Warner, during a residence of years among us, has proved to be most thorough and correct in his profession, and we believe has given the fullest satisfaction in all work done by him.

Mr. D. M. Thompson, candidate for Coroner, will make a most efficient and active officer, possessing qualifications that fit him for any office to which the sovereign people may choose to elevate

Our candidates for the State Senate are Mr. Hiram Smith, of Harrisburg, and so on, but after this fashion: Mr. E. E. Wheeler, of Scio, both gentlemen of acknowledged talent and experience, who have the interests of the whole State, but especially Linu county, at heart. They are men of broad and liberal views, who in business have made life a success, and ere worthy of the confidence and trust of the people.
