LOCAL AFFAIRS

RAILROAD MEETING.—A fair attendance was had at the railroad meeting on last Saturday night, and upon the vote being taken, the meeting was unanimous for accepting the note proposition of Mr. Holladay, in lieu of the subscription papers issued some time since. Each subscriber on those papers gives his note for the amount subscribed, payable thirty days after the road is finished to this city, provided such completion is had by July, 1871. It was the general feeling that Mr. Holladay is coming out of his way, at considerable extra expense, and against the wishes of those who would have seen Albany left "out in the cold," in making our city a point on his road, and that the $50,000 asked for is nothing more than his just due for so doing. The form of the note, as given above, has been accepted by Mr. Holladay, and we suppose there will be no difficulty in changing the subscriptions into notes. We must have a railroad, and to get it we are willing to aid in its construction. We had better give the $50,000 and get the road, even if it is not finished in two years or more, than to refuse to "come down" and get no road. Our prosperity as a city depends to a great extent, we might almost say, wholly, on our being on the main trunk of the Oregon & California Railroad, and so small a matter as the changing a subscription into a note should not cause a moment's hesitancy in any one who has at heart the interests of this community. The form of note has been carefully gotten up and printed, and a complete consisting of Messrs. Hanon, Montgomery, Barrows, Froman, Cooner, Hogue and Foster appointed to attend to getting them signed by those whose names are attached to the subscription papers. It is to be hoped that each person will sign upon presentation, so that there may be as little delay as possible in fixing up the whole matter.

APPOINTMENTS.—The M. E. Annual Conference, at its recent session at Vancouver, W. T., made the following appointments for Salem District: N. Doane, Presiding Elder; Salem, L. J. Powell; S. Salem, J. H. Wilbur; Silverton, to be supplied; Jefferson, L. T. Woodward; Lebanon and Scio, John Egan; Albany, C. W. Todd; Brownsville, J. H. Rook; Monroe and Corvallis, P. M. Starr; Buena Vista, to be supplied; Yaquina, to be supplied; Dallas, D. L. Spaulding; Willamette University, L. J. Powell, Professor, A. F. Waller, agent; Santiam Academy, J. B. Calloway, Principal; J. D. Driver, agent American Bible Society, and member Salem Quarterly Conference. There were sixty five members present at the Annual Conference. The following resolution was warmly discussed and finally passed by the Conference: Resolved, That the presiding Bishop be requested hereafter to ask every candidate for admission into this Conference: "Do you use tobacco in any form?" and no person who will not pledge himself forever to abstain from it's use, shall be admitted.

Messrs. L. Goldsmith & Co.—On last Tuesday Messrs. L. Goldsmith & Co., of Portland, opened their immense stock of foreign and domestic dry goods, at 75 Front and 76 First streets, to which they invite the attention of the trade. From a reference to their advertisement, which appears in this issue, it will be seen that their stock embraces every variety of goods demanded by the people of Oregon, manufactured expressly to meet their wants, and they will be disposed of at such prices as cannot fail to prove beneficial to the purchaser. If our merchants can procure goods at as fair terms at Portland as at San Francisco, it is obviously to their interest so to do. Being confident of the ability and the disposition of Messrs. L. Goldsmith & Co. to do this, we heartily recommend our valley merchants to call and compare goods and prices while at Portland. It will doubtless save expenses to, and freight from, San Francisco. The character of the firm for liberality and integrity is unimpeachable.

LIFE INSURANCE.—The Company that insures at low rates and pays all losses promptly, is the Company to insure with. See the card of Mr. Jacob, Adm'r. of the estate of our late townsman S. Rosenstein. The deceased insured in the New England Life, through Messrs. Russell & Elkins, for $5,000. In less than two years thereafter he died, leaving his wife and children nothing to protect them from actual want, save and except this life policy. The New England, through its manager for Oregon, comes promptly forward and pays the $5,000 in full, and the family are placed in good circumstances. Jas. Elkins is the agent for Albany.

ACCIDENT.—A man at work on Beach & Monteth's mill-race, just below the mill, was pretty badly bruised on Tuesday by the caving in of the rock through which the race is being dug. He is about, all right again, we learn.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.—The Albany Brewery, on Broadabin street, was the scene of a shooting affair on Wednesday evening. It seems that Linn Bowers, who lives three or four miles from this city, in Benton county, went into the brewery on the evening in question, and called for beer. Charley Rogers, one of the proprietors, drew the beer. After a few more words between the parties, brought about by Rogers' disputing an assertion made by Bowers, the latter remarked that he expected he would have to shoot some before he left town. Rogers remarked that if he wanted to shoot, he could pitch in, and he would shoot, and a few words passed between the parties, when Bowers remarked, "I will shoot," and drawing his six-shooter he fired across the bar at Rogers, but missed him. At the second fire his aim was destroyed by the brewer, John Netter, who caught him from behind, while Rogers hit him "one" over the head with a beer mug, cutting quite a gash. Bowers was soon disarmed and in the hands of the City Marshal, who lost no time in carrying the shooter into the presence of the City Recorder Arnold. Bowers, acting as his own attorney, in justification of the shooting, said it was an agreement between him and Rogers, that he was to shoot and Rogers was to pay all damages, and he did shoot, and hurt nothing, while he had received all the damages, in the way of a large gash on the head. In view of all the facts in the case, the Recorder bound Linn Bowers over in $500 to await the action of the grand jury.

RETURN.—Messrs. Riley, Mendenhall, Althouse, and two others, after a six days' hunt, brought down fifty-two deer and one black bear. Messrs. Comley, Crouse, Hurd and Pat. Farrell, after a two days' hunt, killed nine deer. Through the kindness of Mr. J. C. Mendenhall, we were presented with a ham, which we relished much.

A SUCCESS.—The Methodist Sewing Society, held on Wednesday evening last, at the residence of Judge R. M. Powers, was a very pleasant and agreeable affair. Mrs. Powers has the rare tact of making her guests feel perfectly at home. The church fund realized quite an amount from the large number in attendance.

WHEAT RECEIPTS.—For the week ending Sept. 1st: Magnolia Mills, 5,988.7 bushels; Albany City Mills, 4,500 bushels.

SERVICES TO-MORROW.—There will be preaching at the M. E. Church to-morrow morning and evening, by the Rev. J. S. Douglas. All are invited.

The Scio News says that Mr. J. R. Lake recently purchased, in that vicinity, a colt with six legs, for the sum of $200, which will be added to the other attractions of the Overland Circus.

The same paper says that Mr. Morehead, in searching for a spring of water on his land claim some twelve miles from Scio, found a promising coal vein. The croppings were tested, and pronounced a good article of coal.

On the first page of the REGISTER will be found the opinion of Judge Boise in the Whitney-Johns case. Whitney appeals to the Supreme Court.

Jas. B. Sperry, Co. Assessor, has appointed A. N. Arnold, Deputy Assessor, and he will in a few days commence the assessment of city property for county purposes.

Those wild birds that went into the country a mile or so and raided on a melon patch, were caught in the act, and one of them received a charge of small shot in the rear. It is cheaper to buy melons, boys.

R. Cheadle & Co. have been receiving new goods again. By next steamer they expect to receive the largest stock of sugars ever brought to this market.

We are obliged to Mr. Pearson for a fine, large melon. He is largely increasing his stock of groceries.

Grouse, pheasants and wild pigeons are to be found in quantities a short distance from the city, and they are young, fat and tender.

Mr. L. S. Waldrip and family have arrived from McMinnville, to take up their residence here. We welcome them to their old home.

Miss Lizzie Smith, youngest daughter of Mrs. Delazon Smith, is very low with diphtheria.

Mr. Doolittle, reported so low last week, is still alive, but fading rapidly.

The Oregon & California Railroad Company now have six locomotives, the last received being a thirty ton, first class engine, called the "Salem."

Mr. Hank Mendenhall, next door to this office, has put in a force pump, to keep his butcher shop cool, and lay the dust on Front street.

THE WAR Between the old and the new; between high prices and long credits on the one hand, and small profits and ready pay on the other, still continues to rage with unabated fury at Brownsville, and Wheeler, who represents in this contest the new order of things, seems determined "to fight it out on that line" if it takes a lifetime.

"Oil Up."—Pure linseed oil, manufactured at Salem Mill, can be procured of Geo. F. Settlemyer, druggist, First street, Albany, at $1.30 per gallon.

Testimonial. Mr. Geo. W. Travers, 131 First street, Portland—Dear Sir: With much pleasure I add my testimony in favor of the Home Shuttle Sewing Machine. My experience in using it several months has proved quite satisfactory. I have no trouble in running over seams and uneven surfaces, making a strong "Lock Stitch" which can be readily changed while the machine is in motion. I would advise every lady, before purchasing, to examine The Home Shuttle.
