LOCAL AFFAIRS

TEN YEARS IN WALL STREET.—Mrs. Millett has laid on our table a work bearing the above title, for which she is now soliciting subscribers in this State. It is a well written, neatly bound, and handsomely illustrated work, containing 586 pages, just issued from the press, and has already attained a wide circulation. From its pages you can learn all about the meaning of such terms as puts, calls, flyers, bulls, bears, turns, washes, etc; how the great panics in gold are managed; the mysteries of the "gold room"; the rise and fall of the gold and stock market, and many other things of interest connected with Wall Street. It also contains biographical sketches of the great money kings, Vanderbilt, Jerome, Drew, Jay Gould, Jas. Fisk, Jr., and many others. It is decidedly the most refreshing book of the season—it "knocks the spots off" all of 'em. Mrs. Millett will canvass this city next week, and we advise every one to subscribe for the most entertaining and instructive work yet offered for their perusal.

SPLENDID MAP.—Just now a reliable map of the scene of war is a most desirable attainment. To get the correct names of the points where battles are fought, and for other valuable information sought by the general public, who are deeply interested in all that relates to the Franco-Prussian war, we can unhesitatingly recommend Lloyd's Map of Europe and North America,—a double map. On one side is a full and accurate map of Europe, and on the reverse, the North American continent. It is the most complete, fullest and handiest for reference, in the map line, that has yet been published. Our townsman, John Smith, Esq., has them for sale, and he will be pleased to furnish, already for hanging, any number of these superior maps, to those of our citizens who wish to post themselves in the geography of the country, now swarming with armed legions on bloody war intent.

PERSONAL.—We received a call from Mr. S. M. Holdredge, general agent for the New England Life, of Boston, on Tuesday. Mr. H. is a very pleasant gentleman, and is an able advocate of the interest he represents. The New England, he informs us, is flourishing, daily gaining in popularity and prosperity.

Mr. J. M. Morehead, traveling agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Manufacturing Co., dropped in on us Monday. He is introducing the manufactures of the Co. on this coast.

Gov. Ballard, late of Idaho, arrived in this city on Tuesday. He intends making this his future home here.

Dr. D. T. Morgan, of San Francisco, lectured on the "disease of the eye and its treatment," at the Court House, on Tuesday night.

Mr. Bellinger, late editor of the Democrat, and Mr. Burmester, his law partner, propose to leave this city shortly for Portland, there to enter into the practice of law. We wish them the fullest success in their new home.

PUBLIC SALES.—S. M. Pennington, Esq., the administrator of the estate of Isaiah Mercier, deceased, will sell at public outcry, on the 10th day of September, lot 5 in block 10, and lot 2 in block 16, in this city. Both lots are valuable. See advertisement elsewhere.

Also, Messrs. Hiram Smith and John Martin, executors, will sell two valuable tracts of land, in township 15, belonging to the estate of the late Thomas Martin, on Tuesday, the 6th day of September, at the Court House door in this city. For particulars see new advertisement elsewhere.

Also, Jane Clive, guardian, will sell, on the 10th day of September, three acres of land in the original donation land claim of Geo. Clive, in this county. Terms, cash down.

OLD AND NEW.—W. E. Loomis, news agent of San Francisco, sends us a new magazine entitled as above. A glance through its pages convinces us that it is a first class monthly, deserving well of the reading public. It numbers among its contributors some of the best talent in America, among whom we mention Beecher, Chadwick, Emerson, James, Stebbins, gentlemen all well known to fame, and among its lady contributors, Emma Converse, M. A. Dodge, L. P. Hale, and many others. It is furnished to subscribers at $4 per year, by H. O. Houghton & Co., Boston, Mass.

A HANDY CALENDAR.—We are under obligations to Mr. J. C. Mendenhall, Real Estate and Insurance agent of this city, for something new, neat and handy in the shape of a calendar. It is issued by the Union Fire Insurance Co. of San Francisco, and is ahead of anything we have yet seen in the line.

CORVALLIS COLLEGE.—Some one has forwarded us a catalogue of the Corvallis College, being the fifth issued by that institution. The attendance, during the last College year was very favorable indeed, and we should judge the institution was in a most flourishing condition.

RUNAWAY AT LEBANON.—On last Monday, Mr. Wm. S. Elkins and his wife were considerably hurt by the running away of a team. Mrs. Elkins just got into the wagon, and Mr. Elkins was hitching the last trace, when the horses started. Mr. E. jumped for the lines, but succeeded in getting hold of but one, to which he held until it was forced from his grasp. He was dragged a considerable distance, when the wagon passed over his right foot, fracturing some of the bones, causing a painful wound, which will compel him to go on crutches for some time. Mrs. Elkins got over the spring seat into the wagon bed, and rolled out at the rear end of the wagon, falling on her head and shoulders. When picked up she was insensible, but soon revived upon receiving proper attention, and was found, beyond receiving some pretty severe bruises upon the face and shoulders, not to have received any serious damage. The team ran at full speed some two miles out on the prairie, carrying part of the wagon with them, and, with the exception of breaking a doubletree, neither horses or wagon were damaged by the fracas. Under the treatment of Dr. Odell, of Lebanon, Mr. Elkins is getting along finely.

JEWELRY—CLOCKS.—Mr. Titus has received, during the week, a fine assortment of the latest styles of jewelry, to which he calls the attention of the ladies and gentlemen of Linn. He has also received a new assortment of clocks, and now has almost any size and priced clock that the public may need. His fair dealing and low prices has given him an enviable reputation throughout this portion of the valley.

Mrs. Geo. Vernon died suddenly, at her residence about eight miles south of this city, on Thursday night of last week. She retired at the usual hour, apparently in good health, and was found to have expired, some time during the night, by her children, who attempted to wake her the next morning. Mr. Vernon was absent from home, harvesting, on the night in question. She is supposed to have died of heart disease. She leaves four small children.

WANTED.—Mr. E. Cartwright, at the Froman Buildings, wishes to purchase 150,000 bushels of wheat. He gives notice also that he has on hand 50,000 sacks for those who sell or store grain with him. Those who have contracted their flax seed to the Pioneer Oil Co., are requested to call at the same place for sacks. Read his ad. this morning.

HOMESTEAD LOTS.—Judge Thornton has had those homestead lots surveyed, just across the river in Benton, and is now offering them, through Mr. J. C. Mendenhall, Real Estate agent of this city, for sale at $120 each. Each lot contains six acres, and will prove valuable property in the future.

BAFFLE ITEMS.—Mr. John Briggs, of the Old Store Store, is preparing for winter by re-roofing his shop, and otherwise improving his looks.

Mr. Gradwohl, on corner of First and Ferry, has as neat and tastily arranged stock of goods as are to be found in the city.

Mr. Brenner has boxed up and shipped his stock of goods to Brownsville, where he intends doing business hereafter. Success to the old boy.

Messrs. Montgomery & Bartzges lost a valuable horse last week. Mountain fever "was the matter of it."

The St. Charles, under the management of Mr. H. Brenner, is a big success.

Our "job work" has kept us rushing during the week.

J. C. Mendenhall, Esq., has removed his real estate office into the second story of the Parrish brick, where those who wish to purchase or sell real estate should call.

The new picket fence around Court House block is nearly finished, and looks neat.

Repairing street crossings and sidewalks the order of the week.

Read B. Brenner's new ad.

Persons who wish, can have the REGISTER EXTRA left at their places of business or residences, issued every day (Sunday excepted), for the sum of twenty five cents per week. It will contain a digest of the latest war news, received at 9 o'clock each morning.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY is no Patent Medicine humbug gotten up to dope the ignorant and credulous, nor is it represented as being "composed of rare and precious substances, brought from the four corners of the earth, carried seven times across the Great Desert of Sahara, on the backs of fourteen camels, and brought across the Atlantic Ocean on two ships." It is a mild, soothing, pleasant Remedy, a perfect Specific for Chronic Nasal Catarrh, "Cold in the head," and kindred diseases. The proprietor, R. V. Pierce, M. D., of Buffalo, N. Y., (whose private Government Stamp is on every package of the Genuine,) offers a reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh he cannot cure. For sale by druggists. Sent by mail, postpaid, for sixty cents. Address the proprietor as above.

WHEAT RECEIPTS.—For the week ending August 4th, are as follows: Magnolia Mills, 4,600, bushels and 57 pounds; Albany Steam Mills, 2,793 bushels and 59 pounds.

He Still Lives! As the earth revolves around on its axis once in twenty-four hours, the Sun shines by day, the Moon and Stars by night, and the seasons come in their turn, Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter; as we are running from the cradle to the grave, reaching for some hand in the distance, stopping for a foothold on some vessel far out at sea, swiftly flying still further from us, and trying to live, so does the young man from Wisconsin, M. PEARSON, still live, and still continue to do business in Albany, Ogn., and feels thankful for past favors and patronage, which nerves his heart on to a greater effort to accommodate his many customers, and to sell them GROCERIES and PROVISIONS, of which he has a very good stock on hand, cheap for cash or produce. The young man from Wisconsin, M. PEARSON, still lives, and is always ready to buy, sell, swap or dicker, at Cheadle's old stand, corner of First and Broadbain streets, Albany.

WATCHES.—For an assortment of gold and silver watches, all sizes and prices, go to J. D. Titus' new jewelry store. He has got the fullest assortment ever brought here.

THAT ENEMY OF MANKIND, Consumption, can be cured; but it is far better to prevent the cruel disease from fastening itself on the system, by the timely use of a remedy such as Dr. Wilder's Balsam of Wild Cherry affords.

"OIL UP."—Pure linseed oil, manufactured at Salem Mill, can be procured of Geo. F. Settlemer, druggist, First street, Albany, at $1 30 per gallon.

MEMORIAL.—Owing to the fact of the American Medical Association meeting in San Francisco next May, the Physicians should take prompt measures to secure a full attendance. Therefore it is proposed that all graduates of Medicine in good standing in Linn, Polk, Yamhill and Marion counties, meet in Salem on Monday August 15th, at 10 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of organizing a Union Medical Society.

Legal tenders $4@55. San Francisco quotations as follows: Flour—Oregon extra from old wheat, quotable at $6@85 50, and Oregon superfine at $5@6 25. Wheat—The market rules steady, and quotations are: Prime shipping, $1 80 @1 82 1/2; fair, $1 75; good to choice milling, for local use, $1 80@1 90.

Oats—California are held at $1 40@ $1 50, nominal. Onions—Quotable at 90c@81 15. While quotations remain at 75 cents, good wheat readily commands 80 cents per bushel in this market. No other changes noted.

NEW TO-DAY. 150,000 Bushels of Wheat WANTED at the FROMAN BUILDINGS. 50,000 sacks for the farmers who store or sell to us. Flax seed contractors of the Pioneer Oil Co. will call on us for sacks. E. CARTWRIGHT. Albany, August 6, 1870.

Attention. BRENNER, HAVING BOUGHT OUT the interest of Sander, Sternberg & Co. in their Brownsville store, intends moving his stock of goods from this city to Brownsville immediately. This being the case, he wishes all those indebted to him, either by note or account, to call at his store and pay the same, within ten days from this date, or he will be compelled to enforce payment according to law. H. BRENNER. Albany, August 5, 1870-482

TELEGRAPHIC.

Dates to August 1st. NEW YORK, August 2.—Dispatches report a naval engagement on Wednesday last, at the mouth of the river Elbe.

VIENNA, Aug. 2.—Austria is mobilizing fifty thousand men to watch Bohemia.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 2.—Metz correspondence asserts that the great battle will be fought by Monday at farthest.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The war news this morning is meagre and unimportant. The impression prevails that the arrival of the French fleet from the Baltic alone prevents the Prussians advancing through France to Paris.

Advices received by telegraph from Prussian headquarters on the Rhine, up to 3 o'clock P. M. yesterday. There had been no general engagement up to that hour. Scouting parties and skirmishers from both armies continually raiding into each other's territory.

The presence of the immense armies on the frontier of France and the Rhenish provinces, give rise to serious apprehensions of famine. To avoid impoverishing the theatre of war, the Emperor draws all his army supplies from a distance, by railway.

The Dauntless will not compete for the Queen's cup. BERLIN, Aug. 2.—The scene of the departure of King William was one of the wildest enthusiasm and loyalty.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—Official dispatches announce that an engagement took place at 11 o'clock. The French took the offensive, crossed the Prussian lines, drove the enemy from their batteries on the outskirts of Saarbrucken, and speedily captured the town.

The Emperor and Prince both took part in the engagement. French loss very slight. No further particulars.

Rumors in relation to the neutrality of Austria and Italy premature. An alliance between Denmark and France is forming. Italian troops will enter Rome on the plea of protection, as soon as Napoleon's troops are withdrawn from that city.

King William is at Mayence; Napoleon at Metz.

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—King William, upon his arrival at Mayence, issued a proclamation to the Army of Germany assuming command in chief.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—More details of the Saarbrucken affair received. The fight began at 11 o'clock yesterday. The French passed the frontier in force. The Prussians were driven from their strong position by the artillery fire of the French. The latter remained masters of the position, which was won without serious loss. The Emperor and Prince imperial witnessed the conflict, and then returned to Metz for dinner.

It is generally admitted by the French that their hesitancy sacrificed the advantages they possessed at the outset of the campaign. An early start might have overwhelmed Germany, but now the French are compelled to act on the defensive.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—The arrest of one of Nathan's murderers is deemed probable to-day. A man whose shirt and stockings were bathed in blood, was tracked home from New York. Upon his arrest and his person searched, two or three diamonds were found upon him.

YANKEE, Aug. 3.—Warm, the mercury up to 107° in the shade.

PORTLAND, Aug. 3.—Thermometer marks 97° in the shade.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—A combat has taken place on the Baltic between the French and Prussian fleets. Two Prussian gunboats are reported captured.

The French land forces are advancing. Five hundred thousand rations are issued daily for the French army.

The King of Italy will protect Rome. Symptoms of trouble in London, to occur on the occasion of the approaching celebration, are announced.

13,000 reinforcements leave Madrid for Cuba immediately.

The delay on both sides in opening the campaign, after the armies were in readiness, is attributed to the renewal on the part of Napoleon, of propositions for peace, which were formally refused to-day by Bismarck. The French Government is preparing an answer to the last dispatch of Bismarck.

The Crown Prince of Prussia, Frederick William, remains in command. He will not take command of the South German army as reported.

PARIS, Aug.—Dispatches from the Emperor, on the field, confirm the report of the capture of Saarbrucken. The new French gun was operated with deadly effect.

A correspondent of the London News says that the war enthusiasm is dying out in Paris.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—England is shipping 15,000 horses daily to the continent, from whence they are immediately sent to the German frontier.

Considerable indignation is manifested at Gladstone's peace policy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The Herald's special says there has been hard fighting to-day at Weisberg. A large force of Prussians advanced ten miles into French territory, destroying miles of railroad. The French were driven from the field, and the Prussians now occupy their camps. Gen. Genetot was killed, and 500 wounded French prisoners fell into the hands of the Prussians. Loss of the Prussians reported heavy. The Crown Prince led the Prussians in person.
