

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—The Republican and Democratic candidates for Congress will speak at the Court House to-day, at 1 o'clock P. M. Every body should go to hear them.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Little won the diamond cue championship billiard game in San Francisco on the 7th. He made 1,001 in seventy-three innings to his opponent, Koeling's, 685.

UP IN THE AIR.—By an explosion of nitro glycerine at the railroad tunnel near Wurtsboro, N. Y., on the 6th, one of the workmen was blown three hundred feet in the air and torn to pieces.

HOT.—The Salem Statesman is making it terrible hot for the Grover organ. It is now engaged in publishing an autobiography of the organ's editors, which shows them to be fit instruments for the repudiators.

STORM IN KANSAS.—During a violent storm in Kansas City on the night of the 6th, a large three-story brick was blown down—loss, $100,000. Immediately after, a four story brick, owned by Askew, Dubois & Co., fell with a crash. Loss on building and stock, $71,000.

FRANCE.—Arrests of parties, for complicity in the assassination plot, continue to be made. Lermains, who urged the impeachment of the Emperor, has been sentenced to two years imprisonment and a fine of 10,000F.

EARTHQUAKE.—The Walla Walla Statesman avers that a shock of earthquake transpired in that city on the night of the 6th. It lasted about forty minutes, caused the windows to rattle, and had all the indications of a first class earthquake.

MEXICO.—The Mexican Congress has passed an amendment to the Constitution creating a Senate, which now awaits ratification by the States. The revolutionists remain quiet. President Juarez is expected to pardon a son of Santa Anna.

NOT A DOUBT OF IT.—A correspondent from Oregon City to a Democratic Journal, writes that he fears the recent victory of the Republicans at the municipal election will be but repeated over again at the June election. His fears are well founded for once.

GENE EAST.—Mr. Thomas Cross, the renowned porkist of Salem, has gone to Chicago, with the intention, should the prospects look favorable, of engaging in the pork packing business there. He expects to find a wider field there in his specialty, the preparation of fancy hams.

LAND GRANT WANTED.—The Salem Statesman says that the people of Tillamook county are engaged in building two roads from that point, one to Salem and the other to Portland, and in fact have constructed several miles of each road. They ask Congress to donate lands to aid them in building the roads.

CUBA.—Gen. Jordan and staff have arrived in New York, their business being to procure arms and munitions of war. The General reports the campaign, substantially ended for the present, as having resulted in favor of the Cubans. The Cuban army numbers 10,000 men well equipped and armed, with artillery and mountain howitzers sufficient for the service.

HAIL STORM.—A great hail storm, which occurred in Philadelphia on the 8th, destroyed nearly every pane of glass on the south side of Chestnut street. All the windows in the Continental hotel were broken; fruit trees in the district were almost entirely destroyed. The stones were from the size of a pea to seven inches in circumference.

REV. J. H. WILBUR REAPPOINTED.—From the Statesman of the 20th, we learn that Rev. J. H. Wilbur has been reinstated at the Simcoe Indian Agency in Washington Territory. His removal from a position which he had so long filled with honor to himself and incalculable benefit to the Indians, was an act of injustice both to him and the Indians which could not be too soon righted. If all our agents in the Indian Department were as faithful workers as Father Wilbur, Indian troubles would soon end.

GREAT STORM.—A great storm of wind and rain occurred in the Northwest on the night of the 5th. At Council Bluffs a new church, costing $15,000, was entirely demolished, and thousands of feet of lumber were utterly blown away. Many small buildings were unroofed and overturned. Total damage not less than $20,000. At Springfield (Ill.) houses and barns were unroofed, fences and stacks blown down, and the country flooded with water. The storm seems to have been general throughout the States west of Indiana. The rain has been productive of one good, however, having started crops lively.

INTERESTING STATE OF AFFAIRS.—Col. Chapman, of Portland, delegate from Multnomah county to the Democratic State Convention, and a candidate before that Convention for the nomination of Governor, being endorsed by his own county, was a candidate before the Multnomah County Convention, recently held at Portland, for the State Senate, provided the Convention would adopt a series of resolutions written by him and which were substantially the same as those adopted by the "workingmen's societies," of whom Col. Chapman was the acknowledged leader. The convention not only refused to adopt these resolutions of the workingmen's associations, offered by the Colonel, but entirely ignored the Colonel's claims for the State Senate. But for fear the workingmen might take umbrage at this cavalier treatment of their acknowledged leader, and champion, and to heal whatever of chagrin and pique the gentleman himself might feel, the convention very complacently and condescendingly tendered him the nomination of County Surveyor! In a note to the editor of the Commercial the day succeeding the convention, the Colonel directs that his name shall be immediately taken from the ticket, saying, in view of all the facts above recited, he can only view his nomination in the light of a burlesque. But to cap the climax and make the sarcasm of this nomination for the petty office more keen and palpable, the Herald, in its notice of the nominees of the convention, discourses as follows of Col. Chapman: For County Surveyor, Col. W. W. Chapman, a life-long Democrat and distinguished citizen, is named. The name of Col. Chapman is connected with the history of Oregon from the early days, and no one has taken a more distinguished or honorable part in public affairs. His voice has always been heard in defence of the people and the public, and against monopolists and tyrants. This touched the Colonel to the quick. Forbearance ceased to be a virtue. Like a man and a politician he had stood up bravely under defeat, without a word of complaint, but when the Herald attempts to add insult to injury it rouses all the lion within him, and he hurls back at the Repudiator concern the following scorching but truthful response: PORTLAND, Friday Morning, May 6. I am under obligations to the Herald editor for the forced complimentary notice of my public services in his paper this morning. They are treasured where they will be remembered when his rotten sheet will have passed away as waste paper. Had he heeded or noticed my earnest efforts to eradicate from the Democratic mind the seeds of Repudiation which the Herald had sown broadcast, to-day our speakers would be saved the necessity of long and laboring speeches in defence of the 8th resolution, and would have ample time to pierce the works of the enemy at the weakest points, from which they have succeeded in diverting public attention to a considerable extent.

W. W. CHAPMAN. The moral we are to draw from this recital is, that although the Democratic party always make great professions of love for the working man, and is constantly promising to extend its mighty arm in defense of his threatened liberties, yet the moment the working man or his champion comes forward and boldly asks for this proffered aid and encouragement and the right to be represented in the councils of the party, that moment he is snubbed, and informed that he must take a back seat. How many more cases of similar duplicity on the part of the Democratic party will be required to prove to sensible men that all its boasts of love and veneration for the "noble workingmen," the "bone and sinew of our country," are the veriest clap-net, humbug and pretense, and are only made just on the eve of election to catch the ignorant and prejudiced?

KILLED BY HIS HORSE.—Jesse D. Walling, an old and respected citizen of Polk county, was killed by his horse running over him, on the 9th inst. Following is the Statesman's account of it: It appears that he was out on the road, as Supervisor, working a party of men. About three o'clock yesterday afternoon, his saddle horse, a young animal, got loose and started to run along the road. Mr. Walling ran in front to stop him, but the animal dashed straight on, striking him in the face and throwing him back against a log with great force. The back of his head struck a knot which penetrated the skull and he never spoke again. He was picked up, breathing, but insensible, and carried home while a physician was hastily summoned, but before Dr. Grubbs, who had been called, reached the place the old gentleman was dead. He was an old settler of Oregon, an enterprising citizen, good neighbor, kind friend, and leaves a large family to mourn his sudden loss. They have the sympathies of a host of friends, for all remember "Uncle Jesse" as a man of kind deeds. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, and no doubt the funeral will be under the auspices of that order.

WHAT NEXT.—The charge was made by Democratic journals, that Gen. Palmer "greenbacked" a coin debt due Gen. Sheridan. Sheridan denies the charge, thus proving the utter falsity of the statement. The Democratic journals charge that Judge Wilson is guilty of "greenbacking" the school fund. Judge Wilson proves that he paid the debt in coin—in currency at coin rates—and thus another unfounded lie is nailed. Who will be the next recipient of their malicious and slanderous slanders?

SEEDS OF REPUDIATION.—Col. Chapman, an old and tried Democratic wheel-horse, declares that the "organ" of the party chosen by the Democracy of Oregon in Convention assembled, has "sown the seeds of repudiation broadcast," and intimates that his efforts to "eradicate them from the Democratic mind" has proven a partial failure. So it is that we are afforded high testimony from within the Democratic party itself, that the authorities of the party are for repudiation. The leaders and standard-bearers of the party have all proclaimed in favor of repudiation; the makers of the platform, when called upon in Convention and immediately after its adjournment, for an explanation of the meaning of "equitable adjustment," put the repudiation construction upon it; a majority of the party journals, before the masses had had time to read and digest the meaning of "equitable adjustment," also pronounced in favor of repudiation. All was fair and bright until these authorities went before the people with the declaration of repudiation on their lips—then the scene changed. The old enthusiasm was not there. Lifelong Democrats hung their heads in very shame and humiliation when the doctrine of repudiation was claimed as a cardinal principle of the Democratic platform. At first, party discipline kept their lips sealed. But the disgrace was too heavy to bear; and then there came up a cry, weak at first, but soon gaining in strength and volume, until its echoes could be heard from one end of Oregon to the other—we will not suffer this terrible disgrace; down with repudiation and repudiators. And from that hour the honor and integrity of Oregon was assured. And no matter how these authorities, having felt the pulse of the people on the repudiation feature of the Democratic platform, now try to glaze over and cover up their tracks, the "dear people" will be slow to believe that a principle at first so universally received and endorsed as good, sound Democratic doctrine, can, by any new revelation or interpretation, be construed to mean anything else but dishonor and disgrace—repudiation. The moment the leaders denied their first interpretation of "equitable adjustment," that moment they sunk in the estimation of the people; and confidence in the leaders gone, the battle becomes a retreat, and the retreat a rout.

WILL GO REPUBLICAN.—The large Republican gains reported in the municipal elections throughout New Jersey, indicate that the State will go Republican by a decided majority in the next general election.

SAN DOMINGO.—The feeling against the annexation of San Domingo is thought to be stronger in the House than in the Senate, at the present time. This would seem to argue rather unfavorably for the annexationists.

THE VOTE.—It is estimated that the Emperor of France, in the vote submitted to the people, without counting the army and navy, and Algeria, has a grand majority of over 5,000,000.

HUGE CRAB.—A monster crab, measuring twelve feet, was captured on the wreck of the steamer Oneda, in the Gulf of Yeddo, recently. It has gone East for exhibition.

QUINCY, ILLINOIS.—Suffered by fire on the night of the 6th. Fifteen business houses were destroyed, involving a loss of $300,000.

GARROTED.—Gen. Goicoutia, by order of court-martial, was garroted at Fort Principe, Cuba, on the 7th inst. The General was serene and firm to the last.

CHAS. ADAMS, conductor of a construction train on the O. & C. R. R., jumped from the train while in motion, and badly injured his knee.

IT IS STATED THAT AN ATTEMPT WILL BE MADE TO BRING THE STEAMER SHOSHONOC THROUGH THE DALLES TO THE LOWER COLUMBIA DURING THE PRESENT HIGH WATER.

PRIZE FIGHT.—The prize fight between Allen and Maco was won by Allen in ten rounds, which occupied fourteen minutes.

THE ILLINOIS CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION IS EXPECTED TO ADJOURN THE PRESENT WEEK. IT WILL HAVE COST THE STATE A NEARLY LITTLE FIGURE.

THEIR LAST HOPE.—It is rumored that the Mormons are looking towards Mexico as a place of refuge.

WORK ON THE CUSTOM HOUSE AND POST OFFICE AT PORTLAND IS PROGRESSING.

MATERIAL FOR THE SALEM GAS WORKS ARRIVED AT PORTLAND ON THE ALBATROSS.

LEBANON CORRESPONDENCE. The Lodge of Good Templars elected their officers, April 30th, for the ensuing quarter. Names of the officers elected are as follows: W. C. T., J. W. George; W. V. T., Miss Mary Eckler; W. S. Mrs. J. W. George; W. T., Mrs. E. A. Judkins; W. F. S., J. N. McDonald; W. M., Miss Emma Bell; W. I. G., Mr. Vanvatter; W. O. G., S. H. Cloughton. This lodge is quite prosperous, and is doing a good work. This community is most decidedly temperance.

MR. JEREMIAH RALSTON, the proprietor of our village, expects to start on a visit to Indiana, the home of his childhood, next Tuesday. Mr. R. came to this place in 1847, and in the fall of the same year he settled on the place which he now occupies. Providence has blessed his labors in confiding to his keeping much of earth's treasures—and he is a faithful steward. It was principally through his efforts that the Santiam Academy was built. He will bear with him the best wishes of this community. May his visit be a pleasant and happy one. Our enterprising merchants, Messrs. Elkins & Son, and S. H. Cloughton have brought on fine stocks of new goods, for the Spring and Summer trade.

WE ARE A PROGRESSIVE PEOPLE. A blacksmith of our village has passed a "Sixteenth Amendment," by virtue of which all work in his line is done at just half the usual rates. Success to him. "Completion is the life of trade."

DRS. ODELL & HELM have dissolved partnership. The former remains at Lebanon, and the latter has returned to Salem.

LEBANON, MAY 10, 1870. A CLOSE CALL.—The Carson Appeal, 28th inst., says: Night before last the engineer of one of the V. & T. R. R. Co's locomotives discovered a horse, caught, as he supposed, by the bridle on a caivert which crosses the road just out of town. He started his alarm whistles, but the horse not moving off, he stopped his engine, got off and went to drive the horse away, when he discovered a man, dead drunk, lying across the track with the horse's reins in his hands. This was a mighty "close call" for this subject of John Barleycorn, and there is a good opening for his reformation. The saving of his life was the merest luck—noting else.

A CALIFORNIA STORY.—This is the way Californian rough fun is fixed up for the Eastern papers: A California letter says: "I was quite certain that the 'Shoo Fly' mania would culminate in a tragedy. News has just been received from Trinity county that a wandering minstrel troupe, which recently penetrated to that benighted region, was warned to cease singing the dirty, and, on their refusal, were granted a fair trial by the indignant natives. Their clothes didn't fit the jury, so they were permitted to depart unaccompanied, the committee donating the treasury receipts to one Jackson's widow, whose husband was lynched by mistake the day before."

A NEW APPORTIONMENT OF CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS WILL BE AN INEVITABLE RESULT OF THE CENSUS OF THE PRESENT YEAR. WERE THE PRESENT NUMBER OF REPRESENTATIVES—241—to be retained, the older States would inevitably lose some members. A bill has passed the House, however, providing for an increase of this number to 275. On this basis it is likely that all the New England States except Rhode Island will retain their present number of Representatives in the House.

NEW YORK WILL GAIN TWO; NEW JERSEY, one; Pennsylvania, one; Virginia, one; South Carolina, one; Georgia, one; Indiana, one; Illinois, five; Michigan, two; Wisconsin, two; Minnesota, two; Iowa, two; Missouri, two; Kansas, two; Maryland, one; Alabama, one; Mississippi, two; Arkansas, one; Louisiana, two; Texas, two, and New Mexico, one. The rest will remain as at present, except Kentucky, which will lose one, and Rhode Island which will lose one. The bill will undoubtedly become a law.

"WE HAVE SEVERAL TIMES CALLED ATTENTION TO THE OUTRAGEOUS CONDUCT OF G. H. WILLIAMS, IN ROBBING THE WEST SIDE OF THE RIVER OF A LAND GRANT PREVIOUSLY SECURED TO IT, AT THE DICTION AND FOR THE EMBLIMENT OF THAT ADVENTURER—BEN. HOLLADAY." Thus the Corvallis Mercury. For answer we say that "we have several times called attention" to the late Democratic Legislature, that "robbed the west side of a land grant previously secured to it," and that "G. H. Williams" had nothing whatever to do with the matter. We leave it to the Mercury to say whether that bed-rock Democratic Legislature did this "at the dictation of Ben Holladay," or not, and how large a "bribe" was paid.—Oregonian.

LUCKY.—C. E. Eaton, of Grass Valley, one of the owners of the Bovey mine near town, has struck it rich, says Nevada Gazette, in a claim which he owns near Auburn, Placer county, called the St. Patrick. At the depth of one hundred feet, rock was struck which pays $1,000 per ton. This rich strike was made on Saturday night, April 23d, and at last accounts the rock continued to be of the same quality.

AN ANCIENT SILVER MINE IN GERMANY.—The recent earthquake in Germany have occasioned the falling of a large mass of rock between Heidelberg and Weisloch, and the disclosure of a silver mine worked by the Romans. There is not much silver left, but the mine is rich in zinc minerals, which the Romans rejected.

EFFINGHAM LAWRENCE, of Louisiana, having used the steam plow for two years, concludes that it saves nearly one-half the labor of plowing, and, owing to the deeper working of the ground, the crop is nearly fifty per cent better than on ground tilled in the ordinary way. He thinks steam plows will do much towards solving the labor question in the South.

THE PRINTERS.—The following from the pen of Junius Henry Brown, is true to the letter: Printing ink begets cynicism, as dampness rheumatism, or foul air fever. There is no escaping it. Men in printing offices, whether they prepare or set copy, contract the disease and suffer from it more or less, as their mental system responds to or resists it. They are behind the scenes. They know that the golden goblets the public admires are only pasteboards; that the glittering jewels are only colored glass; that the crimson glory of the tableaux is but a flash of red fire; that the mouthing fellow who is lavish of his dukedoms is in arrears for his morning cocktail. Life is unrealized to them from the outset. It is stripped of its illusions, and false names are but echoes of emptiness. Why expect them to admire? Why ask them to be ambitious? Why look for enthusiasm in them? The printer understands how reputations are made. He knows that they are not blown forth from the trumpet of fame, but from the trumpet of him who seeks reputation by performing solos, and gets it thereby. He is aware that while genius starves, impudence fattens; that while wisdom hides in a garret, flippancy draws on the pave; that while inspirational pines, management flushes with health. He sees that the editorial language of the statesman and artist is in the statesman or artist's own hands; that honors are easy to the man that has the effrontery to ask, and the determination not to be denied. No marvel, he believes all achievement unworthy, all success a sort of cheat, all persons of eminence those who have not yet been found out.

ANOTHER PHASE.—It is now stated from Washington that it was reliably settled at Yokohama that Captain Eyre would have stopped his vessel after running into the Corvallis, but for the imploration of Lady Temple, wife of the British Minister, who was apprehensive of a shipwreck. The opinion at Yokohama is that Captain Eyre is a weak, rather than a bad man.

SINCE THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE GOVERNMENT there have been given away for the purpose of education 88,000,000 acres of the public land; 185,000,000 to build up crafty and unscrupulous men, and no less than 120,000,000 acres have been granted to corporations within the last ten years.

THE NEW YORK Herald recently introduced a long table of figures to prove that "protection" compels a man or woman to pay twenty-one cents a yard for calico, which in England can be bought for fourteen cents. Its own column of prices current answered its free trade argument. The same kind of fallacy which protection makes so dear was quoted at nine to ten cents.

THE REPORTER, in an article on the negro vote in the South, expresses strong hopes that the Democracy will shortly control it. If its statement is true, that "their ignorance renders them peculiarly liable to become the tools of demagogues," then the hopes of the Court Journal would appear to be well founded.

THE GRASS VALLEY Union very pertinently suggests that the men who go about shooting people and then plead insanity should be tried by a jury of fools, that is insane enough to hang them. In such a case the defendant would literally be tried by "a jury of his peers."

THIS IS CALLED A COLORADO ROMANCE: Seven miners exploring the mountains, found an immense chunk of gold. They fought for its possession till all were killed but one. It was too heavy for him to carry off, so he sat down beside it and starved to death.

CHINESE HUNDREYDREN have their preferences and dislikes just as much as their competitors of the other sex. One out in Iowa vents himself thus:—"Plinter man shitees wash like d—1; scrubbe skin off hands; inkec de d—1 to clean off; no want washee for plinter; chargee two dollar dozen; cuss em."

A NEW MACHINE, which makes ice by means of steam and petroleum, has been invented by Dr. Van Der Wyde, of New York. A machine capable of making ten tons a day costs $10,000.

SICK.—The Mountaineer learns from a private letter that Captain Lyon, United States Consul at Kanagawa, Japan, is lying very ill with hemorrhage of the lungs.

THE GIRLS OF TROY, New York, sleep with revolvers under their pillows. It is unsafe to bugle anywhere in that vicinity.

THE HEAVIEST LOAD.—A ten-horse team with one wagon and three back actions, last week hauled seventy-three thousand and fifty pounds of silver ore at one load from the Overman mine to Briggs' mill, below Silver City, Nevada. The total weight hauled, including the wagon, was ninety thousand six hundred and ninety pounds. The Gold Hill News pronounces this the heaviest load ever hauled on wagon wheels.

FROM ELDER FISHER we learn, says the Mountaineer, that Mr. Creighton shot last Friday, on Three Mile Creek, a lynx that measured something over three feet from the tip of its nose to the end of its tail. Mr. Creighton sent one of the paws which is about the size of that belonging to a large Newfoundland dog. This is the first animal of the kind we ever heard of in this section.

BUSINESS.—"When he shot at me the third time," said a California teamster, speaking of a ruffian who attempted to assassinate him—"when he shot at me the third time, I began to think he meant business; I up with my rifle and put a bullet into his head."

A NEW THING.—A noted gambler has invented a new thing for cheating in gambling. It consists of a small mirror set in a finger ring, which, put on the little finger of the right hand, enables the dealer to see every card he deals to his opponent.

EMIGRANTS.—Over 10,000 emigrants arrived in New York last week.

WEST SIDE RAILROAD. A dispatch from Mr. J. Gaston, dated Philadelphia, May 11, 1870, to the Oregonian, states that iron and rolling stock sufficient for twenty miles of road have been purchased for the West Side Railroad. This news will be welcomed by our citizens, as it gives assurance of the early construction of another element of wealth in our State. Hurray for the West Side Railroad, and all honor to those who have labored so earnestly in its behalf.

BREVET MAJOR General Julius Hayden has been retired in consequence of wounds received in the service.

BAD ROADS.—The roads over the Blue Mountains are said to be in a worse condition now than for many years previous.

GOING TO WORK.—The Ellendale Wollen Mills has resumed work. The construction of water works are being talked of in Salem.

FRESHETS ARE REPORTED IN Eastern Oregon. Many fences have been carried away and fears are entertained that some of the mills will be seriously damaged.

THE NUMBER OF BILLS pending before Congress, appropriating the public lands, is stated to be over 170, appropriating over 250,000,000 acres.

IT'S A GOOD THING TO HAVE a cat in the house. Mrs. Sexton, of Portsmouth, N. H., doubted the honorable intentions of her husband, who thought some milk punch was good for what ailed her, so she gave some of the milk to a cat. Pussy passed in her chaps in about ten minutes, and Mr. Sexton was arrested for trying to divorce himself.

A woman at Hannibal, Missouri, read in the papers that it was fashionable to powder the hair for parties, so she put on her blonde hair a quantity of gunpowder which looked well until she got too near the gas, when there was a little explosive circus, and she fainted all over the house.

ITS REDDITION.—"And Satan smote Job with boils" is re-dered: "And Satan smote Job with circumscribed subcutaneous inflammations, characterized by pointed tumors, and suppurating with central cores."

Twenty thousand bushels of corn were shipped by one firm in Omaha, one day lately, to New York, via the Missouri and Mississippi rivers and the ocean at the rate of 50¢ cents per one hundred.

Not long ago a western youth who had been wheedled into a marriage which his subsequent judgment could not approve, commenced a suit of divorce. When the wife heard it she was naturally indignant, and demanded of the youthful Benedict to assign a reasonable cause for his proceedings.

"You are older than I am," said he. "You knew that before we were married," was the indignant answer. "You pad."

"Everybody does that, sir." "You wear false teeth." "Certainly; but it is not a crime." "There's more make-up about you than hair."

"What then?" "Your hair, chignon and waterfall weigh more than you do." "Well!" "Well, it's a dead woman." "Well!" "Well, I won't live with a dead woman, or any part of her!" The youth went away.

NEW ITEMS. At San Francisco, on the 24th, several slight earthquake shocks occurred, which are described by a dispatch as "light and healthy."

The science of sorrow—Sighology. There is an old fashioned parlor game that has never been improved upon, and that is courting.

Those who climb the Alps do so just for the pleasure of exclaiming when they reach the summit, "How's this for high?" A few days ago a herd of 2,500 buffalo crossed the Union Pacific track a short distance west of Laramie City.

Touching and irresistible was the invitation of the rustic maiden to her loving swain: "Come over and see me; we have a new lamp in our house that we can turn down, until there isn't scarcely a bit of light in the room." He went.

Three thousand persons have starved to death in England during the past ten years. A Georgian lately paid for a bushel of meal in gophers, and received three mad-turtles in change.

A Detroit student has thrashed his room mate just because he put a pound of powder into the stove and went out for the evening.

Financial and Commercial. Late advices quote wheat in Liverpool at 9s 9d—an advance.

Legal tenders in San Francisco, 87½c in Portland 88c. Flour—Since our last quotations flour has advanced from $4 50@5 to $5 50@6.

Wheat—Choice sold at $1 75@1 80 @ 100 lbs.—an advance of 6c since Saturday.

Oats—Quiet but firm at $1 35@1 55. Bran—Supply concentrated and the price advanced $10 per ton in less than a week. Present quotation, $25.

Middlings—Feed descriptions $27 50—an advance of 8c since the 4th inst.

Eggs—Oregon, quotable at 20@25¢ per dozen. Our markets remain unchanged, with the exception of wheat, which has advanced to 61@66 cents per bushel.

Produce in good supply at previous rates. Seeding has been vigorously prosecuted during the late fine weather, and our farmers seem to be in a much better and happier humor than three weeks since. Everything bids fair for the usual heavy crops in Linn at present.

Public Speaking. The Republican and Democratic candidates for Congress, Messrs. Wilson and Slater, have published the following appointments for addressing the voters of Oregon: Albany, " 14, at 1 o'clock P. M. Corvallis, " 16, " " " " " 17, " " " " " 18, " " " " " 20, " " " " " 21, " " " " " 22, " " " " " 23, " " " " " 24, in the evening.

Further appointments will be made as the canvass progresses.

For Assessor, H. C. POWELL. For Surveyor, J. A. WARNER. For Coroner, D. M. THOMPSON.

EAGLE WOOLEN MILLS. Although it is not known for a certainty that this factory is going to run this Summer, our friend Wheeler, who has established such an enviable reputation for low prices and fair dealing, as well as for the excellent quality of the goods kept, has on hand a largely increased stock, which he intends to sell at the same reasonable rates as heretofore.

Our friends in that vicinity will do well to make a note of this.

WILLIAM DAVIDSON, Office, No. 64 Front Street, Adjoining the Telegraph Office, Portland, Oregon.

Special Collector of Claims, Accounts, Notes, Drafts, and Mercantile Claims of every description throughout Oregon and the Territory. WILL BE MADE A SPECIALTY AND PROMPTLY COLLECTED, as well as with a due regard to economy in all business matters intrusted to his care and the proceeds paid over punctually.

Notice. THE CO-PARTNERSHIP of the undersigned doing business in Albany, Linn county, Oregon, under the firm name of O. P. Thompson & Co., is dissolved by mutual consent, to take effect from the 5th instant. W. H. McFarland has purchased the entire stock of merchandise, also the notes and accounts due the firm. He will continue the business under the firm name of W. H. McFarland & Co. Either party will sign in liquidation. O. P. THOMPSON, W. H. MCFARLAND, Albany, May 9, 1870-450.

$2,000 BET ON THE ELECTION! Any one who wants to win can do so by calling on R. C. HILL & SON, WHO, thankful for past patronage, still invite the attention of Linn county, et al, to their unequalled stock of DRUGS, MEDICINES, CHEMICALS, PAINT & VARNISH BRUSHES, PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES, ALCOHOL, KEROSENE, WINDOW GLASS, TRUSSSES, FANCY AND TOILET ARTICLES, ETC.

Agents for Dr. D. Jayne & Son's preparations, H. H. H. Home Medical, etc. Do you like medicine for its bitter or nauseating taste? We have that description. Do you want the effect with an aromatic taste? After taking a few doses of our Elixir, (will be so very pleasant that your prejudices must entirely turn away, and the preparation will lose the name of "phlegm" (but not the effect.) Physicians and customers from the country may rest assured that their orders will be promptly attended to. Prescriptions carefully and correctly compounded.

Have you the impolite guest called a corn? We sell "Corn Slayes," which surely does the work, without pain. Do you desire a book of any kind, a Gold Pen, an Album, Stationery, or snuff? We S. Driggs is with us, for the accommodation of all favoring him with a call.

Do you want a fine Watch, a set of Jewelry, cheap or dear? J. D. Titus sells the same, under the same roof. Come and see us. Buy a Book, Buy a Watch, Buy a Pen. Buy something or nothing, but come and see us, anyway. A well appointed floor and a cool drink of water in the summer, and a warm stove surrounded by comfortable chairs in winter, constantly kept for the accommodation of all. Albany, May 11, '70-36
