LOCAL AFFAIRS

HEFTY.—The giants and giant, the beautiful Circassian and the Lilliput, displayed themselves to admiring audiences in this city on Wednesday and Thursday. Miss Anna Swan, if divided up, would make several very respectable sized women—there is entirely too much sweetness wasted on one woman, in her case, in our opinion. Her ponderosity is astounding, Nature having overdone the job. Monsieur Joseph is the largest man of his size we ever met anywhere to see, and his bigness seems to set well on him. It seems from all we were enabled to learn from "interviewing" him, that he was born young, and took to growing with such alacrity that the family thought seriously of putting up a house for his special accommodation. But, fortunately or unfortunately, in his boyhood he was "tuck" with the measles, and it took them so long to "through him," that he became discouraged and concluded to dry up on the grow, and show his present length—a lengthy conclusion, to be sure. He is quite an artist—at least he is credited with drawing a great many houses, which also might be taken as indicating great strength. He is credited with a length of ninety-six inches from head to heel, and weighs one-fifth of a ton at least. He is a finely proportioned gentleman, a sociable and pleasant talker, and takes his hash cooked. The Circassian beauty looked and talked well, and sold card photographs of herself at two and four bits each. Her willingness to trust our "local" to the amount of 25 cents, induced us to believe that the milk of human kindness in her breast would bust her up, financially, in less than three weeks. (However, the handsomness of our aforesaid "local" may have induced the unusual confidence.) Her hair stood on end like "perpetual" porcupine quills, only more so, and of a much finer quality. She looked—but we haven't time to go any further into this subject—those who didn't gaze upon her, lost a big thing in the "look" line. Major Green, of one of the first families of Virginia, 38 inches high, 45 pounds weight, and 32 years old to a hair pin, is as large as men of his size and age, and is really the smallest giant in the lot, although he seemed to attract the greatest share of attention. He is all that the "bills" claim for him, and seems to be a very pleasant little gentleman. It was a very well attended show, and a great many dollars were taken from this community and transferred to other pockets. Good bye, giants, giant, Circassian and Lilliput—may your journeyings through Oregon be pleasant and profitable.

CIRCUS.—Nelson's South American Hippodrome and Circus, which met with such immense success during an extended engagement in San Francisco recently, and is now performing to delighted audiences through Southern Oregon, will give performances at Harrisburg on Tuesday, the 5th inst., at Brownsville on the 6th, at Corvallis on the 7th, and in this city on July the 8th. Of the performances of the Nelson Brothers the San Francisco Call says: They are wonders of accuracy and neatness. The most apparently impossible feats are, seemingly, to them, like the careless gambols of children, while their strength must be something awful. To describe their acts were impossible, as they flash through the air with such rapidity that one pose is no sooner taken than another follows in the twinkling of an eye. James Cooke, the Clown, is said to be the most refined and best educated wit on the coast. It is, all through, the best circus that has ever delighted Oregonians. It presents an array of artists seldom seen under one canvass. Two performances will be given on next Friday—afternoon and night. Go early to secure choice of seats.

THE FOURTH.—As there is to be no general celebration here on Monday, our citizens generally are looking out for some other spot where the day is to be appropriately honored. The Odd Fellows will have a private party at Soda Springs, and with croquet and other amusements, will doubtless have a pleasant time. Some of our citizens will go to Corvallis; others, and probably the largest number, will go to Salem, some in buggies and others on the P. T. Co.'s steamer, which will leave Messrs. Beach & Montoith's wharf at 5 o'clock Monday morning. Numbers will attend the Southern Methodist camp-meeting in the Forks of the Santiam, or the M. E. Church camp-meeting near Lebanon. Altogether we expect our city will present a deserted appearance on the 4th.

PUTTING ON FRILLS.—The Scio flouring mill, Mr. H. L. Turner, proprietor, is to receive an entire overhauling and repairing, a large warehouse for storing grain added, the dam rebuilt and made stronger, and other improvements made, which, when completed, will place the mill among the first in the State. Enterprise and energy will meet with due reward.

GOING TO SALEM.—The Salem Fire Companies have extended an invitation to Albany Fire Company to participate with them in the celebration of the Fourth—next Monday. Our boys have accepted, and will start for Salem at an early hour on Monday morning, taking passage on one of the P. T. Company's boats. It will doubtless be an enjoyable occasion, as everything has been provided by the citizens of Salem, with their proverbial liberality, to make the occasion a complete success. The "Plug Uglies," will appear during the day, clothed in the habiliments of the ancient and honorable order—a big feature of the day. A ball at night will wind up the day's enjoyment.

DISTRICT COURT.—U. S. Marshal, Thos. G. Young, made a flying visit to this section of the country last week, his business being to notify certain gentlemen to whom they had been duly drawn, and were expected to serve as jurors at a term of the U. S. District Court for Oregon, to be held in Portland, July 11th, 1870. The following gentlemen were "notified" in this city: W. Montoith, D. Beach, J. H. Foster, S. E. Young, Jno. Conner, S. S. Markham and Chas. Mealey. Mr. Brassfield, of Harrisburg, was also included among the representatives from Linn.

WM. CURRIER & Co.—At 103, Front street, Portland, have the most complete and stylish stock of clothing and gentlemen's furnishing goods to be met with in the State. It may not be as large as some, but the articles are of better stock and later cut, and for less price. We know from experience. If you want a real tasty and well got up suit, at low figures, go to Wm. Currier & Co.'s when in Portland. Read their card in this issue.

FINGERS SAWED OFF.—From the News we learn that the son of Hiram Bishop, living near Scio, on Thursday last week, while working in the saw mill of Donahoe & Coffey, fell against the saw, when three fingers of the right hand were taken off and the forefinger sawed through to the bone, though it may possibly be saved. The hand was otherwise lacerated and torn.

INSURANCE.—Every business man acknowledges the benefit arising from insuring against the accidents of fire. One of the very best companies taking fire risks on this coast is the Phoenix of Hartford. It takes risks at low rates, and deals equitably and justly with its customers. We refer to the advertisement of this Company in this issue, and ask the attention of those not insured to it. L. Flinn, Esq., is the agent for this city, to whom applications should be made for policies.

ALL SELECTED.—Mr. Douthitt has completed the selection of lands granted by the United States Government to found an Agricultural College in Oregon. The amount donated was 50,000 acres, all of which has been located in the valleys of Goose Lake, Lost River, Sprague River, Summer Lake, and one or two other little valleys.

DENTAL.—Dr. Geo. W. Gray is a superior Dentist, and will engage to do all work in his line in the most satisfactory manner at moderate rates. Persons having decayed or broken teeth and who dread the operation of pulling, can dismiss all alarm, as Dr. Gray is fully prepared to extract teeth without giving the patient a particle of pain. His office is in the Parrish brick, up stairs.

CAMPMEETING.—Over in the Forks of the Santiam, commenced yesterday, we believe. Everything in the shape of a vehicle in the city has been secured for the occasion, and if the weather is not stormy, there will be an immense gathering on the grounds to-morrow.

BATH TUBS.—We notice that Mr. John Briggs, at the "Old Stove Depot," has a supply of bath tubs, for children's use. The free use of water, in the way of bathing, among the little folks has saved much sickness and many a doctor's bill.

RAIN.—Has been quite "numerous" part of the present week. We merely mention this that the hombre who borrowed our "ambriel" without leave, may return it in the same unceremonious manner.

FINISHING LUMBER.—A new saw mill has been erected east of Scio, on the Quartzville road, by Messrs. Bryant & Co., in "White Pine Mountains," and several thousand feet of this lumber already awaits purchasers.

BLACKBERRIES.—Now ripe, are so thick, a short distance from this city, that you can shake a stick at them. We think of trying it, just to see if it can be did!

SUSPENDED.—We are informed that the Scio News is to be suspended for several weeks, as Dr. King intends making Coos Bay a visit on business.

CATTLE SALE.—J. M. Johns, Esq., of Scio, sold a hundred head of yearling cattle last week at thirteen dollars and a quarter per head.

PICNIC.—The Sabbath School at Knox's Butte will give a picnic on Friday, July 15th 1870. Other Schools in the county are invited to attend, bringing their own speakers, singers, etc. Come one, come all.
