LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Messrs. Powell and Butler, Republican and Democratic candidates for District Attorney of the Judicial District, will address the citizens of Linn county as follows:

Peoria, Monday, May 23d, at 1 P. M. Harrisburg, Tuesday, " 24 " Brownsville, Wednesday, " 25 " Lebanon, Thursday, " 26 " Scio, Friday, " 27 " Albany, Saturday, " 28 "

PUBLIC SPEAKING ON SATURDAY.—As previously announced, the Republican and Democratic candidates for Congress, Messrs. J. G. Wilson and J. H. Slater, addressed the citizens of this city, at the Court House, on last Saturday afternoon.

When Mr. Slater arose to make his defense of the principles contained in the Democratic platform, it was patent to every observer, from his trepidation, his downcast look, his nervousness, and at times his incoherent utterance, that he felt the impossibility of even an attempt to combat the sound logic and unanswerable arguments of Mr. Wilson.

A FAMILY MEDICINE.—We cheerfully call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the favorite home remedy, Perry Davis' Pain Killer. This medicine has been before the public more than thirty years, and to-day has a reputation unsurpassed by any other remedial agent offered to the public.

SABBATH SERVICES.—Rev. I. D. Driver, agent of the Bible Society, assisted by the various ministers of this city, held services, morning and evening of last Sabbath, at the Court House.

CELEBRATION.—What has gone up to a much better figure, during the last few days, than it has raised at for many months previously, and the probability is that it will rise still higher before the price recedes.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. For Congress, J. G. WILSON, of Wasco. For Governor, JOEL PALMER, of Yamhill.

TERMINAL ACCIDENT.—Information reached us on Wednesday, that Mr. Aaron Cornelius, while at work in a saw mill at Eugene City, on the 17th inst., was in some manner caught and thrown against a saw, and the saw being in motion, completely severed one of his arms, and so terribly lacerated his back that it was thought impossible for him to recover.

INTERNAL REVENUE, ETC.—Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, W. Chapman, Esq., gives notice that he will visit this city for the purpose of collecting income and special tax as per annual list, on the 27th and 28th days of the present month.

JUST IN TIME.—The rain fell during the week was just as welcome as could be to our agricultural friends, as the ground had become baked so hard that it was next to impossible to plow through it.

A. C. Jones' Record. The further we look into the record of A. C. Jones, Democratic candidate for County Clerk, the richer it gets.

THE PIXLEY SISTERS.—Assisted by a full company, give entertainments to the citizens of this city on Friday and Saturday nights of the present week, at Parrish Hall.

THE WESTERN MONTHLY.—For May, is rich in mental pulsation. This magazine stands rank with the very best in the country, and is rapidly growing in public favor.
