NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

"GAY" NEWS.
Farmers Can Ride and Plow,
BY SECURING ONE OF THE
"GAY" PLOWS,
Manufactured and sold for the very low price of $65 and $75.

THE simplicity and practicality of this new Plow commends it favorably to the special notice of every farmer. It possesses a decided superiority over all other plows now in use. The wheels are four feet in diameter, and run on the unplowed land. Its entire construction is in no way complicated. The plow is managed in every manner with ease, and requires only two levers to be used in making any alteration. The superiority of the "Gay" Plow will be clearly shown by the following certificate:

We, the undersigned, citizens of Linn county, Oregon, having purchased and used upon our farms the "Gay" Plow, hereby certify, that the same has given us entire satisfaction. Its facility for adjusting to suit the depth of furrows without moving from the seat, is simple and easy. We like the plow for its draught, because the same is brought to bear directly upon the plow-beam instead of the carriage; also, because it is strong and durable, all except the wood-work being constructed of wrought iron—no castings are used. The wheels running upon the unplowed land is an advantage over other gang-plows, in striking off land and in plowing, not having to make the necessary changes in the machinery, and the seat is always level, not the wing the driver forward or sideways as in other plows. Better work and more of it can be accomplished by the use of this Plow than by hand.

We take pleasure in recommending the "Gay" Plow to our brother farmers, as one having no superior in Oregon.
J. G. REED, W. P. ESHOM,
A. S. LOONEY, E. W. PIKE,
W. H. GOLTREE, H. DAVIDSON.

TELEGRAPHIC.

(SPECIAL TO THE REGISTER.)
Dates to August 1st.

BERLIN, July 29.—A detachment of French troops, consisting of three companies of Infantry and eighty Cavalrymen, attacked half a regiment of Prussian Infantry to-day, at Rockinger. The French troops were repulsed, with the loss of one officer and eight men. One Prussian soldier wounded.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Captain Samuels, of the Dawdless, has mysteriously disappeared. It is reported that he lost thirty thousand dollars on the race, and had succumbed in consequence.

LONDON, July 29.—The Bank of England has advanced the rate of interest to five per cent.

Many additional failures were announced yesterday. Riverton, Holowell & Crabtree, wool dealers, Bradford, who were largely interested in the American trade, stopped yesterday. Also, seven failures reported at the Stock Exchange of this city, and the Cotton Market, Liverpool. Business almost entirely suspended.

LONDON, July 29.—Another account of yesterday's skirmish says, a detachment of five hundred French Infantry and Cavalry crossed the frontier and attacked six hundred Prussian Infantry, near Barkening. The engagement lasted half an hour. The French retreated, leaving one officer and eight soldiers on the field of battle. Prussian loss, one man seriously, and two slightly wounded.

BERLIN, July 29.—It is generally believed here that a decisive battle will be fought to-day or by to-morrow at the farthest.

LONDON, July 29.—A rumor is current on the street to-day, that successful negotiations have been completed between Lord Lyons and Grammont, at Paris, by which the preservation of peace is assured; but the rumor is not generally credited.

War panic at the Stock Exchange is unabated. More failures are announced.

PARIS, July 29.—Several newspaper correspondents, principally English and American, were arrested at Metz. They were cautioned and liberated.

Large bodies of French troops are moving north from Metz.

LONDON, July 29.—Popular excitement at the course pursued by the British Government is very great. The people insist on peremptory notice being given to France, that England will oppose with her whole strength any extension of French power on the continent.

BERLIN, July 29.—A general movement along the Prussian line commenced METZ, July 29.—Great excitement prevails here at the news that Prussian forces are moving.

The German press is very bitter on England for supplying the French fleet with coal.

Prince Napoleon's loyalty, in case of defeat, is questioned. Gen. Leubouf positively refuses to give him a division. He is at present on the Emperor's staff. Anna Cora Moritt died yesterday.

The London Times regrets the recall of the American Minister, Motley, and says that fickleness is the reproach of Republicans.

LONDON, July 30th.—Bets are freely offered here that the Prussian army will be at Paris in a fortnight.

PARIS, July 30th.—The Emperor's reception at Metz was very enthusiastic. Martial law has been declared in the French towns near the Rhine border.

The journal Official denies the story that one hundred French troops invaded Luxembourg.

The French journals this morning say the Prussians have 300,000 men at Treves, 100,000 in the Black Forest, 200,000 near Mayence, 100,000 in Schleswig and 80,000 near Berlin.

The triangle between Treves, Mayence and the river Toule is well filled with soldiers.

VIENNA, July 30th.—Austria will establish a steam line from Trieste to Southampton, to connect with the American lines.

PARIS, July 30th.—French Senator Geiser, proprietor of large factories near Saratouga, has been expelled from the Prussian territory.

The Emperor assumed chief command of the army to-day.

Up to this date there has been no serious engagements; all rumors to the contrary are false.

Count Bismarck will take the field, in command of his regiment.

Belgium has 100,000 men in arms guarding her frontier.

The English home force is only 30,000 strong.

This morning the French made an attack on Saarbrucken with a large force, but were vigorously repulsed.

PARIS, July 30th.—France manufactures fifty thousand chassepot rifles per week.

A large force of Bazain's division attacked the Prussians at Saarbrucken, but were repulsed, and retreated, leaving one gun and losing twenty men. The Prussians lost eight men in the engagement.

Austria is making formidable military preparations, as she fears Bismarck will break on her neutrality.

LONDON, July 31st.—Continued skirmishing reported between the French and Prussian forces at Saarbrucken. Some French cavalry were repulsed with the loss of thirteen men.

The destruction of the French railway at Biege was complete.

Another skirmish occurred near Saratouga. The French retreated, leaving one officer and eight men dead on the field, while the Prussians had thirty men severely wounded.

At a banquet in London, Gladstone alluded to the war as the most mournful and miserable ever witnessed by man, and said England's first duty was neutrality, and second, preparations for the worst.

PARIS, August 1st.—Bourse opened quiet at 66.40.

No news of serious engagement up to three P. M.

LONDON, August 1st.—4.30 P. M.—No news of a battle as yet, but the streets are full of rumors, one of which is to the effect that the French fleet attacked the defenses of Hamburg. The rumor, however, is discredited.

The decree issued by Prussia prohibiting exports, is ascribed to the probable existence of a blockade.

ROME, August 1st.—His Holiness yesterday received Gen. Dumont, commandant of the French troops. Another detachment of the French army left Civita Vecchia for Marsilles on Sunday.

NEW YORK, August 1st.—The funeral of Nathan was attended by an immense crowd.

MEMPHIS, August 1st.—1.30 P. M.—Another terrible steamboat disaster occurred thirty miles above here, the steamer Silver Spray, running from Cincinnati to New Orleans, exploded her boilers, killing and wounding an immense number of the passengers and crew. Steamer burned to the water's edge.

PARIS, August 1st.—The press deny rumors of fighting on the Rhine.

The N. Y. Herald's special says, immense preparations are making in Prussia for war. The fine parks in Cologne, and the banker Oppenheim's Chateau and grounds, are used for defensive purposes. A large force is camped on the heights to protect coal miners and the railroads.

It is rumored that Prussia will increase her force to one million and a quarter, and advance on France.

The N. Y. Tribune's correspondent says, the French soldiers have nothing to eat, and they are raiding on the Prussian outskirts to dig potatoes.

The same authority says that the French shooting is very poor, while on the other hand the Prussians are steady and good marksmen.

An attack by the French yesterday was vigorously repulsed at Saarbrucken.

The feeling in Denmark decidedly favors France.

Mayence is in a state of siege, and the country between Coblenz and Mayence is cut up in trenches.

Austria and Italy have agreed on neutrality.

OUR INVITE.—We received an invitation to attend the opening of Bancroft's new book establishment, which transpired on the 30 of July. We did intend to go as much as could be, but we didn't know that they intended to have an "opening," nor the fact that the 30th was the grand day, until Monday, August 1st—two days after the "jollarity" was over. We regret this very much, not so much on our own account as the Bancroft's, as it must have been a hum-drum affair without our presence;—in fact we shouldn't be at all surprised to hear that the "opening" had been postponed on our account. However, for fear the B. B.'s may feel chagrined because we received our invite two days after the show, we hereby inform them that upon the receipt of a few reams of "unruled cap" express paid, we'll look over the matter this time.

RED CLOUD'S WAR RECORD.—Red Cloud is now, and has been for more than twenty years, head chief of the Sioux nation. He (as are all others) is of the Ogallala tribe, and has a history which, if written in extenso, would be a remarkable one. He is 53 years of age, and has been engaged in eighty-seven battles, in which he received a great many wounds, none of them, however, of a serious nature. These battles have been with the Pawnees, Snakes, Blackfeet, Utes, Crows, and Omahas. In a battle which occurred thirty-three years ago, when he was one of the youngest of the braves, he engaged with a party of one hundred and twenty-five warriors of his tribe, only twenty-five warriors of whom escaped death. He was wounded twice, and so distinguished himself for bravery that he was made a chief as a reward for his gallantry and prowess. From that time he rapidly rose in rank, until he obtained the eminent position which he holds to-day. He is looked upon by his people as one of the greatest warriors that ever wielded the death-dealing tomahawk, while in the councils his sagacity and eloquence have gained for him not only the admiration and respect, but the implicit obedience of all subjects.
