NEW TO-DAY.

IMPORTANT

TO THE

INSURING PUBLIC!

ALARMING MORTALITY!

Within the past three years, six of the local Insurance Companies of San Francisco, representing a capital of over $2,000,000, suspended the first four during the late war of 1867 and 1868—the last two during the past few weeks.

Six out of Twelve in less than three years is an alarming record of mortality, and should suggest to the insuring public the propriety of avoiding experimental, inexperienced, and low rate companies, and patronizing the old established, conservative, wealthy, and prudent managed corporations of the solid and permanent order.

PHENIX

INSURANCE COMPANY

JUSTLY TAKES RANK AS THE LEADING AMERICAN
Fire Insurance Co.

Their contracts are endorsed by each assets exceeding

$1,700,000.

Their business is managed by underwriters who have no superior and but few equals in the United States. Their risks are small, carefully selected, and scattered throughout the entire United States, thus avoiding heavy loss in the most serious conflagration. Their rates are not of the guess or gambler order, but are based on actual experience, and are as low as good insurance can be furnished at.
Their losses are honorably and promptly adjusted, and paid in gold coin without delay or discount. Their agents, located at all points of importance, have authority to issue policies direct, thus avoiding the danger and delay incident to the sub-agent system, and every particular, both as regards policy, permanency, prudent management, honorable conduct, equitable rates, and conservative practices.

The Phoenix of Hartford, furnishes facilities to the insuring public unequalled by any other company doing business on this coast.

TELEGRAPHIC.

(SPECIAL TO THE REGISTER.)
Dates to September 8.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Prussians rapidly advancing on Paris; cavalry within ten miles of the city fortifications, the main army being within thirty miles.

The greatest excitement prevails in Paris and vicinity.

Paris, Sept. 9.—Along the Boulevards to-night the people are shouting vive la United States! vive la Independence!

Favre to-day again reiterated thanks to Minister Washburne and the United States.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Meetings were held yesterday at Lancaster and Killarney to sympathize with France.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The people to-day attacked the office of the Marseilles, on account of Cluseret's article yesterday, broke the forms and burned all papers to be found.

Switzerland recognizes the Republic of France.

The moats around Paris have been filled with water.

All persons desiring to leave the city are required to do so immediately.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Communications have passed between England and the new French Government, but there is no recognition of the Republic as yet.

Paris, Sept. 9.—An armistice is under consideration, instituted by the diplomatic corps. The question has been submitted to the Provisional Government by Russian, Italian and Spanish ambassadors.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—King William has given orders that Napoleon be treated as a sovereign of France.

It is denied that Lord Lyons has gone to King William's headquarters.

Paris correspondent of the Aves says: England having declined to negotiate for an armistice, Austria undertakes it.

The Standard's Paris correspondent says the Prussians cannot successfully besiege the city with their six hundred thousand men, the casualties of war thus far aggregating four hundred thousand—more than one-half this immense number either dead or maimed for life.

Paris, Sept. 10.—It is certain that the Ministers of Finance, War and Foreign Affairs will go to Tours at once. It is believed if communications are cut, matters have been so arranged that the authorities will manage to correspond between Tours and Paris.

A letter received from Strassburg says the condition of the city is much better than supposed. The garrison has plenty of munitions, and food for two months.

Paris, Sept. 10.—Figaro says the Republic of France has been officially recognized by Spain. Heavy rains the past few days has retarded the Prussians from advancing into the city.

The Garde Mobile have attacked the Prussians at different points, killing, wounding and capturing numbers of them.

New York, Sept. 11.—Paris special says the prospects of peace are more favorable. Austria and Russia, having consented to negotiate with Germany, began by insisting on an armistice. Bismarck insisted, as a preliminary arrangement, that three Prussian army corps be encamped within twenty miles of Paris, to satisfy public opinion of Germany.

Great indignation is felt at Paris in consequence of the refusal of Earl Granville to aid peace negotiations. His course was inspired by the Queen, who wishes to make the Republic impossible.

Paris, Sept. 11.—Trochu has given orders to destroy all the woods in sight of Paris on the enemy's approach.

The citadel of Laon surrendered to save the city from destruction. The Prussians subsequently blew up the fortifications.

The Provisional Government, although assailed by the Red Republicans and Omnists, succeeds admirably. The conduct of the people of Paris is the highest degree of order and praiseworthy.

Asiatic cholera prevails among the troops besieging Metz.

The garrison at Toul still holds out.

Berne, Sept. 11.—Delegations have left this city for the headquarters of the King of Prussia, to intercede for Strassburg.

Paris, Sept. 11.—Spain formally recognizes the new Republic; Belgium is expected to do so at once.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—A. M.—The Empress visited the Prince Imperial at Hastings on Thursday. She is ill.

RUEIMS, Sept. 11.—Official reports of the battle of Sedan say that forty-five cannon were taken, and the French lost in killed, wounded and prisoners, 140,000.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—A popular demonstration on a large scale is being held here to-day, in favor of the French Republic, and against monarchy at home and abroad. The imbecility of the British Government strongly denounced. The name of the Queen received with a tempest of hisses, and a voice in the crowd proposed three groans for the Prince of Wales, and the response was universal and passionate.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Telegrams from the seat of war here to-day are a perfect chaos of wild and contradictory statements. Paris has begun to refuse private telegrams.

The Times says France has been cursed with military dictatorship.

A stubborn defense of Paris is certain if the city is besieged. The idea that the Prussians will walk in without difficulty is a great mistake.

OSNEY, Sept. 12.—Paris advices of French successes at Toul and Mont Medy, together with reported halt of the Prussian advance, led to more activity on the Bourse.

The Prussian army has halted 25 miles from Paris, at the special request of Bismarck, to consider the propositions of Russia and Austria for an armistice.

PARIS, Sept. 12.—The Ministry has just made public the following important intelligence: The Prussians attacked Toul Saturday morning at 5 o'clock, and persisted until 9 in the evening. They were, however, constantly repulsed, and many of their batteries dismounted.

More than 19,000 Prussians were placed hors de combat at Mont Medy on Thursday. The garrison speedily repulsed the Prussian attack.

The Prussians have surrounded Meaup.
They have arrived in force at Crecy, and are approaching Noisy to Grand.

Paris is cheered this morning by the news that the Prussians are insisting on an armistice. Also, that the United States has interfered, and sent decided dispatches to Berlin, in consequence of which the Prussian advance has been stopped.

RUESSLS, Sept. 12.—Italy, Austria and Russia agree in principle, and have authorized Russia to ask Prussia for an armist
