The secret treaty mentioned in our dispatches as alleged to have been proposed by France to Prussia, was the guarantee on the part of Napoleon of a German Confederation, to include North and South Germany, for which Prussia was to lend her influence to help France acquire Luxemburg and absorb Belgium.

A fire at San Mateo (Cal.), on the 25th destroyed the fine private residence of A. H. Jordan with most of its contents. The house was erected eight months ago at a cost of $16,000. Insured for $14.-000. The library, destroyed by the fire, was said to be the most valuable on the coast.

The New York Herald, contrary to the ceneral opinion, holds that the war in Europe will immensely increase the flow of emigrants to this country. It says : "Every careful father who can gather the cash and scents the conscription afar off is paying the passage of his boys to America. From America they may return home again richer than they went, or the father, perchance may follow on, the voyage; from the army they would probably never return.
